Polka Fashions—Polka Music, and Polka Engraving.

The Polka Dance and Portraits of Philadelphia Belles.

In the November number of GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, we shall present to our Subscribers Eight Figures of Fashions—more than has ever been given by any other publication. The Dresses are copied by Madame Duquet, from the Depots of our most fashionable modistes, and they may be relied on as those that are to be worn at Evening Parties this winter. The female faces are portraits, taken from Daguerreotype likenesses, of some of our most fashionable belles. They will be readily recognised by their acquaintances. This, in future, will be one of the features of Godey's Fashion Plates. The gentlemen's dresses are from designs by Carpenter, and are of the fashion of the day.

In addition to the above, we will give the Cloak Fashions for winter wear—also, Winter Bonnets.—These will be in advance of all cotemporaries. Our Fashions are expressed, after the first proofs are taken, and sent to England to be forwarded to us by the Boston Steamers. The remainder of the edition is then printed and colored for the Paris market, which gives us an opportunity of issuing at the same time as those of Paris, while other publications have to wait until they are published in Paris, which is precisely one month after our proof has been sent to us, making our plate Thirty days in advance o all others.

It is always necessary to modify the French fashions, to suit the taste of our American Belles.

We receive from the following publications—Le Follet, Les Modes Parisiennes, Le Monitur De La Mode, Le Bon Ton, Le Lion, Le Caprice.

NO OTHER PUBLICATION HAS THIS ARRANGEMENT.

The November number will also contain a favorite Polka Waltz and a Comic Polka Engraving.

TWO STEEL ENGRAVINGS will also be published in the November No.

A rare chance for a beautiful engraving—monument to Sir Walter Scott.

A beautiful Line Engraving, 33 by 22 inches, engraved by A. L. Dick, of New York, and published at $3 will be given as a premium to any new or old subscribers, who will pay $3 per annum, in advance for GODEY'S MAGAZINE AND LADY'S BOOK. Office, No. 101 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

☞ It is too large and valuable to be transmitted per mail, but a receipt will be given with an obligation to deliver a copy of the print to any person producing said receipt.

(FORM OF CERTIFICATE.)

Due the Bearer, on Demand, a Copy of the Monument to Sir Walter Scott.

SPECIAL COURT.

WHEREAS, it appears to me, now holding the Superior Court for the county of Cherokee, that the business on the Civil Docket of this Court cannot be done at any regular Term of the same, and that a Special Term is necessary for the despatch of the business. It is therefore ordered that a Special Term of the Superior Court of Law for the county of Cherokee be held in conformity to the act of the last General Assembly, on the first Monday of March next. It is further directed that the Clerk of this Court record the above Order, and communicate a copy thereof, under the seal of his Court, to his Excellency the Governor of this State; and that he advertise the same in the newspaper published at Asheville, at the Court-house door, and at three other public places in the county. Made the 12th day of September, 1845.

AN IMPORTANT LETTER.

Please Read It.

The following letter from Dr. Brigham, of Lowell, Mass., but speaks the uniform language of hundreds of other Physicians, who have tried, and therefore know how to appreciate Jayne's Expectorant.

LOWELL, Mass., Jan. 27, 1844.

Dr. David Jayne—Dear Sir: I have used your medicine, (so universally known by the name of Jayne's Expectorant,) in my practice for a number of years, and can most truly say, that I have found more successful in the use of that as a mild, safe and thorough Expectorant, than of any which I have ever used. It is the best for the following reasons. It does not if given in proper doses, occasion a disagreeable nausea. It does not weaken the lungs and prostrate the system, like most other Expectorants in common use; nor does it abate the appetite of the patient, like other nauseating medicines, which have been used by the faculty. In a word, it is nearly or quite the thing which has been sought for by many of the faculty for ages gone by.

I remain yours, &c. L. BRIGHAM, M. D.
