OBITUARY.

Dien suddenly, at Orange Springs, Florida, on the 7th January, WILLIAM LUCKEY, in the 23d year of his age.

The deceased was a native and resident of this County, and had gone to sojourn in the milder climate of the State in which he died, with a view to improve his health and invigorate a constitution naturally feeble, and which the wasting energies Boots and Shoes in the New York Market, and also of of disease had been wearing away for several years. In the morning of life, far from kindred to call. and home, the cold icy hand of death was laid upon him-and now in the midst of the forest, where the sighing of the tameless winds, the ceaseless roll of the murmuring waters, the chirping of the wild bird, all chaunt his eternal lullaby, he sleeps the sleep that knows no waking. "In the midst of life we are in death," and the present instance is among the many which constrains us to feel that we ware fearfully and wonderfully made"; that we are as "sile grass, that in the morning springs up, and in the evening is cut down, dried up, and withered."

"Leaves have their time to fall, And flowers to wither at the north-wind's breath, And stars to set-but all, Thou hast all seasons for thine own, O! Death!" May He who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb, comfort and console the afflicted relatives and friends of the dead, and enable them to feel that their loss is his gain.
