The Ladies for Old Zack.

We received on yesterday a letter from several Ladies in Mississippi, enclosing a subscription for our campaign paper, from which we make the following extract:

"We are true and genuine Whigs, and wish to contribute all we can towards the election of one so good and great as Taylor. You have our best wishes for the success of your paper."

Who can not huzza for old Rough and Ready after that? This is a better omen for Gen. Taylor, and a worse one for Gen. Cass than any thing we have seen yet.—When the ladies declare for the Whig nominee, let Modern Democracy look out. —Republican Banner.

It is said, that the night before the battle of Monterey, a number of the regulars, as well as volunteers, were trying to make themselves scarce! When "Old Zack" heard of this feeling among the men, he ordered an old regular, whom he knew to be a man not scared at trifles, but who he had found crowing off under very suspicious circumstances, to be brought before him.

"Why Borden," said 'Old Zack,' "I'm told you were trying to desert your colors: you certainly are not a man of that stripe?"

"Well, General," said the downcast soldier, "to tell you the God's truth, I was, and am sort of skeer'd a little, for they say old Scaty's got bout fifty thousand the best troops in Mexico, has picked ground, and will give the boys here the hardest fight any of us ever did see! So I thought there'd be a mighty small chance for our little crowd to-morrow, and my best chance for awhile would be——"

"To desert, eh!" said 'old Zack.'—Well, you go back to your mess; things look a little desperate to-night, but you do your duty to-morrow, and if we lose the fight come and find me, and I'll desert with you."

SINGULAR CAUSE OF DEATH.—Mrs Winsor, wife of Wm Winsor, residing in the town of Denmark, N. York, was so shockingly burnt on the 8th ult. by her clothes taking fire that she survived but a few hours. It appears that she was away from home, and that while walking alone upon the road, not far distant from any one to be observed, her clothing took fire from a tobacco pipe which she had used and put into the pocket of her dress. She was some sixty years of age.

SINGULAR FACT—SOUND.—On Saturday evening last, says the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, the sound of the wheels and engine of the steamer Vanderbilt were heard distinctly at Stonington, Conn., when the boat was ten miles west of Saybrook, or forty miles distant. The sound continued distinct until the boat reached New London, when two gentlemen on the wharf at Stonington counted the revolutions of her engine with perfect accuracy. The distance at this time was more than ten miles. This is an interesting fact in the transmission of sound. The air, of course, was damp, and the wind very light, and westerly.

We learn that the Sheriffs who are coming in from Lower Virginia to settle up their taxes, represent that Gen. Taylor will make almost "a clean sweep" in that part of the State.—Richmond Times.

The Pennsylvanian argues against Gen. Taylor that he never held a civil office. That is an unpardonable sin with locofocoism, and Gen. Cass has been as exempt from the charge for the last forty years as any other man in the country; for he has drawn as much money in that period as would bring comfort to the homes of one thousand laboring men for a year!—North American.

Several of the Massachusetts papers which first refused to support Taylor and Fillmore, are now hoisting their flag.

$25 REWARD.

I will pay a reward of Twenty-five Dollars to any one who will apprehend and lodge in jail so I get my boy

LEANDER,

He left me last night near Hendersonville, and I am at a loss to conjecture in what direction he will travel. He is about 20 years old, a brown or copper color, about five feet 10 or 11 inches high, a muscular and stout form, keen and well built. His countenance, when spoken to, is quite peculiar, looking as if suddenly alarmed, and when so, is slightly inclined to a stoppage or stammering in his speech when first spoken to.—His dress, when he left, consisted of one pair of grey or blue cassimere pants, a blueish colored sack coat, a brown long skirt over coat, an old black cap and a pair of old boots.

HUNTINGTON & SAVAGE,

PUBLISHERS, BOOKSELLERS & STATIONERS,

216, PEARL STREET, NEW YORK,

Have constantly for sale a very large and well selected stock of School, Classical and Miscellaneous Books, Blank Books and Stationery, to which they would call the attention of Booksellers, Merchants, and others.

H. & S. are the publishers of some of the best and most saleable School Books now in use in the United States, among which are BURRITT'S GEOGRAPHY OF THE HEAVENS, and Atlas, the only treatise on Astronomy now in general use.

PETER PARLEY'S NEW GEOGRAPHY for Beginners. Illustrated with 18 maps and 150 beautiful engravings, and neatly bound with muslin covers.—This is decidedly the cheapest and best introductory geography published in the country.

MRS. LINCOLN'S BOTANY. This work has recently been improved by the addition of all the genera of Southern and Western plants.

WEBSTER'S UNIVERSITY DICTIONARY. This edition contains many thousands more words than Walker's large Dictionary, and very few persons require a larger work.

WEBSTER'S SCHOOL DICTIONARIES. POCKET do. SOPHOCLES' GREEK GRAMMAR, the Text Book of Yale, Harvard, and almost all the best Colleges and Literary Institutions of the U. S.

PROF. FELTONS' GREEK READER. Do. do. Exercises. GOODRICH'S NATIONAL GEOGRAPHY, for Schools in quarto form, with maps in the book.

PHELPS' NAT. PHILOSOPHY, 12 mo.
" Chemistry, do.
" Nat. Philosophy for Beginners, 18 mo. cloth.
" Chemistry, " " do. do.
" Botany, " " do. do.

These elementary books are peculiarly adapted to Common Schools.

H. & S. have just published a series of Astronomical Maps, embracing 16 numbers, each map 3 by 3½ feet, beautifully printed on a black ground and neatly colored. Price per set, mounted on rollers, with cloth backs, with case and book, $20 00. The same, on thick paper, without cloth backs, $15 00. No Academy or Common School should be without a set of these maps. They have been fully recommended by the best astronomers in the country, as well as by the most eminent Teachers, and with them a Teacher can impart a greater amount of information to his pupils, in six months, than he could possibly do in a year by the old method, besides making the study more interesting to them

Important Notice.

I have a long list of notes and accounts due me, a number of which have stood for several years, I am now compelled to collect them, and I take this method of informing all persons against whom I have claims, that their immediate payment is the only way they can prevent their going into the hands of an officer. This cannot be unpleasant as it is forced upon me by my unfortunate situation, and, I hope it will not go unheeded, but each one consider it a direct appeal to himself, and act accordingly.

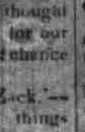
COMMITTED.



There was committed to the Jail of Buncombe County, on the 13th of January last, a negro man, who says his name is

SAM.

Said Negro is about 24 years old, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, of a dark brown color, straight and well made, and has the evidence on his back that he has been severely whipped. He says he is a free man, though he has no free papers, and that Robert Miller, in Cleaveland County, N.C. raised him.

The owner, (if he is a slave,) will come forward and prove his property and pay the fees, or he will be dealt with as the law directs.
