ASHEVILLE GIVES LIGHT TO OTHERS.
We take the following from the Pensacola Advance-Crestle.
We seem to be able to give light out of our abundance—that is to be.
As will be seen in the report of the Municipal proceedings, that the President was authorized to look after the matter of lighting the city with electricity. It gives us pleasure to state that bids have already been received from several Electric Light Companies, asking for the contract.

THE STRAIGHT-OUT REPUBLICAN MEANS HOLD THEIR OWN MEETING.
To Raise the Republican Banner from the West.
DEMOCRACY HAVE TWO TICKETS TO OFFER.
To Your Tent, Oh Democrat.

THE LENOIR TOPIC SAYS: Mr. J. A. Kelley, of Boston, has a little two-year old child that has been taught to sing itself to sleep when shaken from side to side, gently, on the bed, as one would shake, "patty cake, patty cake, Baker's man," a corn dodger from hand to hand. On the night of the earthquake the little child felt the shaking and began to sing its little ditty and was soon fast asleep.
