Morrid Lifects of Millerism. The Springfield Statesman says: Mr. Eb. ezer Walker, a farmer of respectability, bout 37 venes of age, having a wife and child, was induced by motives of curiosity to attend a Miller meeting in Belchertown on Sunday the 17th. While there, he became deluded with the threats and anotherens which were preached, and left the house after the of September, 1845.

It is further directed that the Clerk of this Court record the above Order, and communicate a copy thereof, ander the send of his Court, to his Excellency the Governor of this State; and that he advertise the same in the newspaper published at Asheville, at the Court house door, and at three others public places in the county. Made the 12th day of September, 1845. dering upon insanity. This malady continued to increase until he became a raving made man. While in this way he declared that he man. While in this way he declared that his heart was sinful and must be plucked out or burned out. Accordingly he rushed towards ge cooking stove and thrust his left hand into the burning embers, and clea-hed the red hot iron of the stove until the flesh wa literally burned from the bones of his hand before he could be secured. The pour man to his relief on Tuesday evening, the 27th ult. Great excitement prevails in Belchertown, and means will be taken to prevent any further spread of this accursed delusion.

A Valuable Servant.

The Legislature of Alabama at its recent session passed a bill emancipating, by desire of his master, a servant named Horace King, belonging to Mr. John Godwin, of Russell county. The servant has been distinguished for his intelligence and skill as a mechanic. which is displayed in many of the important bridges built by him in Alabama, He has been very valuable and faithful to his master; and it was stated in the Legislature, had earn. ed for him some seventy five or eighty thouand dollars. His master had refused fifteen thousand doll ers for him - 16.

The Hogshead Plough.

A distinguished farmer in England has in vented what he terms a hogshead plough, for the purpose of turning out potatoes which are planted in drills, without injuring them. It resembles a hog's snout attached to the front part of a plough without a culter, by front part of a plough without a cutter, of Burnaville or which the potatues are raised and turned out Hendersonville "Hendersonville" of their bed. This may be said to be copying nature, for it is clearly the way that profound race of investigators-the swinewould turn out the crop, if they were sent into an undug pointo field.
