And its echo ever lingers, In the hearts of those who roam. Oh! methinks thy soul was pining,

When thou breathed that strain of light, For a home where love was twining Round the walls its roses bright. Thou didst see a cottage lowly,

Nestling 'mid the forest trees, O'er it climbs sweet flowers holy, Rocked by summer's gentle breeze. And the wind's low voice came stealing,

From the cottage's flowery dell, And across thy heart was sweeping On its strings a tear-drop fell. And that mournful tear was falling, For a home that ne'er was thine;

While thy lonely heart was sighing "Oh! sweet home, that thou wert mine." When other hearts its scenes are leaving, Widely on the earth to rove; "Each successive step is weaving Links within the coil of love."

For affection's chains extending. Ever as they onward roam; But no chain of love was wending With thy heart from happy home. "Home, sweet home," what pathos lingers,

Round that soul-inspiring strain: Wanderer, ne'er shall earth's dominions, Echo notes like thine again. ODE-BY HOWARD H. CALDWELL.

Prepared for and sung at the Masonic Banquet in Columbia on Saturday evening 27th ult.

Far in the twilight of old Time, Fair Masonry her life began; And saintly deeds and rites sublime In every age, in every clime, Thro' her were given to man. For in her solemn Council-Hall

Are taught each moral, social good; To rich, to poor, to great, to small, Alike her heavenly accents call Man one great Brotherhood! In life, her voice to virtue leads,

And sets each mind from error free; She points the way to noblest deeds, And o'er a brother's grave she spreads The green acacia tree.

"Light from the East!" to every land To guide, instruct, restrain, command, And with a tender mother's hand

She wipes the tears of woe. Her countless benedictions draw

Their power and unction from on high; All Hiram knew, all Enoch saw Are her's; and that most perfect law, The great Taskmaster's eye!

> C. R. R. Office, Vandalia, June 21, 1851. PROFESSOR WOOD— DEAR SIR: I take pleasure in bearing volunta. ty testimony to the excellence of your Hair Res. torative. Three months ago, my hair was very gray. It is now a dark brown, (the original color,) smooth and glossy. The only application I have made to it, has been the Hair Restorative prepared y you, and which, from the result in my own care, can most cordially recommend to others,

Measurement, per c. ft. $0 16 PROF. O. J. WOOD:-As you are about to nanufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it, and known others to use n-that I have, for several years, been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dand off, and with one month's proper use, will restore any 2 50 person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance; and all this, without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair.
Respectfully, yours, WILSON KING.

FROF. WOOD:-As you are about to prepare and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative and as you request my opinion of it, I will state, that my hair was, a few months ago, very gray, and after using two bottles of your Hair Restora-tive, it resumed its original color; and since its ap-plication, all dandroff has desappeared from my head, and I have been troubled with no disagreenble itching of the scalp. I am satisfied, that those who use it, will not regret it, as it gives the appearance of having been recently oiled. I am prepared, therefore, to recommend its use to all who are desirous of having a beautiful head of hair.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Allow me to attest the virtues and magic powers of your Hair Restorative. Three months since, being exceedingly gray, I purchased, and soon commenced to use, two botles; and it soon began to tell, in restoring the silver ocks to their native color, and the hair, which was before dry and harsh and falling off now became soft and glossy, and it ceased falling; the dandriff disappeared, and the scalp lost all the disagreer ole
