REMEMBRANCE, Remembrance is the golden chain That binds us to the past; When other pleasures fade away

Its golden links still last. It is the net that throws the charm On all we've once loved well, And gathers wound the heart again Many a joyous spell.

It comes upon us as a dream Oft beautiful and bright, And bathes the spirit as it were In soft and holy light.

It is the fount from whence we drink Sweet thoughts of dear days gone, It gives the heart again those ties

It early learned to mourn. With silken thread it leads us back To youth's most joyous hours, Where pleasure waited on our path And strewed our way with flowers.

And happy 'tis to linger there 'Mid bright sweet hopes of youth, E'er darkening clouds of sorrow rose To mar our faith or truth,
