The Waters of Life.

BY JAMES MONTOPMERY, OF LONDON.

From thence (Arnoh in the wilderness.) they went to Beer; that is the well whereof the Lord spake unto Moses-Gather the people together, and I will give them water.

Then Israel sung this song-Spring up, O well ! sing ye unto it. The Princes digged the well, the Nobles of the People digged it, by the direction of the Lawgiver, with their staves -- Neusans xxi, 16-18.

Spring up, O Well ! sweet Fountain I spring, And fructify the descrit rand ; Sing, ye that drink the waters, sing, They dance along the smiling land, With flowers adorn, with verdure dress

The waste and howling wilderness.

Ho ! every one that thirsts, draw night, Fainting with sickness, worn with toil; Let him that hath no money, buy, Buy milk and honey, wine and oil, -Those fourfold streams of Paradise, Priceless, because above all price.

Come to the pool, ye lame and blind ! Ye lepers ! to the Jordan come ! Sight, strength, and heating, each may find ; Approach the waves, ye deaf and dumb ! Their joyful sound ye soon shall hear, And your own voice salute your car.

In every form the waters run, Rill, river, torrent, lake and sea ;

Through every clime beneath the sun,

Free as the air, as daylight free, 'Till earth's whole face the floods o'ersweep, As occan's tides the channel'd deep.

As moved, with mighty wings outspread, God's Spirit o'er the formiess void, So be that Spirit's influence shed To new-create a world destroy'd. Till all that died through Adam's fall, Revive in Christ, who died for all.

GODET'S LADT'S BOOK. TOLS. 22 & 23,-1841.

Edited by Mrs. Sarah J. Hale and Mrs. Lydia H. Signurney. Miss E. Lestie will have a contri. hution in every Number.

THE only Magazine in this country intended for the perusal of Fermales that is edited by their own sex. This is an important matter and should be berns in mind by these mothets who intend catering for the ir own, or their daughters' instruction and annovment.

The Lady's Book has been published by the same Proprietor for nearly eleven years, and dur-ing that time he can safely ray that no article has been admitted in its columns that parents might not with safety read to their childs ren. It has been his constant care to prevent the work from being sectarian, political or disputations. He has watched its progress from its first appearance in the world of letters to its now almost mature age. How many vain efforts have been made during the period of its existence to establish a rivalry-how many are still making, but in voia! The Book may almost be considered the creation of a taste for periodical literature. There is but one magazine now in this country that can date its origin from the same period as the Lady's Book; out the latter was the earliest periodical to offer remunicration for literary contributions. GENERAL CONTENTS.-One original large sized Steel Eugraving, by A. L. Dick, in each number. A fashion plate, coloured (mark that) every month. I'wo pages (generally original) Music in each aumber. Forty-eight pages reading matter. PETORIAL DEFATIMENT .- The same attention

o this department will be displayed. Thee splendid Steel Engraviale, by A. L. Dick, Esq., that gave so much satisfaction last volume, will be

Throughout this year, the plates will be varied. and embrace serious and pleasing subjects, and others that will contain a dash of humour. All tastes shall be consulted. Engravings from the paintings of Landseer and Callins, two of the most eminent painters of London, will from time to time grace our Book, and as soon as arrangements can be completed, our long cherished plan of original engravings from paintings originelly pre-pared for the Book, will be given, one in each number. Two are now in preparation. Our means gives us the opportunity of embasking in this ex. to the Estate either by note or otherwise to make casive speculation -- we may fail in being remu nerated for our outlay, but our subscribers will be benefited. "We give twice as many embellishments as any other Magazine, and each plate is, because we pay more for its engraving, superior to the one of any contemporary, and yet the price of the Magazine is not increased? <sup>5</sup> Our edition is immense, double any other publication, therefore we are enabled to go to a greater expense than any other publishers A botter return nmy therefore be expected for the price paid for subscriptions. The voice of the public press has prononneed Godey's Lady's Book at the head of the periodical year, according to the wish of the owner. Literature of the country, and he is determined that it shall retain its proud superiority. With this view he has chosen for its conductors two of the most chainent female writers of this or any other country---Mrs. Hale and Mrs, Sigourney assisted monthly by one of no less ability, Mis

Leslie. In speaking of our Engravings, we beg leave to call attention to the following published in last olume, viz: View of Constantinople, Schurylkif Water Works, The Indian Maid, The Pilgrim, Happy as a King, The Death of Luath. With each of these was published a Fashion-plate, conaining either three or four figures beautifully and tastefully coloured.

Universally pronounced superior to any other Magazine illustrations in this or any other country. Beautiful as they undoubtedly are, we pronounce, without hesitation, that those for this year shall be superior. The engraving shall always be worth more than the price of subscription. We do not, as many of our contempories do, who would scorn to tell a verbal falschood, pass off second hand plates as original. Ours are undoubtedly so, and the designs selected by ourselves, and they will be continued throughout the year. GODEN's BOOK has been emphatically termed

The Ladies' National Magazine, as it is receptacle for the contributions of the most celebrated female riters of America, most of whom of any cml. nee contribute to its pages. In a future publication we will devote a column to publishing the names of our contributors. It is too long, except for a separate advertisement. But let this be remembered, that we never in writers in our country, and good ones too, who if they are paid will furnish matter sufficient for all our periodicals.

Twenty-one volumes have already been issued It is trush to announce that a small edition only will be published. Contrary to this, the Proprietor of the Lady's Book announces that he will publish an immense edition, with which he hopes. to supply all those who will favour him with orders, commencing with the January number.

It will be seen by this advertisement that every effort has been made by the Proprietor of this work to make it superior to any other in America; and as a new year's gift, the Lady's Book is probably the most proper that could be desired for Ladies, edited by their own sex, and assisted, as the Editorial Department is, by the Pictorial Embelishments, it is positively the parlour companion. The Times aptly remarks that " a subscription to this work, would be a much more accentable present to a fair friend during the coming holiday on, than any of the gingerbread annuals made of Laura Matilda poetry and diluted prose." There are other publications that advertise

s. The Publisher of the Lady,s Book fashion pl wishes it to be distinctly understood that the prin-cipal factions in his work are colored, and in every number; which is not the case with any other work published in this country: unless they are coloured they are useless.

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT Is placed under the superintendence of Mrs. Sarah J. Hale and Mrs. Lydia H. Sigourney; two ladies so well known to the world, that to mention their names in con-nection with any publication is at once a guaran. tee of its morality, virtue, and utility. Of their capability to conduct the Lady's Book, it is presumed no person will doubt, and the proprietor mentions with pleasure that no English or American Magazine can publish in connection with its literary Department two names so effebrated in the world of letters. It will be remembered that Miss Leslie contributes to each number."

THE MUSICAL DEPARTMENE is under the superintendence of J. G. Osborne, than whom no person is more capable of doing it justice.
