Tim Niggins After His Honeymoon.

Seems to me things have changed somewhat i Seems to me so-bust me up if it don't! I've been married near six months now, and the fact is, Susan showed the least bit more temper than I thought she had; in fact, speak the right down truth, she's knocked things about generally for the last two months. She's slung the cat through the window by the tail and would have thrown me out by the-by the heels if I hadn't walked out in a fast run. She's got cross as four sticks, and say she'll use a half a dozen sticks, on my back, if I don't quit smoking in the house. And she threatened to throw the boot jack down my throat last night because I spit in the fire. If she'd done that, I suppose I'd have had the colic or the boot jack cramp.

"Timothy P. Niggins," says I to myself, says I, "you've gone and done it and you have got to put up with the consequences, you have, come what will, you can't get out of it, you can't."

A girl loses her beauty mighty quick after she marries. Miss Susan Sunflower was pretty. As soon as I married her, her skin turned yellow, her eyes lost their beauty, her hair got thin, and she got to be just the shape of an ale cask. And oh! what a temper she has got! Never knowed her to get mad before I married her; never knowed her to offer to throw a stone or a chair down anybody's throat; never until she was Mrs. Niggins! Aunt says she'll come all right arter awhile; but I don't see why she can't be all right now, I don't.

"Just you spit in that fire again," says she to me yesterday; "just do it again and I'll throw this stick of wood down your throat! What did I marry you for? To run around after you spit it out? You tormenting beast? Did I marry you to work and slave for you to smoke and chaw and chaw and smoke, and spit in the fire? There's them chickens I had to feed, too, and there's Ben Dyke's hog got in the garden and dug up my seed beets, and you never saw it; there's that blamed old rooster scratched up my onion bed and you never saw it ! And you never see nothing you ought to see, and see everything you ought not to see! There's Ann Buster who was over here yesterday! I saw you wink at her! I saw you, Tom Niggius! Don't say you did nt. I saw you-I saw you!"

HONESTY AT THE HYMENIAL ALTAR.—At a marriage of a sable daughter of Africa, a few days since, not many miles from our sanctum, when the question was asked her-forsaking all others, will you cleave unto him as long as ye both shall live? after a few moments hesitation, replied: "Yes, sir, 1 will, all excepting Mars nish Loose Lime by the Ton at $11. Certainly every

Being but the one exception, the bridegroom made no objection, and the ceremony proceeded. -Danville Times.

Effects of Trying to Please Everybody.

A haggard, pale and wretched man Once I met.

Which from that day to this I can Ne'er forget; Clothed in garb of sundry dyes. Cut in every shape and size-Low and plaintive were his cries-Shunning everybody.

"Friend," said I, "pray tell me All thy woes! Surely I would comfort thee

At life's close." "Ah," said he, "the die is cast-All my cheerful hopes are past; Now I must give up at last Pleasing everybody."

"When I first began my labors," Said the man.

"Then to try and please my neighbors I began; But I've led a sorry race-Owning now no resting-place,

Due to everybody. "If you try to please mankind

Save the short six feet of space

As you go, Plenty of labor you will find

Here below. First a bit and then a miss, Sometimes No and sometimes Yes-A little of that, a little of this, Pleasing everybody.

"Should the world declare you wrong, Never heed;

If your cause is true and strong, Sow your seed. On life's stage act well your part,

Serve your God with honest heart; But give over from the start. Pleasing everybody.

Chloride of copper is now extensively used in Germany against the cattle plague, or rather as preventive. The modus operandi is as follows: Take green crystalized chloride of copper, 8 gms; spirits of wine, 2 kilog., and dissolve. With this solution impreguate a pad of cotton, lay it on a plate, and set fire to it in the centre of the stable, turning the animals' heads towards the flames so as to make them breathe the fumes. This operation is performed morning and evening, burning one pad for every three head of cattle. At night the stable. EDGECOMBE COUNTY, N. C., May 2, 1867. Dr. J. J. LAWRENCE:-Dear Sir-Please send me immediately, per Express, to Tarboro', two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examined its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have, therefore, no munication with all Northern and Western States. others, as the most reliable Alterative now known. Respectfully yours, &c., A. B. NOBLES, M D.

Rosadalis will Cure the worst Cases of Scrofula. Read the Statement Below, and Despuir Not. WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867. Dr. J. J. Lawrence: Dear Sir: -My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully affiicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure. For the transportation of merchandise, valuable During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her | packages, specie, bank notes, bonds, &c., for all parts body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches of the South and Southwest, in connection with -with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The forwarded South will receive prompt attention.
