

POETRY

From the London Literary Gazette:
The Battle's History.
He stood without me feeling bold
Upon his native shore.

Book Alert

By JOSEPH J. LITTLE:
To the forest of life, when the wax and the gate
Are around and above, if the footing should fail.

Battle of Bloody Brook. A PASSAGE IN AMERICAN HISTORY.

By L. B. CHAPIN:
What hallooed round where heroes sleep?
'Tis not the aspirant who here sleep.

It was a gloomy eve, when the fast face of our country was every where a dark wilderness.

within him, and his bosom to swell with rage.
Already had the numbers of the pale faces become alarming, and their bold horridness had inspired a spirit of dread.

For many years was this pleasant valley
the scene of heroic struggles—of suffering, and of death. Long did the sturdy white man sustain himself against the superior numbers

It was thus with our forefathers, when an attack was anticipated from the combined forces of the Indians on the little nucleus

It was a gloomy eve, when the fast face of our country was every where a dark wilderness.

History makes no mention of King Philip being in the part of the country, either at any other time; but, from a tradition among the Indians border. Each burned for the ally, and quickly spring into the trail of his great captain.

Here, deeply imprinted on our memory wild grass, shrubs, and blossoming berries, filled the valley in the undisturbed victory

A gleam of hope broke through the fearful prospect, and for a moment relieved the combat which the overwhelming numbers and fierce

Water must be supplied in the nature of the land, or there will be no hope of the species.

Impelled with fury at the destruction which they saw making in their ranks by the almost superhuman efforts of the whites, the savages

Returning to the spot which history has so frequently designated as "Bloody Brook," the barbarous enemy, on completing their destruction

It was a gloomy eve, when the fast face of our country was every where a dark wilderness.

madness, this furious host rushed down the hill upon the brutal force, yet glowing in blood, and falling like lions among them; made

A sad duty now devolved on the final victors. They dug on the spot the sepulchre which to this day contains the commingling

It is not a little curious, among the phenomena of mind, to mark the effect of external objects in recalling long lost impressions.

Contagious and Epidemic Diseases.
Water must be supplied in the nature of the
land, or there will be no hope of the species.

To the Public.
We certify that we have been appointed with a certain POLICE SHOULDER for several years, and YATTON & OSBORN, Asheville, N.C.

J. M. ALEXANDER, FARMER, N.C.
J. A. C. SMITH, MORGAN, N.C.

Plain and Fancy
BOOK AND JOB PRINTING
Given under my hand, this 24th day of March, 1845. ZACHARIAH Candler,
A. B. GURLEY,
DAVID FARGESWORTH,
A. E. BAIRD,
A. M. HOOPER,
W. M. H. RUSSELL,
STEPHEN BECK,
JOHN WADSWORTH,
CHRISTOPHER MILLS,
JACOB STEPHENS,
WARREN HUSTON,
JOHN WADSWORTH.

WANTED.

A young man, a good SADDLER, of steady habits, who can make and repair saddles, is wanted for the county of Henderson, N.C.

State of North Carolina,
Henderson Superior Court of Law and Equity, Term, 1845.

Notice.
The undersigned respectfully inform their customers that they have accounts, that are payable to the terms

SPECIAL COURT.
Whereas it appears in the case pending before the Superior Court for the county of Henderson, that the

BOOK BINDING AND
BLANK BOOK MANUFACTORY
At Lenoirville, N.C.

Various Dockets used in the Courts of this State, are the property of

NOTICE.
Whereas it appears in the case pending before the Superior Court for the county of Henderson, that the

NOTICE.
As a meeting of the Literary Society, on the 14th of April, 1845, it was

Dr. J. W. MELLOR'S
FAMILY MEDICINE.
PATER & OSBORN have for sale
DR. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.

State of North Carolina,
YANCEY COUNTY.
Yancy Superior Court of Law and Equity,
Spring Term, 1845.

A BUGGY,
Nearly new, with harness, can be bought cheap for application at this office.

IN PRESS.

POPULAR LECTURES
ON THE SUBJECTS OF PRACTICAL MORALITY, AND THE HISTORY OF THE

The Publishers announce that Dr. Latham having closed his professional labors as a public lecturer in this country, they have concluded

TO CONTRACTORS.
Placed in front of the building, and in front of the building, and in front of the building.

A BIRTH FOR THE MILLER.
Gardner's Magazine and Library,
No. 10, Broadway, New York.

SPECIAL COURT.
Whereas it appears in the case pending before the Superior Court for the county of Henderson, that the

NOTICE.
As a meeting of the Literary Society, on the 14th of April, 1845, it was

NOTICE.
Whereas it appears in the case pending before the Superior Court for the county of Henderson, that the

NOTICE.
As a meeting of the Literary Society, on the 14th of April, 1845, it was

DR. G. J. WARD.
Harris, McDowell & Co., N.C.

DR. G. J. WARD.
Harris, McDowell & Co., N.C.