TWELFTH EDITION.

THE QUAKER CITY;

OR

MONKS OF MONK HALL!

BY GEORGE LIPPARD, ESQ.

Is just issued, in one volume, complete, price $1. For sale by Booksellers generally throughout the United States.

No American Novel has ever met with such astonishing success as "The Quaker City," of which 30,000 copies have already been sold.

"The tragedies from which the foundation of this work is drawn, were thrilling and horrible, yet the forcible pen of the author has heightened the subject into a fearful interest."—Western Literary Review.

"This is a bold book. It is the first American work which, written with the intention of illustrating the secret life in our large republican cities, has met with a decided approval from the republic.—The work will live in the records of our literature, as the first American Novel describing men and manners, not only as they appear but as they are."—Philadelphia Home Journal.

☞ Country Editors giving the above advertisement, (including this request,) two or three insertions, and sending a paper to "Publishers of Quaker City, Philadelphia," will receive a copy of the book.

Great Bargains!

CAN'T BE BEAT IN ALL CREATION!!

CALL AND SEE US.

A. B. & J. S. CHUNN

Are just receiving and opening a splendid

fresh from the eastern cities, which they promise and positively declare shall be sold as low, if not lower, than any other Goods, let them come from what quarter they may.

It is usual to boast through the medium of an advertisement, and promise a great many things, not expected to be performed, but we only ask a call, that we may prove how far our assertions may be believed. If you want a big load of Goods for little money, come and see us, and you shall not be disappointed.

It will be sufficiently satisfactory, we hope, to say that our stock is general and complete, comprising almost every article usually in demand in this country. The stock has been selected with care and judgment, and from our knowledge in matters appertaining to this business, cannot be beaten for beauty, quality and cheapness any where in the back country.

With due deference to our competitors, we will say we intend to beat them if we can by fair and honorable means, and if we find we can't, why then we can't.

We intend to do as much as possible a prompt business, as we intend our profits to be so low that indulgence cannot, nor ought not, to be expected.

We kindly admonish our old customers not to desert us, and we pledge ourselves they shall not be sorry for it. Stick to us like brothers, and we assure you that no good reason for complaint shall be given, either for want of accommodation or good bargains.

A. B. & J. S. CHUNN.

N. B. All kinds of country produce will be taken in exchange for Goods, on the most accommodating terms, such as Beeswax, Feathers, Wool, Tallow, and Fur Skins in proper season.

DR. JOHN M. HAPPOLDT

Having settled in the town of Morganton, tenders his professional services, in the various branches of his profession, to the public.

His devotion of twenty-three years entirely to the practice of his profession, keeping pace with the improvements in medical science, and close, studious habits during that period, entitle any one to reward, then he would humbly hope to receive such a patronage as merit claims, and such as he has heretofore secured.

He would call the attention of invalids who suffer from the various chronic affections, such as Dyspepsia in its diversified forms and associations, diseases of the liver, lungs, heart, stomach, bowels, kidneys, &c. &c., and also the glandular disorders, which are so common of a scrofulous and cancerous nature. Female disorders, so often distressing and complicated as to produce despondency in the patient and puzzle the doctor, have been and are successfully treated by him. His mode of treatment is different, in a great degree, from what is generally pursued by others, and in making this remark he would be mindful of due deference to his professional brethren. He would be understood simply to state the fact, without arrogating to himself a superiority, and thereby detract from the merit of others.

The many and complicated diseases of the Eye have been cured by him after others have failed. Diseases requiring Surgical treatment and Surgical operations, have claimed no small share of his attention, and he is pleased to say, in this respect, that success has rewarded his surgical efforts.

He will promptly attend all calls, far or near.—Epistolary advice will be given, when required. He is also prepared to receive and accommodate at his residence, invalids from a distance, and would prefer treating cases at his residence that require surgical operations and his close subsequent attention.

He may be consulted at all times at his residence or office in Morganton, except when absent.

The poor shall receive his professional services without any fee.

The high and varied reputation which these preparations have obtained, and the numerous cures they have effected in all parts of the United States, and in the British Provinces, have induced many persons to attempt to palm upon the public spurious imitations, under various names. PUNCTUALITY.

We would remind those of our customers who have open accounts with us, of the fact of their having been made with the express understanding that they were to be settled by the first of January, 1846, which time has already passed. We are under the necessity of making collections, and hope that those indebted to us, either by note, judgment, or book account, will make payment between this and our April Court, for by so doing they will save us trouble and the useless cost—for necessity compells us to collect.

Information Wanted.

In the latter end of May last, my husband, James H. Jones, a Merchant of Jonesborough, left home for Moulton, a town in Anlhama, for the purpose of selling a house and lot in that place. I have been informed that he sold the House and Lot and got paid for it, and left after a short stay, since that time I have not heard from Mr. Jones, whether he be dead or is still living is with me very uncertain. Any information that can be given about Mr. JONES will be gratefully acknowledged by

LOUISA M. JONES.

Will the Publishers of the Southern papers be so good as to give the above One Insertion, and oblige disconsolate woman with six children.
