LIFE!

Life is not all a summer day, . A thing of joy and gladness, The sunbeams shine then fade away; And e'en the hearts that seem most gay Must have their times of sadness !

Life is not all a darksome storm, Through which no rainbow gleameth; No heart is always left forlorn; And every night will have its morn, How dark soe'er it seemeth.

There's ne'er a sky so bright and clear, But clouds will come unbidden; Each happy smile must have its tear; No cup is found so sacet, but there Some bitter drops lie hidden!

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, Oxford, N. C., FOR SALE ON CREDIT.

The undersigned in behalf of the Trustees of the above institution, and all other parties interested, respectfully announce, that on Tue-day, the 7th of May, 1867, they will sell to the highest bidder, at the Court House door in Oxford, the property known as "ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, OXFORD," together with the Mansion House adjoining it, and about

One Hundred Acres of Land, all of which is suitable for farming or other purposes.

A better investment was never presented in North Carolina to the capitalist. It offers peculiar inducements to any well qualifed dady or gentleman disposed to engage in the business of teaching a First Class Female School, one of which in charge of Mr J. H. Mills is already in successful operation upon the premises. The Main or College building, situated in the middle of a large grove of white oak trees, twenty acres in extent, upon a commanding eminence near the town, is built of excellent brick; arranged with reference to all the modern improvements and conveniences It is four stories high; 126 feet long and 66 feet through the centre; it contains the usual number of halls and rooms for a full corps of professors, and students; 53 chambers in the dormitory, and elegant and tasteful spiel 123 feet high and a splendid Chapel This building was erected in 1858, by the Masonic Fraternity of N. C. for educational purposes, and has been recently put in thorough and complete repair. The Mansion House in the rear contains six large and airy rooms; a large porch with beavy pillars; piazzas and basements all in fine order, with every necessary outbuilding complete and a fine garden and grounds.

The Land and Mansion will be sold with the Callege! TERMS-Cash sufficient to cover the costs of adverti-ing and sale; bond, with approved security. payable at 6 and 12 months for the residue. Title reserved till payment.
