CHAIN GANG -The County Court last week authorized the establishment of a Chain Gang, in which convicts are to be placed and made to work out the penalty for evil behaviour. This is proper, for it is not right to require tax-payers to pay for the board of criminals in jail, who, by their bad conduct, incur the inflictions of the law, Since whipping has been abolished, some mode must be adopted to impose punishment. Every good citizen ought to endorse the action of our county authorities. ----

A Nuisance.

We hope our City authorities will hereafter arrest every man who comes here and bawls and squalls on the streets (and at the Public Square especially) trying to deceive the ignorant by offering for sale some sort of medicine to cure all the ills that flesh is heir to. There was a young man here last week, trying to sell a pain-killer who ought to have been arrested and made to go to work or leave the city. - We respectfully ask our city authorities to abate such nuisances hereafter.

In fact, we do not think it right to permit sales on the streets of goods, furniture or medicines. Our merchants and business men have to pay house rent, taxes, &c , and it is not fair to permit peddlers, auctioneers, or any one else, to use the streets and sidewalks for purposes for which others have to rent houses. An auctioneer ought to rent a house in which to do business and store his goods, furniture, &c Place all on a fair and equal footing. That is | tance was ascertained. the practice in other towns and cities of any importance, and we are sure that Charlotte is now a place of no small importance.

We believe that the most of our citizens will agree with us in the above remarks; and we hope our authorities will think about the matter. . . .

-----Congress and the Impeachment Trial.

Except the impeachment trial, nothing is transpiring in Washington of any importance. The trial of the President occupies the attention of both Houses | Superior Court of Caldwell last week :

of Congress-the members of the Senate as the Court, and the Representatives as spectators So far, no President has been elicited, and although corres-

Last week, testimony in behalf of the President was introduced. Gen. Sherman was on the stand, but the prosecution, represented by Butler, objected from the fact that the accused were both Deaf-Mutes, to so much of his testimony, that nothing of impor-

One of the President's counsel, Mr Stanberry, was unable to attend the trial last week, owing to sickness, and some delay was caused thereby. He also stated that after the examination of a number of witnesses he was satisfied that there was no evidence sufficient to connect them with the homicide.

Col. Folk also made a few remarks, and said he assigned for this temporary suspension is to give all ing scared, quoting a Scotch proverb that "a felt it due to his unfortunate clients to state, that if they had been placed on trial he could have proved an alibi at the time the murder was committed. He did not think that there was one tithe of evidence to convict them of complicity in the homicide. The dictatorship of Grant will be nominal only, and the real power will be in the Senate, with Ben Wade at its head. The appointments made by him during his brief term of power will be carefully selected from the tools of the conspirators, and the patronage and influence of the office-holders will stand at the back of the revolutionary commune. Grant will not have the power, if he had the disposition, to change a single feature in the programme-a single creature in the action of the drama-for the Senate will hold him in a vice stronger than that they have prepared for Andrew Johnson. With the latter out of the Presidential office, no voice will be raised in vetoes to expose the true character of radical legislation, and acts will be passed which will strike down what little of protection yet remains to the people in the barriers of the constitution. VIRGINIA CONVENTION .- The Convention has fixed the 2nd of June for submission of the Constitution to the people, and State officers and members of the Legislature and Congress are to are to have a soldier candidate, Hancock is the be elected at the same time. The Legislature is man .- Philadelphia Herald. to assemble June 24th, if the Constitution is adopted. Most of the day was spent in skirmishing to modify the iron clad oath of office, at least for county officers, All efforts were defeated by a decided majority.

sent at the counting of the ballets, so as to witness and verify such counting.

An arrangement of that sort in this State would have afforded general satisfaction, and prevented accusations of fraud. No matter how the election results, complaints will be made of unfairness on the part of managers and voters.

The prospect of General Hancock's nomination for the Presidency is becoming more and more apparent every day. It is very evident scriber himself, is no better than a man who steals that this gallant son of Pennsylvania has secured a strong hold upon the affections of the Democracy, not simply from the fact that in the field he proved himself a brave and skillful soldier, scriber) to take papers from the office unless he has but that also in the discharge of his civil duties, while commander of the Fifth district, his statesmanlike administration of affairs won for him the respect and admiration of all. We should like to see Haneock pitted against Grant, and the records of the two placed side by side. If we

"Unquestionably one of the liveliest Dailies in the State, and a worthy recipient of the large and increasing patronage it is daily receiving. As a bright particular Star in the firmament of the South, we recommend its editor, and wish for him and his little Twinkler' unbounded and unfathomable success."-Raleigh North Carolinian.

"This bright constellation of the heavens continues to illumine the political horizon and nobly performs its office of Guiding Star for the poor downtrodden (S. C.) Journal.

"The liveliest paper we know of, full of news in & spicy and convenient form, and has an editorial staff who not only understand the art of epitomizing and paragraphing to perfection, but who also wield sensible and piquant pens. If you want to invest $2 50 in a pleasant and profitable manner, send and get the Star for six months."-Keowee (S. C.) Courier.

"One of the best, and indeed we may add, the sprightliest newspaper in the State. The Star shines conspicuously in the political constellation of North Carolina, and we take pleasure in recommending it to all who are not posted in news, politics or astronomy." -Edenton Transcript.
