

BY TAYLOR'S SLANDERS.

The Louisville Journal had an article from the paper charging that Gen. Taylor, at the town of Matamoros Mexico, wounded the advanced guard of Col. Curtis' Ohio Regt. God damned thieves and scoundrels. The certificates of some persons shows themselves, are given as truth the charge. It is certain at Gen. Taylor's orders, he was a man of infamy unprincipled, for know him certainly that the general is a man not of character.

He was not pleased when pleased with himself, but limited.

Our established

Our established