Polka Fashions-Polka Music, and Polka Engraving.

The Polka Dance and Portraits of Philadel. In the November number of GODEY'S LADY'S In the November number of GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, we shall present to our Subscribers Eight Figures of Fashions—more than has ever been given by any other publication. The Dresses are copied by Madame Duquet, from the Depots of our most fashionable modistes, and they may be relied on as those that are to be worn at Evening Parties this winter. The female faces are portraits, taken from Daguerreotype likenesses, of some of our most fashiosable bettes. They will be readily recognised by their acquaintances. This, in future, will be one of the features of Godey's Fushion Plates. The gentlemen's dresses are from designs by Carpenter, and are of the fashion of the day.

In addition to the above, we will give the Cloak Fashions are expressed, after the first proofs are taken, and sent to England to be forwarded to us by the Boston Steamers. inated the "METRODIST EPISCOPALIAN."

The necessity for a Religious Percedided, suited to the mountainous and isolated position of the Heston Conference, has been long and deeply felt; and the desideratum would have been supplied, he it not been for the difficulty of austaining such as enterprize. Several attempts to do so, have been made, but they have been suffered to fall for was of adequate putronage. In a Conference having under its control 80 trave'ling Preachers, and while its bounds some 25,000 members, it is believed the not more than five hundred of our Church papers are taken. This state of things has find, and, if continues to exist, must continue to have a meablighting influence on the benevolent institution and spiritual interests of the Methodist Episcopa Church, within the limits of this Confurence. Church, within the limits of this Conference, most devoted, self-sacrificing, self-denying, a laborious Ministry, have traversed the country laborious Ministry, have traversed like country at large, and have done much to advance the cause of Christ; but how much more efficient would be their labors if those among whom they labor and toll, were the constant and attentive readers of a well conducted Religious Newspaper? Would not the Missionary cause—the cause of Sunday Schools—and the interests of our Colleges and Academies, to greatly promoted by such a paper; if it were sublished. and the inferests of our Calleges and Academies, be greatly promoted by such a paper, if it were poblish, ed in our midst? And will not our minist rist brethren, and other numerous friends, unite with us in this effort to establish among us, such a veh re of useful knowledge—suited to our varied wants?—They are cordially invited to do so, and confidently expected to engage in the work. We have no race, Many interests to serve, and only aim to glorify God, by the promotion of his cause among our fellowmen.

At this eventful crisis of our Courch-when the At this eventful crisis of our Church—when the separation of the South from the North, is being a extensivly spoken of, it is not our object to increase, but to allay the excitement, maintaining the unity of the spirit in the honds of peace. Touching the doctrines and discipline of our Church, we shall act on the defensive, and repel the attacks of our ussailants, the spirit of the Gosnel. And while items of general news, and other intelligence herein alluded to, are given, the Agricultural interests of the country will not be overlooked.
