One thousand Circassian families were imported into Turkey as slaves during the past year... The corn crop in Tennessee will be unusually large—in Kentucky, about in some districts, caused by drought in July and August...

PRETTY KEEN—My dear, said a gentleman to a young lady, to whom he thought to be married, 'do you wish to make a fool of me?' 'No,' replied the lady, 'nature has saved me the trouble.'

Printing is now in great honor among the Turks... There is in Constantinople an imperial establishment containing a large number of printers. Presses are found also in all the principal towns of the empire.

Grotesque anachronisms sometimes appear in the efforts of painters... In a picture of Abraham offering up Isaac, the patriarch is shown in the act of holding a blunderbuss in his son's hand.

'You call this a turkey, don't you?' said Mrs. Pertington at the menagerie... 'Then that's the reason, I s'pose, why he always carries a before him, so he can have an eye on it. But what is that animal with the large ears on his nose?'

WORDS.—The question is frequently propounded, 'how is it possible for China and Japan to support a population equal to three hundred to the square mile?' This important problem can only be satisfactorily solved by examining their system of agriculture...
