KANSAS.

The news in our last, concerning the war in Kansas, in fully confirmed by authentic statements since received. Read the state ments of the Hon. D. R. Atchison and other respectable citizens of that Territory, in to-day's paper. There is now every indication of a bloody contest between the southerners and abolitionists. We have no fears of the ultimate result. Lane and his miserable abolition army of thieves and catdust. And then we may expect to hear Black Republican party in Congress were the survivors curse the day they listened to the advice of the Sumsers, Sewards, Wilsons and Greeleys.

We dare and defy any one to point to a single vote that Mr. Buchanan ever gave, during his Congressional career, in volving the question of slavery, that was not on the side of the South, and opposed to the Abolitionists." -- Vicksburg Sentiael

We endorse the above, and promise to lay before our readers, the evidence of its falsity, if the opponents of Mr. Buchanan will produce the vote or votes he ever gave against the South, on the slavery question.

"Beware of False Reports.-The Deoperats are circulating a ridiculous report that the friends of Fillmore are taking steps as withdraw him from the contest, and that the National Intelligencer has come out in fayor of Bachanan. THE ARMY BILL.

pass the Army Bill. Conference Committres have failed to agree-and the opinion gains ground that the bill will not pass, and that the whole Army of the United States will be disbanded. Here we have another evidence of the character of Black-Repubicanism. The Constitution makes it the duty of Congress to "provide for the common defence," but Black Republicans violate their oaths and refuse to fulfil the requirements of the Constitution. Knowing their inability to carry their fanatical and destructive measures upon their own merits, they seek to coerce the Senate and the President into the support of their mischievous schemes, by coupling them with army go! The South is able to take care drawn from Kansas; the pro-slavery men will glory in a free fight. The South has 56! a standing army, independent of the will of an abolition Congress. One Southerner abolitionists.

If the North can get along without a Standing Army, the South can. We agree with Gen. Cass, who in a speech in the Senate on Thursday last said: "It was not this act alone which was to do mischief, but the consequences to which it would lead .-The refusal of this particular appropriation would not destroy the Union. This was a very hard Government to destroy. He thought it fairly administered, and within the scope of the provisions of the Constitution. It was the strongest Government on the face of the globe, and he knew it to be the best Government ever given to man Bragg and Gilmer. since the dispersion of the human race on R. P. Waring, of Mecklenburg. the plains of Shinar. This was but one of a series of measures, which, if adopted, must end in a dissolution of the Union." The revolutionary proceedings in Conress and Kansas, Mr. Crittenden declared in the Senate, on the same day, were the effect of an agreement and plan deliberately entered into by the Black Republicans to aid the election of Fremont. Kansas is to be made a bloody seene to excite the free States and to make political capital for Fremont. a few days ago. In this cause, it is obvious the two contemporaneous revolutionary measures had their origin; and it is equally evident that the accessory to the arrangement. The Richmond Enquirer correctly sketches the scheme; the Black Republican majority in the House of Representatives undertook to defeat the army appropriation bill with the view of disbanding the Federal forces, so that they might not be employed in suppeople of the South.

POSTSCRIPT.

The Black Republicans Defeated! THE ARMY BILL PASSED!

After our paper had been prepared for the press, we received the Richmond Enquiver, of vesterday, containing a notice of the proceedings of Congress on Saturday. After a struggle of ten days, the friends of the Army bill succeeded in procuring its passage through both Houses, without any provise annexed, by a vote of 101 to 93 .ism. HON. P. S. BROOKS.

Our citizens have had the pleasure of seeing this distinguished and gallant son of South Carolina, and hearing an eloquent address from him. He arrived here in the cars of the Central Road, on Wednesday afternoon, and remained until the departure of the southern train at 9 o'clock, P. M. Although he came unexpectedly, and remained but a short time, his reception was highly creditable to the spirit of our citizens, as it must have been gratifying to official. At the conclusion of his remarks, he was conducted to an open carriage in waiting for him, and conducted to the depot by the assemblage, in procession, headed by the Band, amidst the repeated cheers of the large crowd. The evidence given by our citizens, of their approval of Col. B.'s course at Washington, in defence of the South, was in all respects decided and enthusiastic. ----

BLACK REPUBLICAN HONOR.

The "Washington Star" states that Bingham, of Ohio, and Bennett, of New-York, voted on Wednesday last, to defeat the Army Bill, notwithstanding they had who had left the city. This is a fair specimen of Black-Republican honesty. These two votes were required to defeat the bill, and they did not hesitate to violate solemn engagements, and sacrifice their word and honor, to prevent its passage.

The determination of the Black "Republicans" of the House to defeat the appropriation for the support of our gallant little army, not only finds defenders out of the House, but it appears to be a fixed and determined thing on the part of the Abolition gang to break up this arm of our defence Democratic Congressmen are elected. Under the command of the very Reverend Dr. Beecher, this army would probably do great service in the cause of the United sixteen States. Destroy the army of course! Leave nothing undemolished. Let us have no more Washingtons, or Jacksons, or Scotts, or Taylors. Erase their names from the army roll, blot out from the page of history their noble deeds, and let no one hereafter attempt to chamerate their glorious actions.

> Yes, these Black 'Republicans' would destroy the Army, destroy the Navy, destroy the Constitution, destroy the Union, destroy our liberties, destroy everything we cherish and revere. Oh, certainly, Mr. Tribune, destroy the Army by all means, and "let the Union slide."

NEGRO STEALING .- Some few days ago a young man by name of Buford, who was acting as clerk for Mr. Gamble of Winnsboro Hotel, disappeared, and at the same time also a negro boy.
