lina, in regard to the election : Headquarters Department of N. Carolina, ?

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 13, 1865. An election having been appointed by His Excellency the Previsional Governor of the State of North Carolina, to be held on the 21st day of September, 1865, the following order in relation thereto is published for the government and information of all concerned.

1. On the day of such election, no officer or enlisted man will visit the polls, nor will permission to leave camp or station be given to officers or men, except in cases of necessity.

II. Officers having command of troops will at the request of the civil officers having charge of the elections, render all needful assistance for the preservation of order. If serious disturbance bance will be at once suppressed, and the guilty arrested, even if such request be not made.

III. Any person guilty of attempting, by force, to prevent an orderly and quiet election, or interfering therewith, will be punished with the severity due to acts in their nature essentially hostile to the Government, and to this end such persons will be arrested by the nearest Military Commander, and all the facts in such case reported by him direct to these Headquarters, as well as to his immediate superior.

IV. Commanding officers of Districts, Regiments, Posts or separate Detachments will be held strictly responsible for the enforcement of this order.

V. The foregoing order is not published under apprehension that the conduct of the troops would otherwise be improper, or that the election would not be orderly, but that the evil-disposed, if such there be, may be forewarned and without excuse, and the election be beyond suspicion fair. CASH .-: Cash is the rule in all business transactions now, and it is a good rule, and will prove beneficial to the farmer, mechanic, merchant and professional man. "Terms, Cash," is posted in all the Stores, in large letters. The man who buys anything to eat or wear on credit (unless he is obliged to do so by urgent necessity) is not briy will pay as they go, there will be no disagrande work like "dunning" to do, and every man will feel easy. "Pay as you go" is a good motto-pay for your food, pay for your clothes, and be sure to pay in advance for your newspaper. In self defence everybody must act on the cash system.

A DIFFICULTY AT CHAPEL HILL .- A friend at Chapel Hill informs us that a rather serious difficulty occurred on the night of the 12th inst., between the negroes of the village and the Students of the University. It is represented that the negroes were holding a "secret meeting." and that the Students attacked them for the purpose of breaking up the meeting. A general fight ensued, in which some of the students were pretty badly injured and the negroes roughly handled. pistols and sticks being freely used. The worst enemy the negro has is the white men who are advising them to hold political meetings and Conventions. Such assemblages will certainly excite animosity towards the colored man. As Gen.
