THE NEW STAY LAW.

An Act to change the Jurisdiction of the Courts and the Rules of Pleading therein.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all warrents issued by a Justice of the Peace in civil cases, shall not be returnable within twelve months after the execution of the same, before some Justice of Peace for the county. Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, That the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace shall extend to one hundred dollars, principal money, on all bonds, bills, promissory notes or accounts stated, and shall extend to sixty dollars principal money, upon accounts for goods, wares and merchandise sold and delivered or for work and labor done, or for specific articles, and all balances of sixty dollars and under, due on such last mentioned debts or demands, and on all judgments rendered therein, and on all forfeitures and penalties not exceeding one hundred dollars: Provided, That this section shall not be construed to take from the courts the jurisdiction in cases of less than one hundred doilars, upon which writs have been issued prior to the ratification of this act. Sec 3. Be it further enacted, That all warrants issued by a Justice of the Peace, for any debt or demand within his jurisdiction, according to the provisions of the above section : Provided, That said debt or demand is due upon any contract, whether by bond or note or liquidated account, or any parol agreement made or entered into, and due prior to the 1st day of May 1865, shall not be returnable for trial within twelve months after the execution of the same, and at the return of the same, if the defendant or defendants shall pay to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney or to the oilicer executing the warrant, one tenth of the principal and on, he, she or they, may have twelve months longer to plead, at the end of which being again notified of the time and place of trial, if the defendant or interest, and all costs that may have accrued theredefendants shall pay one fifth of the principal, interest and costs, he, she, or they shall have twelve months longer to plead, at the end of which time, if the defendant or defendants shall pay one half of the residue of said claim, he, she, or they shall have twelve months longer to plead, at the end of which time the plaintiff shall have judgment for the remainder: Provided, That executions on justices' in judgments on debts contracted prior to May 1st, 1865, already rendered, shall be stayed for twelve months from the date of the ratification of this act.

Sec 4. Be it further enacted, That on all debts contracted since the first day of May, 1865, and all warrants issuing for the same, shall be returned and tried according to the provisions of the Revised Code, chapter sixty-two, (62) and the remedy in all such cases shall be the same as in 1860. Sec 5. Be it further enacted, That all writs in actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, issued | by the case to examine our prices and Goods, while to Fall Term, 1866, or Spring Term, 1867, of the | those buying by order will be dealt with the same Superior Court, shall be returnable to Spring Term, as if present. In brief, we intend dealing fairly, 1868, and all of said actions now pending in the openly, liberally and honestly, and invite a share Superior Court shall be continued to Spring Term, | of public patronage. 1868: Provided, That the Sheriff shall not be allowed in any case to levy execution before the first day of January succeeding the rendition of judg-

Sec 6. Be 't further enacted. That all writs in debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, shall be returnable to Spring Term of the Superior Court, and chall be served at least thirty days (Sundays inclu-ded) before the return day. It during the return term, the defendant pay to the plaintiff, or into court for his use, one tenth of the debt or demand (principal and interest) and all costs to that time, he shall be allowed until next Term to plead. At the said Spring Term should the defendant pay to plaintiff, or into court for his use, one fifth of the residue and costs, he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring Term to plead at the said Spring Term; should the defendant pay to the plaintiff or to plead: Provided however, the plaintiff if required shall file his debt or demand in writing, and if the defendant shall make oath that the whole or any part thereof is not justly due, or that he has a counter claim, all of which shall be particularly set forth by affidavit, then the defendant shall only pay the instalment required of what he admits to be due, and the court shall order a Jury at the same or subsequent Term to try the matters in dispute between the parties, and at the next Spring Term the defendant shall be allowed to plead only upon the payment of one fifth of the residue of the admitted amount, and whatever the Jury may find him indebted over and above the same: Provided further. that should the defendant fail to pay the first or any subsequent instalment, then, and in that case, the plaintiff shall be entitled to Judgment and execution for said instalment: Provided however, any debtor tendering or paying to his creditor on any debt contracted prior to the first day of May A. D. 1865, the one tenth of his indebtedness without a suit having been brought on the same, the said one tenth shall be entered as a credit on the evidences of said indebtedness; thereafter the remainder of said indebtedness shall not be sued on for twelve months after the payment or tender of said one-tenth. Sec 7. Be it further enacted, That so much of the ordinance of the Convention, passed on the 23d of June 1866, as shall come in conflict with this act. together with all other laws coming in conflict with the same, be, and the same are hereby repealed. Sec 8. Be it further enacted, That the time elapsed or clapsing from the tweatieth day of May, 1861, until the first day of January 1870, shall not be counted so as to bar actions, or saits, or to presume satisfaction or abandonment of rights. Sec 9. Be it further enacted That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification Ratified February 12, 1867.

THE DELICIOUS CHEAT. She said she loved me, oftentimes She gave me kisses warm and sweet, And I expended scores of rhymes On the delicious little cheat.

I called her darling, angel, dove, My bosom's queen, exhausting quite The whole vocabulary of love, And, sure, I thought that all was right.

But, when I pressed her to consent, To name the happy bridal day, Her cream to bonnyclabber went-She laughed and said it wouldn't pay.

For I was poor and she was worse-For I had truth and constancy-But then the fascinating curse Had more of common sense than I.

She wed a millionaire, and now, When age has silvered o'er my head. And brought some wrinkles to my brow, I thank her for the words she said.

For had we too joined heart and hand For "better or for worse" alway. The worse would have grown worser, and The devil would have been to pay.
