arty exhibit such vitality during the first after its defeat. A glorious victory a. s us when the time shall arrive for gene nd vigorous action."

States House of Repre

The Mayaville Engle announces the death the Rev. John Collins, of the Methodist copal Church. In was a preacher for re than half a

Wisconsin Jus. L. Mavin, Loco, has en elected delegate to Congress from this

A Shocking Death .- A young Englishman, amed J. T. Bradford, employed in the Ken-ngton fron Works, at Pittsburg, an Monday ast, fell in between two large iron any wheels nd was instantly toro into fragments.

Sentenced to be Executed .- At Dover, N. I., Andrew Howard is sentenced for execu on the 12th of November, and it is not own that the executive will reprieve him. He murdered an elderly woman for her mon-

Alabama Marble - A marble quarry has been opened within three and a half miles of Tulladega, Ala., by Messrs. McKenzie d Taylor, and that workmen from Philadelphia en employed for working it. The Talladega Reporter says it is inexhaustable in quality-"in purely white, except there is islandly a gray line in it, of very fine grain, and susceptible of receiving a very Talladega Marble spoken of as very beauti-

The Steamship Calcdonia. SEVEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

The Royal steamer arrived at Boston on the 3d Nov. inst., at about 8 o'clock, A. M., with 98 passengers. London files to the 18th, and Liverpoul to the 19th ult., were received The steamer Massachusetts on the same day, with a full freight. Cotton is depressed business limited, prices rather downward in their tendency.

The sales of the wick, prior to the steamer's leaving, were only 20,000 bales. Price of corn was rising last.

Iron trade brisk.

American provision trade good, and propects of improving very flattering. Money Market rather wavering. Railway

The price of bread has advanced in Paris, and indeed all over Europe.

speculation still up.

The King and Queen of the Bel the last accounts were still in France, but were to return to Brussels the first of the

The Emancipation, a Toulouse ultra paper, speaks of the private marriage of the Q of Spain as follows :- Thus are expl sale which had almost conferred a repu on that poor sort of a pretender—the issuit res' recent and protracted visit to France, du Tuilleries, and repaired to Bourges, where he entered into communication with the Infante. elso explained the sudden po M. Munoz enjoys to the Bur-where he useried after the court, and made grand excit-ons; in short, Wollington and Parl cannot us journalist, or with any pred ver, against these entirent persons. In word, we do not put it forth with an orange ploring, though we admit that our authority is what they vulgarly describe as high Gonser.

The causes of the disagreement are said to e various-more than one, we are assurred, ectainty. The chief, how, indeed, could it otherwise? is the state of Ireland, and the slicy to be adopted in regard to this country lir Robert Peel, it is said, has shown a de ded aversion to coercive measures, as calcu ated to exasperate the wound rather than scal it. The Dake of Wellington would cut the Gordian not, if necessary, with the sword. Again, it has been reported, that the Duke of Wellington is inexorable on the corn laws; while Sir Robert Peel, yielding to the pressure, would relax, if not repeal them alto-

There are other differences mentioned, but it is needless to repeat more on dits or conectures. There is a serious split, we are onfidently told-so serious, that the noble duke and the right honorable gentleman seve. at Mobile. rally tendered their resignation into the hands of her Majesty.

It is added, that the Queen peremptorily refused to accept them, at least for the present. Every loyal subject will be of opinion that her majesty exercised a wise discretion. She will Jackson: The Whigs make no opposit leave the matter to Parliament. It will be very speedily seen, after "the collective wisdom" assembles, which of the two, or whether either, shall resign. Questions must immediately arise to make this difference (if such there be) manifest.

It is idle to speculate. Nevertheless, we would say, that Poel, with all his apparent nurvity, will not yield; and that the iron duke, with all his abruptness of temper, and obstinacy of opinion will be subdued.

he House of Commons, to a man, are with gers. their master; and, with the exception of Aberdeen, and perhaps Lyndhurst, that part York and Albany was from $7 to $8. Now in the position she now occupies : the form of the cabinet in the lords would range themsolves under the bunner of the duke.

HODEN DINGHE

Railroad from Charleston to Texas .- The City Council of Natchez have called a meet. ing of the citizens of that place for the purpose of inviting an examination into the expediency of extending the great line of Atlantic Railroad, commencing at Charleston, S. C. and ending at Montgomery, Ala, so as to strike the Mississippi at Natchez. "The immense trade and travel" says the Free Trader, which will soon be setting towards Texas will make a project of this kind not only feasible but perfectly practicable, of great convenience to the public and profitable to the stock-

The Inundation of Broad River, in Georgia, on Thursday 9th ult., appears to have been very disastrous to those planters who have fields on its margin, and immediate vi- ters. It has been remarkable that the sickcinity. By the overflow, fences, corn, fod. der, and cotton, with great profuseness, were house, and although apparently of a most of his Government." carried off; as well as flats, numerous batteaux, cotton boats, mill dams, mill houses and every thing accessible to the swelling Advice to the Subordinates.-The Union men will, after this keep themselves well cod up !- Alexandria Gazette.

Lt the exacmbling of the Ohio Methodist Episcopal Conference at Cincinnati on the Sth ultime Bishep Soule attemped to preside out was ruled off by an almost unanimous vote, sount of his separation from the juris

Vindfalls -It is stated in a Brooklyn pa that a wealthy individual, some time since principal merchants, and then abscending with the same to the Westward. We refrain from publishing the name of the accused or the sufferers, for the present, as by so doing we might, purchance defeat the ends of just week, gat into a Broadway stage, in which were ten pretty girls. Upon uscending the steps, he paužed for a moment dazzed by the ne before him.

"There is room, sir; sh down," said one of the amiable ladies.

"I thank you," said the gentleman; getting n, "I thought of getting into an omnibus, but I have entered paradise!"

The first official act of Gov. Brown of Sunday. The Governor has been presented

"Though golcen flowers our path should grace, And joys salute us as we pass.

Our generous hearts should ever know And learn to feel another's won." The President of the United States, has re-ognised Robert Grigg, as British Consul, for the States of Alabama and Florida, to reside Commodore Elliot has returned to his com-sand in Philadelphia, but his health is still exmely precarious.

Gov. Brown, of Tennessee, has recon nended the erection of a monument to Gen. and of course, the work will go on.

Five thousand Pigaons, with their wings cropped, were recently fattened in a field near Portland, Maine.

There are no oaths in the Choctaw tongue When an Indian swears he can only employ English expressions of profanity. Cold weather is at hand, we advise all old bachelors to get married, if they can. A man named Moses Johnson killed another named Amos Rogers, in Delaware Co.

Fifteen years ago the fare between New it is from a levy to a quarter! A farmer in Danvers, Mass., has raised on thousand bushels of onions!

Gen. Gideon Poster, a venerable veteran of the revolution, and a sterling Whig, died, on Saturday morning, in Danvers, at an adranced age of 96.

A pair of Boots was recently taken from the stomach of a very old whale, supposed to have been left behind by Jonah when he was cast out upon dry land.

Hereditary Disease .- A correspondent of the New Haven Herald, relates the following omewhat remarkable facts as having occurred at Woodbury, Connecticut: One of the families in this village, (Truman Judson by scribing a visit paid to the President by a delname,) consisting of nine members, have all egation of Indians, the same official organ been sick with a malignant form of typhus fever. Out of this number five have died-the father and mother, one son and two daughmalignant character, and for weeks there have been from four to six watchers day and were carried to their graves. As now, no other persons of the town then took the fe-

The New York Globe, speaking of the set attempt upon the life of Mr. Paine, says. The whole thing mems a romance scarcely that time, we understand it has been deter-mined by the Democratic party to hold a sim-ilar convention on the eighth of said mouth; for the purpose of selecting their candidate, and whereas, we regard it as proper that the Whig candidate should have an opportunity of commencing the canvass at as early a period as his adversary: Therefore,

Resolved, That we fully concur in the prepriets of holding such convention as recom-mended, and prefer that a time not later than the second week in January be agreed upon publican administration as chief Executive of the State, he fully merits the continued confidence of the Whig Party, and we will most heartily support him, if nominated, for re-election.

Resolved. That cherishing as we always have, the principles of the Whig party, and having the fullest confidence in their ultimate success, we will maintain our organization, and we corneatly entreat the Whigs in this district to stand firmly by their principles, as well as men, and thus maintain ther ascendancy in the old North State.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meet ing appoint ten delegates to represent this county in said Convention.

The Resolutions being seconded, were adopted without a dissenting voice.

Michael Francis, Esq., of Haywood county, then arose, and in his usual happy style, en-tertained the House at some length, heartily approving of the Resolutions, and orging upon the Whigs to do their duty, as they have hith-erto done, and preseging a successful tri-

col. Wm. E. Mills next, in a short, ener-It is not stated what part the other minis-ters have taken in the dispute. It is easy rolling, became intoxicated, quarrelled, and respect to the Whigs of this District and State. the sound, republican principles of the Whig Party, and urged them still to maintain, (as they are well able to do) the Old North State rank of the great Whig Party.

The Chair, in obedience to the last Resoseven acres of land, the past season, three Col. A. G. Logan, G. W. Baxter, lution appointed the following Delegates: Col. Wm. E. Mills. Gen. J. G. Bynum, Col. G. W. Logan, Walter Rutherford Jr John Jones, W. Fortune, Esq. W. Harris, Esq. Martin Beam, Esq.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

THOS JEFFERSON, Ch'm. G. W. BAXTER, Sec.

The "Progressive Democracy."—It is the boast of Locufoculum that its principles are progressive. They go for new measures, new men, new principles, and we fear we may add, a new form of government. A late erticle in the Union, coupled the term "Sovereign" with the person of our President. And only a week or two ago, in de-

"There stood the Chief Magistrate of the greatest nation upon the earth, educated and reared in such a manner as to qualify him to adorn the highest civil office in Christendom; he had beside him his War Minister, and his ness has been confined exclusively to this Attorney General, with several other officers

Our people, ignorantly enough, have been in the habit of considering the government, not as Mr. Polk's government, but as their night, no other person in the town has taken own; and the Cabinet officers, not as his officers, but as theirs. We look anxiously in the Union for the further " progress" of the De-dom of heaven against men; for yo neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that unrighteowness, and I is chambers Woe unto him that gaineth an evil g to his house, that he may set his nest on high, for the stone shall cry out of the wall, an

These passages apply with a most fearful import to drunkard makers. Their history in our own and in other lands, wonderfull confirms the truth of God's word. The trea sures of unrighteousness soon melt away .-"He that oppresseth the poor, shall come to When God pronounces a woe, a curse, it means something. Let the sceptic look after the liquor sellers of our country-let him see and consider their ruined fortunes, and their more than ruined families. Let him count them and their victims in the poor-houses, the prisons and the penitentiaries, and he will be constrained to acknowledge that these passages of sacred scriptures are fearfully true and applicable, -S. C. Temp. Advocate.

Patterson, the Rome (Gz.) Postmaster, who was recently arrested, charged with pilfering letters that passed through his office, has, we learn from Milledgeville, been found ent in the Penitentiary .- Augusta Chron

Melancholy Loss of Life .- A slip from the office of the Charlestown, Va. Free Press furnishes the following account of a serious accident which occurred near that place on Thursday evening last:

On Thursday evening, Mr. Henry Brown,
(the Agent of the Winchester Rail Road at Harper's Ferry,) his son, William, and Mr. Henry Gasker, together with several others. were engaged in pushing an iron car, laden with coal, and whilst so engaged a portion of the trussel work at the bridge immediately above the road that leads over the Shendhdoah river, gave way, precipitating all engaged, with the car, burying them beneuth

Our informant states that Mr. Brown was taken from under the ruins much injured, and his recovery pronounced doubtful; his son William a corpse, and Mr. Gasker, and another individual, whose name we have not learned, also dead.

Heading Cabbages in Winter. In the fall of the year when it is time to gather cabbages, we always find more or less of them that have not formed any heads .--They may have grown well and have a large stock of leaves, but have not closed up in the form necessary to make a good, sulid compact cabbage.

pact cabbage.

A farmer friend of ours, has practiced for many years the following muthou; which effectually closes these louse leaves in the course of the winter, thereby furnishing him with a supply of the best kind early in the spring. In the fall of the year, just before Advice to the Subordinates.—The Union affectionately asks the effervescent editors of the democratic press, whether it is wise in them to indulge in their humans — and "to proclaim their little complaints upon the house to proclaim the little complaints upon the house to proclaim the little complaints upon the house to proclaim their little complaints upon the house to proclaim the little complaints upon the house to proclaim their little complaints upon the house to proclaim the little complaints upon the house to proclaim the little complaints upon the house A Tariff meeting was held at the Eschange Hotel, Pittsburg, on Tuesday, 27th ult. The Hom Thomas Barnside presided. Resolutions were passed in favor of the Tariff of 1842, and it was determined to hold a Tariff Convention at Hollidaysburg, on the 12th of November. The Pittsburg Gazette adverts November. The Pittsburg Gazette adverts place where the water of the rains and snows runs off and will not stand about them. A convention that the parts of the rains and snows runs off and will not stand about them. A convention that the parts of the rains and snows runs off and will not stand about them. board or a couple of boards nailed to in the form of a roof and put over the a may be useful.

miles south of this place, of Fever, ! heart and gentlemanly department had himself to a wide circle of kindred and friwas beloved in life and lamented in de

Purgative M

Experience has taught that if Universal Pill remove all corre perfect purification of the Blood, and thereby at the disease, (whatever name it may be called,) a give perfect health to the whole system.

These Pills are for sale in every county in t state, at 25 cents per box; and may be had by owing agents:

PATTON & OSBORN, Asheville, N. C.
J. M. ALEXANDER, French Broad, N. C. JAS. C. SMYTH, Morganton, N. C. WM. L. GILL & Co., Marion, N. C. M. P. PENLAND, Burnsville, N. C. KELSEY & MAXWELL, Little Ivy, N. C.

July 18, 1845.

MOTICE.