POETRY.

The Dreamer.

Let me dream! let me dream!
Oh, awake—awake me not!
Cold as winter is the theme,
Pass me by as one forgot;
There are spirit voices near,
And such gentle words I hear,
Earth has nothing half so dear,—
Let me dream!

Still alone! still alone!
Aye, if seen with the dead!
With a thrill the spell I own,
With a charmed step I tread;
Let me wander, mile by mile,
One discourseth all the while,
And I answer with a smile,
Still alone!

Let them taunt! let them taunt!
So the world hath done before;
Let them golden prizes vaunt,
And grow hardened as their store;
Yonder starry gems I see,
And the dim old woods for me;
With my fairy company—
All I want!

Idle dream! idle dream!
Phantom-wedded one, beware!"
Crieth one whom wise they deem;—
Heart-benumbed slave of care.
Hoary toller! Fancy's mine,
Is it half as false as thine?
Which of us shall first repine?
Let me dream!

Love and Hemp.

A fellow lately fell in love,
And thus he wrote—
"My charming dove,
I'm over ears in love! O deign
To send a line to ease my pain;
A single line, adored! from thee,
Will end thy lover's misery!
As pants the hart for living brooks,
So I for thee! Yours, truly, SNOOKS."
To which the lady answered straight;
"Dear Snooks! I pity much your fate,
And grieve I can't your love requite,
For I'm to marry Brown to night,
You wish a line to end your grief,
The one I send will give relief;
'Tis of new hemp and very strong—
I trust your sorrows won't be long.
But Brown's arrived—dear Snooks, adieu;
Don't botch the rope —Yours truly, SUE."

PURIFY THE BLOOD.
MOFFAT'S
VEGETABLE LIFE PILLS
AND PHŒNIX BITTERS.

The high and envied celebrity which these pre-eminent Medicines have acquired for their invaluable efficacy in all the diseases which they profess to cure, has rendered the usual practice of puffing not only unnecessary, but unworthy of them. They are known by their fruits; their good works testify for them, and they thrive not by the faith of the credulous.

IN ALL CASES

OF ASTHMA, ACUTE and CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, AFFECTIONS of the BLADDER and KIDNEYS, BILIOUS FEVERS & LIVER COMPLAINTS.—In the south and west, where these diseases prevail, they will be found invaluable. Planters, farmers, and those who pass through these Medicines, will never afterwards be without them.

BILIOUS and NERVOUS Looseness, PILES, COSTIVENESS, COLDS & COUGHS, CHOLIC, CONSUMPTION. Used with great success in this disease.

CORRUPT HUMORS, DROPSIES.

FEVER and AGUE. For this scourge of the western country these medicines will be found a safe, speedy, and certain remedy. Other medicines have the system subject to a return of the disease—cure by these medicines is permanent.—TRY THEM, BE SATISFIED, AND BE CURED

FOULNESS of COMPLEXION.

GENERAL DEBILITY,

GOUT, GIDDINESS, GRAVEL, HEADACHES, of every kind; INWARD FEVER, INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM, IMPURE BLOOD, JAUNDICE, LOSS of APPETITE.

LIVER COMPLAINTS,

NIGHT SWEATS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, NERVOUS COMPLAINTS of all kinds, ORGANIC AFFECTIONS, PALPITATION of the HEART, PAINTER'S CHOLIC.

PILES. The original proprietor of these medicines was cured of Piles of 25 years standing by the use of these Life Medicines alone.

SCROFULA, or KING'S EVIL, in its worst forms. ULCERS, of every description

WORMS, of all kinds, are effectually expelled by these Medicines. Parents will do well to administer them whenever their existence is suspected. Relief will be certain.

THE LIFE PILLS AND PHŒNIX BITTERS
PURIFY THE BLOOD,

And thus remove all disease from the system.

A single trial will place the LIFE PILLS and PHŒNIX BITTERS beyond the reach of competition in the estimation of every patient.

The genuine of these medicines are now put up in white wrappers and labels, together with a pamphlet, called "Moffat's Good Samaritan," containing the directions, &c, on which is a drawing of Broadway from Wall street to our Office, by which strangers visiting the city can very easily find us. The wrappers and Samaritans are copyrighted, therefore those who procure them with white wrappers can be assured that they are genuine. Be careful, and do not buy those with yellow wrappers; but if you do, be satisfied that they come direct from us, or dont touch them.

Proposals

For publishing in the town of Knoxville, Tennessee. a religious Newspaper, to be denominated the

"METHODIST EPISCOPALIAN."

THE necessity for a Religious Periodical, suited to the mountainous and isolated position of the Holston Conference, has been long and deeply felt; and the desideratum would have been supplied, had it not been for the difficulty of sustaining such an enterprize. Several attempts to do so, have been made, but they have been suffered to fall for want of adequate patronage. In a Conference having under its control 80 travelling Preachers, and within its bounds some 25,000 members, it is believed that not more than five hundred of our Church papers are taken. This state of things has had, and, if it continues to exist, must continue to have a most blighting influence on the benevolent institutions and spiritual interests of the Methodist Episcopal Church, within the limits of this Conference. A most devoted, self-sacrificing, self-denying, and laborious Ministry, have traversed the country at large, and have done much to advance the cause of Christ; but how much more efficient would be their labors if those among whom they labor and toil, were the constant and attentive readers of a well conducted Religious Newspaper? Would not the Missionary cause—the cause of Sunday Schools—and the interests of our Colleges and Academies, be greatly promoted by such a paper, if it were published in our midst? And will not our ministrial brethren, and other numerous friends, unite with us in this effort to establish among us, such a vehicle of useful knowledge—suited to our varied wants?—They are cordially invited to do so, and confidently expected to engage in the work. We have no pecuniary interests to serve, and only aim to glorify God, by the promotion of his cause among our fellowmen.

At this eventful crisis of our Church—when the separation of the South from the North, is being so extensively spoken of, it is not our object to increase, but to allay the excitement, maintaining the unity of the spirit in the bonds of peace. Touching the doctrines and discipline of our Church, we shall act on the defensive, and repel the attacks of our assailants, in the spirit of the Gospel. And while items of general news, and other intelligence herein alluded to, are given, the Agricultural interests of the country will no be overlooked.

By a Resolution of the Conference, Rev. TIMOTHY SULLENS, and Rev. R. M. STEVENS, members of the Conference, and HENRY AULT, of Knoxville, were appointed a Publishing Committee, to whom all lists of names will be forwarded, POST PAID.

T. STRINGFIELD,

TERMS.

The "EPISCOPALIAN" will be published on a super-royal sheet, at two dollars per annum in advance—two fifty within six months—and three dollars at the end of the year.

From two to three columns on the fourth page will be open for Advertisements, to be inserted at the usual rates.

It is contemplated that the publication of the "EPISCOPALIAN" will be commenced as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained to justify the enterprise. And the Preachers and friends of the Church are respectfully invited to exert themselves, in its behalf, instantly and perseveringly, till the paper is under way.

The several Newspapers within the bounds of the Holston Conference, without distinction of parties, are respectfully requested to give this Prospectus one or more insertions, calling attention to the same

WINTER FASHIONS JUST RECEIVED.

THE undersigned is truly grateful for the very liberal patronage he has received, and feeling determined to give satisfaction, he again offers his professional services to the citizens of Asheville and the surrounding country, no time lost nor pains spared to affect this object, our work shall be as fashionable and tasty as work from the North. As goods are cheap in this place and our work low, we will make it to the interest of the people here and at a distance to have their work done with us.

Polka Fashions—Polka Music, and Polka Engraving.

The Polka Dance and Portraits of Philadelphia Belles.

IN the November number of GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, we shall present to our Subscribers Eight Figures of Fashions—more than has ever been given by any other publication. The Dresses are selected by Madame Duquet, from the Depots of our most fashionable modistes, and they may be relied on as those that are to be worn at Evening Parties this winter. The female faces are portraits, taken from Daguerreotype likenesses, of some of our most fashionable belles. They will be readily recognised by their acquaintances. This, in future, will be one of the features of Godey's Fashion Plates. The gentlemen's dresses are from designs by Carpenter, and are of the fashion of the day.

In addition to the above, we will give the Cloak Fashions for winter wear—also, Winter Bonnets. These will be in advance of all contemporaries. Our Fashions are expressed, after the first proofs are taken, direct to England to be forwarded to us by the Liverpool Steamers. The remainder of the edition is then printed and colored for the Paris market, which gives us an opportunity of issuing at the same time as those of Paris, while other publications have to wait until they are published in Paris, which is precisely one month after our proof has been sent to us, making our plate Thirty days in advance of all others.

It is always necessary to modify the French fashions, to suit the taste of our American Belles.

We receive from the following publications—La Follet, Les Modes Parisiennes, Le Monitur De La Mode, Le Bon Ton, Le Lion, Le Capricee.

NO OTHER PUBLICATION HAS THIS ARRANGEMENT.

The November number will also contain a favorite Polka Waltz and a Comic Polka Engraving.

TWO STEEL ENGRVINGS will also be published in the November No.

A rare chance for a beautiful engraving—monument to Sir Walter Scott.

A beautiful Line Engraving, 20 by 22 inches, engraved by A. L. Dick, of New York, and published at $3 will be given as a premium to any new or old subscriber, who will pay $3 per annum, in advance for GODEY'S MAGAZINE and LADY'S BOOK.

Office, No. 101 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

☞ It is too large and valuable to be transmitted per mail, but a receipt will be given with an obligation to deliver a copy of the print to any person producing said receipt.

(FORM OF CERTIFICATE.)
