OFFICE ON THE SOUTH SIDE OF TRADE STREET

IN ADVANCE.

WM. J. YATES, EDITOR AND PROPREITOR.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1867.

THE WESTERN DEMOCRAT Published every Tuesday,

WILLIAM J. YATES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

OTERMS. $3 PER ANNUM. in advance.

ing rates.

for a specific time, will be inserted until forbid, and charged accordingly $1 per square of 10 lines or less will be charged

$20.000 WORTH OF GOLD and SILVER WANTED.

FINE WATCHES, CLOCKS,

goods can be purchased at any other establishment in the State. Particular attention will be paid to the repairing of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, &c.

twenty-five per cent tess than the same class of accounts, or I will be forced to put them in the hands of an officer for collection of Charlotte, and inform them that she is now prepared to do all kinds of NEEDLE WORK, ing little girls Oroamental, Fancy Embroidery, Braiding and all kinds of Needle Work. Mrs N. is compelled to make her support by her Needle and close industry. Feeling truly grateful for the great kindness shown by the community of Charlotte for the past year she to Mr Allen Cruse's residence. July 22, 1867.

CALL AND SEE THE CUCKOO. JOHN T. BUTLER. Aug. 19, 1867.

A LARGE STOCK SPRING GOODS

Collars and Cuffs, Valencine Lace, Cleny Lace, Black Silk Guper Lace. Call and examine our New BARRINGER, WOLFE & CO.

Irish Linen of an extra quality; Bleached Shirting, extra quality. Call soon. Black Challey for Mourning Dresses, English sold low for cash.

BARRINGER, WOLFE & CO'S.

A large and well selected Stock of SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS.

plete, and was selected with care. A full assertment of YANKEE NOTIONS and HOOP SKIRTS-Bradley's Paris Trail Skirts-of the best quality.

FANS AND PARASOLS-A full assortment of SHOES-Ladies', Children's and Misses' boots shoes and gaiters, of the best Philadaphia make.

Also, Men's and Boy's shoes and hats.

experience in the business feels satisfied that she can please all who will favor her with a call. Bonnets and Hats made and trimmed to order, on the most reasonable terms and shortest notice. Dresses Cut, Fitted, Trimmed and made, on reasonable terms and at short notice. Our terms are strictly Cash. Our motto is, small profit, and just dealing to all.

April 1, 1867.

BOYES WANTED.

boro. Cash paid on delivery. Those who will accumulate Bones in quantities at any point on the Railroad lines, and inform the debt subscriber, arrangements will be made for their purchase. R. E. McDONALD, April 1, 1867 Concord, N C.

Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions-July Term, 1867. Uriah Walters and others

Witness, J. E. Irby, Clerk of our said Court at office, the 1st Monday in July, A. D., 1867. J. E. IBBY, Clerk. 82-6w [adv. $10

Smith's Boot and Shoe Store,

CHARLOTTE, N. C., NEXT DOOR TO DEWEY'S BANK.

chants their Fall and Winter Stock of BOOTS and

At New York Wholesale Prices.

One of the firm has visited the Factories North. and had a large stock of Goods made to order, with to commemorate. a view of supplying Merchants in Western North Carolina and Upper Districts in South Carolina.

SHOE TRADE,

We claim advantages in it, and will deal as liberally as possible with all. Call soon, or send in your orders early.

Every article warranted as represented. We have also a large Stock of Shoe Findings, Leather and Rubber BELTING. B. R. SMITH & CO.

Sept. 9, 1867.

May 6, 1867.

PICTURES AT 50 CENTS And upwards, at the PHOTOGRAPHIC GALLERY

Over Jas. Harty & Co's Store, next to the Cour Call and get a superb likeness of yourself and ship and peace. [Applause.] amily, at low rates according to style and finish. Copies taken of old Pictures in a superior manner. Satisfaction guarantied at the Gallery of H. BAUMGARTEN,

LIME, PLASTER,

Next to Court House

Cement and Hair Those indebted to me will please close up their A large supply always on hand, and for sale on WORTH & DAMEL, Wilmington, N. C. Monthly receipts of fresh Lime from Maine.

CONCORD MILLS.

Having opened a House in Charlotte, near the others to our YARNS, SHEETINGS, SHIRTINGS OSNABERGS, CARPET CHAIN, STOCKING YARNS, &c., &c.

Cotton taken in exchange for Goods. W ell low for Cash. J. McDONALD & SONS, Concord, N. C. August 12, 1867.

The Southern Fertilizing Company, RICHMOND, VA., Are now receiving and preparing their Fall stock of

Crushed Peruvian Guano,

selected from the purest cargoes imported, warranted pure and of the highest standard; Phospho Peruvian & Old Dominion prepared under the supervision of Professor WILLIAM GILHAM for the Wheat crop, combining a large percentage of the Phosphates, with an adequate amount of Ammonia : FRESH GROUND PLASTER, Orders solicited.

JOHN ENDERS, President. Office No. 104 Fourteenth street, Richmon JOHN A. YOUNG, Agent, Charlotte, N. C.

ROCK ISLAND MANUFACTURING Co., CHARLOTTE, N. C., Aug, 15, 1867. I have been using the most approved Fertilizers opon my Farm for many years. Upon my Wheat, Corn and Cotton crop this year, I used the "Old Dominion Fertilizer," and cheerfully testify to its merits, by asserting that I have never used any that gave as much satisfaction.

JOHN A. YOUNG. Aug. 19, 1867.

State of N. Carolina, Mccklenburg co. Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions-July Term, 1867. J. R. Kirkpatrick vs. S C Boyce.

Attachment-Arthur Grier and S. A. Boyce summoned as Garnishees.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the court, that the defendant in this case is a non-resident of this | dress. State, it is therefore ordered by the court that pubication be made, for six weeks, in the Western Democrat, a newspaper published in the city of Charlotte, notifying said defendant to be and appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the county of Mecklenburg, at the court house in Charlotte, on the 2d Monday in October next, then and there to answer, plead or replevy, or judgment final will be entered against him, and the effects in the hands of Garnishees condemned to Witness, Wm. Maxwell, Clerk of our said Court at office in Charlotte, the 2d Monday of July, A. D.

WM. MAXWELL, Clerk.

State of N Carolina Mecklenburg co Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions-July Term, 1867. Charles Junker vs. The Blakesly, Mining Company,

Attachment levied on three Mules. It appearing to the satisfaction of the court, that the defendants in this case reside beyond the limits | will be run by the Passenger trains over this Railcation be made, for six weeks, in the Western Democrat, notifying the said defendants to be and appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to days) at 6 o'clock, A. M., and Weldon every mornbe held for the county of Mecklenburg, at the court judgment final will be taken against them, and the property levied upon condemned to satisfy plaintiff's Will leave Wilmington at 9:30 P. M., daily, and Witness, Wm. Maxwell, Clerk of our said Court at office, the 2d Monday in July, A. D., 1867. WM. MAXWELL, Clerk.

82-6w State of N Carolina, Mecklenburg co. going South

Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions-July Term, 1867. J. B. Alexander, Executor of R. D. Alexander, dec'd, vs. the Heirs at Law of R. D Alexander, dec'd.

W. B. Fewell and wife Agnes, defendants in this with trains on Wilmington & Manchester Railroad, War Department. Should this be the case I pro confesso, will be taken and the same heard expartee as to them Witness, Wm. Maxwell, Clerk of our said court at office in Charlotte the 2d Monday in July, A. D., A first rate quality for sale by lengthy remarks, but simply to express my ap- trial and Commercial Gazette: B. R. SMITH & CO. will furnish Mer- probation of the ceremonies which have taken

THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH AT ANTIETAM CEMETERY.

"I shall not attempt to give utterance to the Having devoted our entire aftention for many and prayers which have been made, and the while in other parts of the country, where the her husband was suspected of belonging to an give my countenance and aid to the ceremonies procure help. The freedmen, if they work at prairie. the illustrious dead. When we look on you > by in the earliest and most trying perils to pre- more burdensome. serve the Union of these States, to restore harmony to our distracted and divided country, and you shall have my last efforts in vindication of your fathers." Applause.]

THIS COUNTRY IS AN OLD ONE. continent is the oldest in the series. But the idea strange that cotton is no longer King; that, inprevails that man has not occupied it so long as stead of sending millions of bales abroad, we sumption. If pains were deliberately taken to home, and that other countries and nations are classify the evidences that might be collected to cultivating it as well as our own, and are meet- the horse's mane and tail so as to alter its ap-Post Office, for the sale of our own manufactured show the antiquity of the works of man on both goods, we invite the attention of merchants and sides of the Rocky Mountains it would conclusively prove that man was at a vastly remote period, even anterior to the mould-builders and they flourished, perhaps several thousand years to force the culture of this indispensable article of an argument or follow the labrynthine mazes before the advent of the Indians It is not difficult to make reference to four distinct races who have existed here, fulfiled their destiny and disappeared. Their demi-advances in civiliation are faintly indicated by the merest fragments of designs, but which man alone could produce. How many races or generations had preceded even the oldest of the old of which we have vestiges is

That this continent was untenanted by man till within the last thousand or five thousand years admits of a question, since the more the ground is overhauled by those with Anglo Saxon blood in their veins the greater number of strange things come into view, indicative of an antiquity of the continent, and an antiquity, too, of man, which will become more perplexing as those relics are multiplied and examined. One may see throughout the whole series of the Western States indications that there population has been far greater heretofore than it may again be in two hundred years to come, under the best auspices of modern civilization.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CARRIER DOVE,

Mecklenburg Female College Magazine We propose to send forth from the Institution, November 15th, 1867, The Carrier Dove, or Mecklenburg Female College Magazine, designed expressly for young ladies.

This will be a Periodical of Forty-eight Pages, well printed on fine paper, and handsomely illus-The aim will be to make it, in the highest degree, attractive and entertaining It will be issued Quarterly, at one dollar per annum, in advance For five dollars, six copies will be sent to one ad-

Forward names and money without delay. An encouraging number of subscribers have already been obtained. All communications should be addressed to

REV. A. G. STACY, Charlotte, N. C. Editors who publish this Prospectus will be entitled to the Magazine gratis for one year. September 16, 1867.

Notice.

I respectfully inform my friends and the public generally, that I have engaged the services of Mr r. W. SPARROW, who will take pleasure in serving his friends at my store. B. KOOPMANN. Sept 9, 1867

Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Co. OFFICE CHIEF ENGINEER & GEN. SUP'T. ) Wilmington, N. C., Sept. 1, 1867. REGULAR SCHEDULE. On and after this date, the following Schedule

DAY TRAINS. Will leave Wilmington every morning (except Suning (except Sundays) at 10:40 A. M.; arriving at Wilmington at 8 o'clock, P. M., and at Weldon at 3 NIGHT EXPRESS TRAINS.

Weldon at 6:25 P. M , daily: arriving at Wilmington at 2:20 A. M., and at Weldon at 6 A. M. Thirtythree hours to New York. Trains pass Goldsboro', at 1:57 A M. and 10:35

A M. going North, and at 3:05 P M, and 10:11 P M. to or from the North make close connections at Goldsboro with Day Trains Passengers going East or West from Goldsboro, Petition for settlement of R. D. Alexander's Estate. should take the Day Trains from places South of nals generally say that Mr Stanton has tendered It appearing to the satisfaction of the court, that Goldsboro. Both trains connect at Wilmington his resignation and expects soon to leave the

> S. L. FREMONT. Sept. 9, 1867 1m Chief Eng'r and Supt.

Clover Seed.

HAMMOND & McLAUGHLIN. September 9, 1867,

THE TAX ON COTTON.

The following judicious remarks on the cot-"My fellow-countrymen: In appearing be- ton crop and the cotton tax are from the pen of law in Illinois, on a pretty large circuit, I was fore you it is not for the purpose of making any G. W. Griffin, late editor-in-chief of the Indus- called on one day in my office by a very pretty place to-day. My appearance on this occasion for 1867 will be very small, even smaller than She wished to retain me for the defence. I will be the speech that I will make. My reflect that of last year. Although a number of our asked her why she did not go to Judge R-, tions and my meditations will be in silent com- cotemporaries express a contrary opinion, our an ex-Senator of the United States, whose office munion with the dead, whose deeds we are here own advices from Alabama, Mississippi, Texas was in town. I told her that I was a young and Louisiana, are anything else but encouraging man at the bar, &c. She mournfully said that In these States the worm and the overflow have he had asked a retaining fee beyond her means: feeling and emotions inspired by the addresses destroyed nearly two-thirds of the entire crop, besides, he did not want to touch the case, for hymns which have been sung. I shall make at seasons have been more favorable, the planters extensive band of horse-thieves and countertempt at no such thing. I am merely here to have, in many instances, been wholly unable to feiters whose headquarters were then at Moore's on this occasion, but I must be permitted to ex- all, do not care to work in any other way than press my hope that we may follow the example on shares, and usually demand one-hall of the matter, and if it was true that her husband did which has been so eloquently alluded to this af- crop for their services. This deluded class of belong to such a band. ternoon, and which has been so clearly set by human beings flatter themselves with the belief "Ah, sir," said she, "a better man at heart that a day of luxurious ease is near at hand; than my George never lived, but he likes cards battle field, I think of the brave men on both that the landed property of the South will be and drink, and I am afraid they made him do sides who fell in the fierce struggle of battle, who confiscated for their especial benefit, and that what he never would have done if he had not sleep silent in their graves. Yes, who sleep in they will soon become the sole possessors of under the bad the my opponent. One offered me a cigar, which I silence and peace after the earnest conflict has told wealth. Their imaginations are filled with horse; he didn't steal it; another stole it and ceased. Would to God we of the living could visions of splendor, and dreams of debasing passed it to him." imitate their example, as they lay sleeping in servitude for their former masters. No wonder I didn't like the case. I knew there was a and proffered me a light, and in doing so slipped peace in their tombs, and live together in friend- that they are sullen and insolent, when asked to great dislike to the gang located where she a note into my hand, which she must have writlabor. But these are not the only difficulties named, and feared to risk the case before a jury. "You, my fellow-citizens, have my earnest with which the Southern planter has to con- She seemed to observe my intention to refuse pencil. Never shall I forget the words they wishes, as you have had my efforts in time gone tend. His taxes are becoming daily more and the case, and bursted into tears.

Geologist make it pretty certain the American Under these circumstances, it is not at all took the case, and she gave me the particulars. ing with success undreamed of before. England, our greatest commercial rival, has not been idle. Her statesmen and political economists "by a bridge of gold." They have silenced the and quite distracted. grumbling of the Sepoys, and quelled every disand deepened canals, and constructed new ones They have built railroads, and bridged mountain chasms and mighty rivers. They have improved navigation, thrown up high-ways, and repaired common roads, and taught the ignorant inhabitants industry and sobriety. The great Peninsular and East Indian railroads, through which cotton is made marketable, were projected and built in a spirit of enterprise unsurpassed by any nation of modern times. During the coming year, the former will pass from Bombay to Calcutta, a distance of fifteen bundred miles, while the latter has the longest unbroken line, under the management of one company, in the

In times gone by, we were able to boast that we monopolized the cotton market of England Now, she is independent of us, with the exception that our cotton is of a better quality and better suited for manufacturing purposes. Shall we remain longer inactive, and make no effort to recover the supremacy from our aspiring rival? It would seem that there is no other way to awaken the American people to a sense of duty than by reminding them that we are losing our greatness as a nation. We have spoken unpleasant truths, but we have been compelled to give utterance to them. The tax on our greatest staple should at once be repealed, for it is not only unjust, but disgraceful. Our legislative authorities should go to work in earnest, and by a system of wise and judicious legislation, encourage the developments of our agricultural resources, and afford every protection to our commercial interests, so that we can again wrest the sceptre from England. who, with a grasping tyranny, has extended her sway over weaker empires, and, with an allabsorbing avarice, is aiming at the conquest of every clime where wealth is found.

GREELEY CAUGHT.

"Data," the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, gives the following :

About a month ago Mr Greeley printed an editorial in the Tribune, based on a rumor by the telegraph that General Steadman had been

"The appointment of Steadman as Secretary of War, monstrous and ridiculous as it is intrinsically, is in perfect keeping with Mr Johnson's policy, which is always to choose the worst man in the country for a given position. If he could have found a successor to Mr Stanton more obnoxious to the people, and less worthy of the hard ones; but they had property, and before office than Steadman, he would have inevitably chosen him, but that was impossible. Steadman is the last man in the United States who ought to be Secretary of War," &c. Something over a year ago, when Gen Steadman was named as the then probable successor of Mr Stanton, Mr Greeley wrote a letter to Mr Johnson, a copy of which was retained by the friend of General Steadman who delivered the the bank opened, but other business detained hood. The day for the marriage was fixed and papers to the President. That friend furnishes Passengers to and from the N. C. Railroad going your correspondent with the following copy:

> Office of the Tribune, New York, Jan. 28, Mount Vernon that night. 1866. [Confidential ] Dear Sir:-The jourventure to suggest as his successor Gen. James merits, I remain yours, Hor. Hon. A. Johnson, President.

comes interesting.

A LAWYER'S ADVENTURE.

About four years ago, while I was practicing woman, who, not without tears told me that her There is every indication that the cotton crop husband had been arrested for horse-stealing.

I asked her to tell me the whole truth of the firmly declined.

I never could see a woman weep without Almost every article of human consumption feeling like a weak fool myself. If it hadn't is taxed. He is obliged not only to pay an in- been eyes brightened with "pearly tears," I'd direct tax on everything necessary for growing never been caught in the lasso of matrimony. the flag of the republic and of the constitution of his crop, but for the clothing he wears, the light My would-be client was pretty. The handkerhe burns, and the books and papers he reads; chief that hid her streaming eyes didn't hide and last, and meanest of all, has to pay a tax of her red lips; and her snowy bosom rose and fell 21 cents on every pound of cotton he raises like a white gull in a gale of wind at sea. I

The gang, of which he was not a member, had persuaded him to take the horse. He knew it he has Asia, Africa and Europe This is mere as- find the supply scarcely equal to the demand at | was stolen, and, like a fool, acknowledged it when arrested. Worse still, he had trimmed pearance, and the opposition could prove it.

The trial came on. I worked hard to get a jury of ignorant men, who had more heart than have exerted themselves beyond all precedent brains; who, if they could not fathom the depths in her dominion. They have succeed in uniting of law could feel for a young fellow in a bad fix their country to the Indian Empire, as it were, and a weeping, pretty wife, nearly heart-broken

Knowing the use of "effect," I told her to position of mutiny and war. They have widened dress in deep mourning and bring her little cherub of a boy, only three years old, into court, and sit as near to her husband as the officers would let her. I tried the game once in a murder case, and a weeping wife and sister made a jury render a verdict against law, evidence, and the Judge's charge, and saved a fellow that ought to have been hung as high as Haman.

The prosecution opened very bitterly and inveighed against thieves and counterfeiters, who had made the land a terror to stranger and travregion of his finest horses. It introduced witiury as to secure a recommendation to gubernational elemency and a light sentence. So I painted his picture. A young man en-

Temptation lay before and around him. He not for him to inquire their business; they more. dressed well, made large bills and paid promptly. At an unguarded hour, when he was insane with liquor, they urged upon him; he deviated from the path of rectitude. The demon legs, and men of very long legs and very short alcohol reigned in his brain, and it was his first bodies. One of the latter class, who while sitting that his young wife should go down sorrowing | ted a country paper near Cincinnati. to the grave, and that the shadow and taunt of sweet child. Oh, how earnestly did I plead for cleared; but the prosecution had the close, and little man sitting by the table writing, he rushed threw ice on the fire I kindled. But they did up to him and exclaimed:

not quite put it out. The Judge charged according to law and evidence, but evidently leaned on the side of mercy. The jury found a verdict of guilty, but unanimously recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court. My client was sentenced to the shortest imprisonment the court was emappointed Secretary of War. In that article powered to give, and both jury and court signed petition to the Governor for an unconditional pardon, which has since been kindly granted,

Some three months after this, I received an The man eyed him from head to foot for a ecount for collection from a wholesale house New York. The parties to collect from were they had an idea of the trap laid, I had the property, which they were about to assign under attachment. Finding that I was a neck ahead and bound to win, they "caved in" and about thirty-five or forty miles southeast of Moore's prairie. I received the funds just after idence, who spent his vacation in the neighborme until after dinner. I then started for all the arrangements made, but at the appointed

I had gone along ten or twelve miles, when I noticed a splendid team of horses attached to a all, the dinner was getting spoiled by waiting. light wagon, in which were seated four men, Seeing this state of affairs, one of the invited evidently of the high-strung order. They swept past me as if to show me how easily they could B. Steadman of Ohio, one of the bravest and do it. They shortened in, and allowed me to had encouraged before the lawyer's advent, steptruest of our Union volunteers, and a capable, come up with them, and asked me to "wet," or, ped up, offered to take the groom's place, and HORACE GREELEY. had aboard; but I excused myself with the plea ner, and promise to make a happy couple. that I had plenty on board. They asked me As it is certain that Gen. Steadman will again how far I was going. I told them as far as I did not like the looks of those fellows, nor she!

their actions. But I was bound to go ahead. I had a brace of revolvers and a nice knife; my money was in a belt around my body. I drove slow in hopes that they would go on, and I should see them no more. It was nearly dark when I saw the tavero sign ahead. At the same time I saw their wagon before the door. I would have passed on, but my horse needed rest. I hauled up, and a woman came to the door. She turned as pale as a sheet when she saw me. She did not speak, but with a meaning look she put her finger on her lips, and beek-client. When I entered, the party recognized me, and bailed me as an old traveling friend, and asked me to take a drink. I respectfully but oned me to come in. She was the wife of my

"But you'll drink or fight!" said the noisiest of the party. "Just as you please; drink I shall not!" said

I, purposely showing the butt of a Colt that kicks six times in rapid succession. The others interposed and very easily quieted should not have received, but a glance at the woman induced me to accept it. She advanced ten the moment before; it was written with a

"Beware—they are members of the gang. They mean to rob and murder you. Leave soon, and I will manage to detain them."

I did not feel comfortable just then, but tried to look so. "Have you any room to put my horse?" I asked, turning to the woman.

"What! you are not going to stay here tonight?" asked one of the men; "we are going

"I think I shall stay," I replied. "We'll all stay, then, I guess, and make a night of it," said one of the cut-throats. "You wil! have to put up your own hoss;

here's a lantern," said the woman. "I am used to that," I said. "Gentlemen, excuse me-I will join you in a drink when I

"Good on your head! more whiskey, old gal," shouted they. I went out and glanced at their wagon. It was old-fashioned, and lineh pins secured the wheels. To take out my knife and pry one from the fore and hind wheels was but the work of a moment, and I threw them in the darkness as far as I could. To untie my horse and dash off was but the work of an instant. The road lay down a steep hill, but my lantern lighted me somewhat. I had hardly got under good headway before heard a vell from the party I had so unceremoniously left. I put the whip to my horse. The next moment they started. I threw my light away, and left my horse to pick his way. A moment afterward I heard a crash-a horrid elers, and who had robbed every farmer in the shriek. The wheels were off Then came the rush of horses, tearing along with the wreck of nesses, and it proved all and more than I feared the wagon. Finally they seemed to fetch up in it would. The time came for me to rise for the the woods. One or two shrieks I head as I defence. Witnesses, I had none. But I had swept on, leaving them far behind. For some to make an effort, only hoping so to interest the time I hurried my horse-you'd better believe I "rid." It was a little after midnight when I got to Mount Verson. The next day I heard that Moore's prairie tering into life, wedded to an angel; beautiful team had run away, and two men of the four in person, possessing every noble attribute had been so badly hurt that their lives were despaired of; but I did not cry. My clients got kept a tavern. There were many guests; it was the money, but I didn't travel that road any

"Do You Know WHAT YOU CAN DO!"-We have men of very long bodies and very short offence. Mercy pleaded for another chance to down, looks like a small man, but who towers save him from ruin. Justice did not require like a giant when he gets upon his feet, once edi-

One day a man who had no acquaintance with a felon father should cross the path of that the editor, and who had become greatly exasperated at a certain article in the journal reflecthem! The woman wept; the husband did the | ting upon himself, rushed into the editor's sancsame; the jury looked melting. If I could tum in a terrible rage, vengeance in his eye-and have had the closing speech he would have been | the paper in his hand-espying a quiet looking

> "Be you the editor of this paper ?" "I am, sir," was the reply. "Did you write that infamous article on me ?" pointing to the editorial in question. "I did write the article you are pointing at sir."

returned the editor, quietly. "Then, sir," exclaimed the enraged man, pulling off his coat, "do you know what you can do?" Raising himself slowly upon his feet until he towered at least a foot and a half above his would but not before the following interesting incident be adversary, and bringing his fist down on the occurred:

table savagely, said: "Well, sir, what can I do?"

> moment in utter amazement, and then slipping on his coat again, exclaimed: "What can you do? Well, stranger, I jes' think you can give me the gol-darndest mauling that a man ever got," and he hurriedly shot out

A QUEER WEDDING -The Hartford Post reforked over $3,594 18 (per memorandum book) lates a curious incident near that city. Mrs. in good money. They lived in Shawneetown, Eliza Barusley, a young war widow, had been courted and won by a young lawyer from Prov-C-, intending to go as far as the village of hour the bridegroom came not. He had gone from the town in an early train. The bride was disconsolate, the friends outraged. Worse than guests, a middle aged farmer, who had been a secret admirer of Mrs. Barnsley, and whom she

A Quaker lady recently explained to her new be urged for the place of Secretary of War, and Mount Vernon, if my horse didn't tire out. domestic that wash-day came on every Second as it is probable that he may yet be appointed to They mentioned a pleasant tavern ten or twelve Day. The girl left in high dudgeon. She that office, the foregoing editorial and letter be- miles ahead as a nice stopping place, and drove on. didn't go to be washing every other day-not

$3 Per Annum

Transient advertisements must be paid for in covance. Obituary notices are charged advertis-Advertisements not marked on the manuscript for each insertion, unless the advertisement is inserted 2 months or more.

John T. Butler Has just returned from the North with a splendid Jewelry, Silver and Plated Ware, Table Knives and Cutlery, Mearshaum and Brier Root Pipes, Guns and Pistols, &c . &c . which is warranted superior to anything ever before introduced me this market, and which will be sold at

MRS. L. A. NORRYCE Would kindly solicit the patronage of the citizens

Plain, Ornamental and Fancy. Gents and Ladies Underclothing beautifully made A New System of Cutting and Fitting. Three afternoons in each week devoted to teach has been with them, she would beg a continuance of the same. Will be found in the new house next | FERTILIZERS, and offer for sale in unlimited | lost in the accumulating lumber of unrecorded

Fine white and colored Marseilles Quilts, just BARRINGER, WOLFE & CO'S. Ladies' French Dimitry Skirts, India Twilled Long Cloth, Linen Dress Goods, Extra Fine Lace

Crape and English Crape Veils, at

JUST RECEIVED AT C. M. OUERY'S NEW STORE

DRY GOODS, at extremely low prices. Will TE GOODS, a full assortment, which will be TRIMMINGS-Our stock of Trimmings is com-the most normar Skirt now worn-all sizes-Ladies. KID GLOVES-all colors and sizes, of the best article Ludies' and Children's Mitts, all sizes, and

MILLINERY. MRS. QUERY would inform her friends that she has spared no pains in selecting her stock of 1867. Millinery and Trimmings; and having had a long

A Chance to Make Money. The subscriber will purchase Bones at 50 cents per hundred, delivered at Concord Factory, or at house in Charlotte, on the 2d Monday in October any Railroad Depot between Charlotte and Greens- next, then and there to answer, plend or replevy, or o'clock, P. M.

State of N. Carolina, Union County. W. N. Parker, adm'r of John Walters, dec'd, vs.

Petition to subject real estate as assets It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendants, William Walters and John W. Walters, reside beyond the limits of this State, it is ordered by the Court that publication be made for six case, reside beyond the limits of this State, it is and at Weldon with trains via Richmond and Portsweeks in the Western Democrat, a paper published therefore ordered by the court that publication be mouth, Va. The Day Trains connect with Old Bay in the city of Charlotte, notifying said absent de- made for six weeks in the Western Democrat, noti- Line. The Night Trains with Anamessic Line. fendants to be and appear at our next Court of pleas fying said defendants to be and appear at the next Five to ten car loads of "Time" freight will be and quarter Sessions to be held for Union county term of this court, to be held for the county of carried on Day Trains in fourteen hours between devoted patriot. Trusting you are aware of his in other words, diminish the jug of old rye they was accepted. They were married, ate their dinat the Court House in Monroe, on the 1st Monday Mecklenburg, at the Court House in Charlotte, on Portsmouth and Wilmington, and in fifty hours bein October next, then and there to answer the alle- the 2d Monday in October next, then and there to tween Portsmouth and Charlotte, via Goldsboro, gations of the aforesaid petition, or judgment pro plead, answer or demur to the petition, or judgment, confesso will be taken and the land ordered to be

> 4 1867. 82-6W