ALL THE WHILE.

BY ALICE CARY. The nights they come and the nights they go, And the rosy twilights round them lie, And the stars are bright and the stars are sweet, And I sit in the silence and watch them meet; But all the while my heart beats low,

For the moon is out of my sky! The seasons come and the seasons go-Spring so gay, and winter so drear-And I sit in the light of the golden hours, And pick the blushing and beautiful flowers; But all the while my heart beats low,

For the May is out of my year! The mornings come and the mornings go-Yellow and purple, crimson and gray-And the milk-maid sings as she calls her cows, And the farm lad whistles the while he ploughs; But all the while my heart beats low, For the lark, the lark is away!

The rain descends, and the gardens grow, And the chamomile makes green her bed, And the bushes are full as bushes can hold Of bells of silver and globes of gold; But all the while my heart beats low, For the rose, for the rose, she is dead!

The tides they ebb, and the tides they flow, And the sun shines more than the storm can

And the ships with their white sails flowing free, Like a forest of silver, cover the sea; And all the while my heart beats low For the one good ship gone down!

Cleaveland Mineral Springs,

(FORMERLY WILSON'S.) These celebrated SPRINGS are situated in Cleaveland county, North Carolina, near the line of the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad, 55 miles West of Charlotte, and will be open by the 15th of June for the accommodation of visitors. The waters consist of White and Red Sulphur and Chalybeate, and are pronounced by competent judges to be unsurpassed by any of the kind upon this Continent. Ample accommodations have been provided for a large number of guests. Doctor Taylor (one of the Proprietors) has had a large experience in the treatment of diseases incident to our Southern climate, (especially those of women and children,) and will take pleasure in advising invalids in the use of the waters. Vehicles will be at the Depot on arrival of the trains to take visitors to the Springs at moderate charges. For other particulars, address the Proprietors at Shelby, Cleaveland county, N. C. C. E SPRATT,

CHEAPEST STOCK OF GOODS To be found at any other establishment in the city. Having recently lived in the Northern States, and with my old experience in the PURCHASE OF GOODS, I am not prepared to say I will sell "below cost," or at a reduction on the original cost, or "at and below New York prices," but that I will sell as CHEAP, IF NOT CHEAPER,

Than any other House, and at a SMALL PROFIT. As my stock was purchased for Cash, consequently I can afford to dispose of articles at a slight advance. I have now in Store, and am constantly receiving, choice assortment of DRY GOODS.
