FAGE FOUR

The Gazette-News

就就就就就說說說說說說說說說說說說說說說

ber of The Associated Press. Its telegraph news is there-fore complete and reliable.

ne be be ne pe pe pe be he he Entered at the Postoffice in Asheville as second-class matter.

THE TANK

Thursday, April 17, 1913

the public investigation which he de mands of the conduct upon which the administration looked so severely an

to remove him from office summarily

and ignominiously. The investigation should be ordered in justice to Mr.

Moore and to the public whose office

abused in promoting a cabal to fur-

that all was not well between the Houston, to whose place he aspired that Mr. Moore conducted, or that bring about his elevation to cabinet

rank. Such misgivings as were en-proprieties in his behalf among fed-

utilization of the government's resources to further his candidacy would obviously have been highly improper.

Nor on the other hand is it to be tolerated that a faithful and efficient

be "driven out in disgrace" by "third degree methods," as he alleges, for legitimately aspiring to a post awarded to another, who thereupon acquired the power to destroy a rival. The county should know where the truth is in this controversy, regardless of

ECCENTRICITIES OF A GENIUS.

What is this unseemly noise coming

the consequences.

Houston.

ther his personal ambition.

The

16

The Gazette-News is a mem-

· 如何的法律中下部的支持。至此日本国家的主要的 THE ASHEVILLE GAZETTE NEWS

Thursday, April 17, 1913

Evening News Publishing Co. ASHEVILLE, N. C. finted securities are responsible for SUBSCRIPTION RATES: Asheville and Biltmore.
the trouble railways have to pay divi-dends, increase the pay of operatives and still transport freight and pas-sengers at reasonable rates. More conservative opinion is that railway management is extravarent and medi the trouble railways have to pay divi-BY MAIL IN ADVANCE: management is extravagant and ineffi-

just at this time.

Any matter offered for publication that is not classified as news, giving notice or appealing for support of any entertainment or project where an admittance or other fee is charg-ed is advertising and will be accept-ed at regular rates only. The same applies to cards of thanks, oblituary notices, political announcements and to the flame of class discontent.

SEASONAL VERSE.

It was such a day as this that gave irth to English poetry:

When that April with his showers notices, political announcements and the root. And bathed every vein in such liquor.

Of which virtue engendered is the flower:

When Zephirus eek with his sweet breath The tender shoots, and the young sun Hath in the Ram his half course run And small fouls make melody,

That sleep all night with open eye (So pricketh nature in his hearts That long folk to go on pilgrimages, And palmers for to seek strange strands,

To distant saints, known in certain lands; And especially from every shire's end

THE STORM IN THE WEATHER BUREAU, WEATHER The holy blissful mratyr for to seek Prof. Willis L. Moore is entitled to Befell that, in that season on a day...

Or words to that effect: said season eing the middle of April. It is the song of the call of the wild. And some Spring poetry, at that.

The Denver chief of police, suddenly called upon to cope with a horde of and confidence he is alleged to have Industrial Workers (self-styled) talks in quite a breezy, western way of his purposed dealings with them, and It has been evident for some time translates his English into forcible action. He threatened to pack the Denweather bureau chief and Secretary ver jails with their "unwashed bodies" and has made good his threat. Justi There has been no secret of the fact fication for this procedure is found in the dictum that circumstances alter there was conducted on his behalf, a cases. The right of free assemblage campaign of unparalleled activity to and free speech is not so directly involved as the right of a community to protect itself from mischief at the tertained at the time, however, did hands of itinerants whose announced not generally contemplate that im- purpose is to create mischief. The landing of these "pilgrims" in prison eral employes had extended to such cells is a matter altogether different lengths as represented by Secretary from the system of police repression used to overawe radicals among the Organized political activity among striking thousands of eastern cities in such federal employes as Mr. Moore recent months, could influence in his behalf and the There is something akin to genius in Champ Clark's daring speculation that steam laundries and collar manufacturers are in graceless and atroclou alliance as producer and consumer public servant of high repute should The usual remedy of investigation should be resorted to, and by al means let it be hastened.

> Mr. Hearst accuses the President of canity and a craving for newspaper notoriety. When a gentleman like Mr Hearst accuses the President of the United States of such things the situa tion becomes exceedingly serious, Prof. Moore will not deny, we suppose, that there have been considerable irregularities in his weather.

Choisest Roses to be had for Brownhurst Green Houses.

out of Detroit? A roar to the effect that Tyrus Raymond Cobb is gettin above his raisin' and stands in general need of a sound spanking? Such we wather to be the gist of the remarks of the president of the Tigers. Apyhow Mr. Navin will have no more of his former pride and glory until Georgio's favorite son takes cap in hand and goes begging for a job at the old figure.

None need be surprised at anythins a baseball magnate does or says, but we ask, is this any way to treat Tyrus Raymond Cobb? "In the past I have put up with a great deal from Mr. Cobb," says Navin, and goes into par ticulars: "If Mr. Cobb doesn't like : room a hotel clerk gives him, he quits the club for a week. If he doesn't like what a silly man in the grand stand yells at him, he punches his face and is again out of the game. If he doesn't feet like practicing he stays Tuesday afternoon to the teachers at away from the park," efc., etc. Mr. their conference in the High school. Navin even refers unfeelingly to Cobb's "barnstorming team," recently edifying the south, and his daily ulti- life in New Zealand and An Iralia, and matum from Augusta.

Mere eccentricities of genius, these. If Achilles could sulk in his tent cannot Ty Cobb? If Sarah Bernhardt could drive managers to the madhouse. cannot Ty Cobb pout in Mr. Navin's vicinity?

Fortunately the Georgia Federation of Labor is at hand to save a great conveyances were provided at the pub man in distress. It is planned to bust, the whole baseball trust to give employment to the Cracker State's needy educated as to be able to enter at of the whole basebail (Triat to kive the ployment to the Cracker State's needs son. But we much fear Ty's old jaunty mien is some forever. There is not much heart in his comeback to Navia. BAER'S PALACE CAR. George F. Baer, president of the philadelphis and Reading Railroad company, has a new private car. It roat $100,000. It has a specially de-signed china and giver service, an onameled bathtub, and all its fitting and appointments are in sumption pay dividends on a good skew block of the company's stock. If My Rari contained have surried along with a 125. which have corried along with a 135. When the the test of their particulation with a 135. When shift would have been match forter for the

As we understand it, there is n general demand for justice in South Carolina.

The First Lord should also essay to remove some of the nauti from nauti cal talk.

May Day is a propitious occasion fo taking 'em off-if the weather is light.

We expect to be able to procure ceal wool hat next fall.

The real thing begins a week from today.

Dr. Cowles' Address.

Dr. Cowles, on the invitation of th school authorities, gave an address The doctor was asked to speak especially in regard to the conditions of for an hour he spoke and answeres numerous questions regarding the edu cational system in the southern hem and that of a isphere. He informed his hearers that in New Zealand and Australia educa tion was quite free, from primary to university, and that the students attending all the public schools wer allowed to travel free on the railway and street cars and in remote distric expense. He also spoke of th cational schools in Australia and stat ed that at the age of 15 boys we

A fresh shipment has just been received of this popular home-made candy. The fact that it is unusually good is shown in the number of regular customers, who eagerly await We would like for you to try a box of Miss Holladay's candy and we feel sure you will be one of the regular There are fully fifteen different kinds