TO BROTHER BENNIE. [The subject of these lines was a sprightly and in-ago, aged only ten years. His ideas of Heaven were remarkable for one of his age. His mind was clear-As fond mother lean'd o'er the dying bed Of her last fond one so dear,

His sparkling eye a saintly lustre shed. As though, now, heaven was near. "Mother, oh Mother dear, I'm going home,"

Said this saintly dying child; "Dear Willie" is there, too; oh, will you come-Do, and see us after awhile. "Weep no more, I'm not now afraid to die; Good children to Jesus go;

And now why should I be afraid, why, why? This you taught me long ago." With pele quivering lips he faintly said : "Say me that little prayer That first nightly on your knees I prayed!

Then, oh say you'll meet me there. "Mother, I'm weary, let me sleep awhile;" Then folded across his breast His tiny hands, and with angelic smile

He gently sank to rest. Though far away, sister kissed thee for me, Dear lovely, dying child; Oh, that I too had been there to see And share thy sweet angelic smile.

Here, cheerlessly, while I wearily pace The long lone night vigils by Fond memory brings back thy sweet face And dark hazel sparkling eye.

When I think that these I'll no more behold, Upheaves the unbidden sigh, Then something within whispers to my soul: 'It's far better thus to die.' No, dear Brother, we'll weep no more for thee, Though from Mother's bosom torn; We'll take back the thought, and let you be A cherub in Jesus' own. Upper Lines of the Rappahannock, Feb. 1, '63.

MARAUDERS AGAIN .- On Wednesday night last, some sixty of the tories from Jaurel, N. C., came down into this county, on the south side of approved 16th of April, 1862. Chucky River, and robbed Lewis Click of six hundred pounds of bacon and three sacks of flour. They also plundered the house of John Click, but we did not learn the extent of their robbery at the latter place. They remained in the vicinity of Click's, in sight of his house, until next day, cooking and eating the provisions that they had

They swear vengeance against every man in that whole section of country, and declare that they are going to take anything that they want. Lawson White, in this county, taking some three hundred dollars in money, and other valuables.

It is certainly time for those having authority, threats of this tory band. The families of Greene county, who live near the mountain, are very much alarmed, for they know not what hour will be their turn to suffer from these out-laws .-Greenville (Tenn.) Banner, 14th.

FULL DIRECTIONS FOR TREATING THE HAIR UNDER ALL CONDITIONS .- When the hair grows scantily, naturally, the following lotion may be used three or four times a week, in the morning :

Eau de Cologne, two ounces; tincture of cantharides, two drachus; oil of rosemary and oil of rosemary, add a few drops of oil of nutmeg, and anoint the head very sparingly before going to bed. While using either of the two preceding receipts, use the ensuing ones also: Palma Christi oil, three jounces; oil of lavender, one drachm. Apply every evening. When actual baldness is spirits of wine. Shake it well during a fortnight, and then filter. Take ten parts of this tincture, and rub it with ninety parts of cold lard. Add a little essence of bergamot, or any other scent. Rub this pomade well into the head, night and morning.-In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, this application, if continued, will restore the hair. When the hair, after being naturally luxuriant, begins to grow thin, without actually coming out gineers thereon employed. in particles, use the following receipt : Take of burdoch root and oil of nutmegs, (fixed,) of each, two drachms, camphor dissolved with spirits of aromatic essential oil, as much as sufficient to of ministerial duties. render it fragrant; mix, and make into an ointment.

[The above remedies might put hair on the head, and they might take it off-what will cure some will kill others.]

THE VALUE OF THE CONSCRIPTION ACT .- The Secretary of War in his official report to Congress | sion. of the Military operations of the Confederate States, for the year 1862, takes occasion to refer to the first conscription act of Congress as having skilled and actually employed at their regular vowroughtour salvation from destruction or infamous cation in the said trades, habitually engaged in thraldom, and says that if it could have been working for the public and whilst so actually emsooner adopted, or more speedily and thoroughly exceuted, it may well be doubted whether the first act alone might not have been sufficient to extort from our obdurate foes, in their own capital, prima facia evidence of the facts therein stated. or on their own conquered soil, permanent peace and independence. He declares that at the arily oppressive, yielding to it only an unwilling acquiescence, but they will hereafter consider it as the best and wisest measure which it was possible to adopt under the circumstances .-Montgomery Advertiser.

IRISH POTATOES .- We urge most strenuously upon the people to put in an abundance of this erop. Cut them small, and plant any time in playments therein. March, during the full moon in that month some say is the best time. By planting in March there vegetable matter is a good manure for the Irish they can be found. Be certain to put on plenty. practical apothecary. and as we before said, cut them small, so as to plant a large space. This is an important crop. especially for this season. It comes earlier than Mountain Eagle.

THE SOUTHERN

Hepatic Pills.

This combination of medicines was first prepared by the proprietor in 1825, when he was pronounced by three eminent physicians in a Southern city as in an advanced stage of Consumption. These pills cured him. He is now over seventy years of age and in dis-charge of active professional duties. Their good effects upon others created such a demand for them that The copartnership heretofore existing under the he was compelled to desist from supplying them gratu-

They are nor recommended by the proprietor as testified to their good effects in Chills and Fevers, Bilious Fever, Yellow Fever, Pneumonia, Dyspepsia, &c., &c. They are an excellent FAMILY MEDICINE.

Read the following: S. D. WALLACE, Esq., Treasurer of the Wilmington and Weldon Rail Road, (Aug. 30, 1862,) says: "It has been said that "Dyspepsia" is our national disease. However this may be, it caused me long and severe suffering. Providentially a friend furnished me with a few boxes of the "Hepatic Pills," and the use of them has perfected a cure. In my family they have been used frequently with eminent success. Among my acquaintances, many cases originating from diseased liver, have been relieved and cured by them. I regard them as an invaluable medicine, and take pleasure in forwarding this voluntary tribute." Col. John Wright, of Goldsboro', N. C., (Aug. 14 1862,) says: "I have used the 'Southern Hepatic Pills' in my family here and also on my plantation in Alabama, and always with success. I have a valuable servant girl who had been a long time under treatment for consumption, without receiving any benefit. Almost in her extremity I was induced to try the 'Hepatic Pills.' They were given according to directions, and she is new well, entirely restored by them. A similar case occurred among my servants in Alabama. For liver and lung diseases I have perfect confidence in Full directions and other certificates will be found on the wrapper of each box. The great rise in the price of medicines, compels the proprietor to put these pills at 50 cents a box. As it may soon not be possible to procure all the ingredients, it would be well for the afflicted to order them at
