Commencement at Davidson College.

MR. EDITOR:-The 30th Annual Commencement has come and gone, and with it came and went, perhaps, the most respectable assemblage that has ever been witnessed at Davidson College. It looked more like reconstruction than anything which has hitherto occurred. As you and many of your readers were not present to see and hear for yourselves, a brief account of what was said and done will not be out of place.

At 11 o'clock on Wednesday, the Annual Ser mon before the Williams' Association of Enquiry was preached by the Rev. Dr. Howe of the Theological Seminary at Columbia, S. C. The object of the Association is to enquire into the condition and promote the work of Foreign and Domestic Missions. The text of Scripture selected for the occasion is found in the 26th chapter and 19th verse of the Acts of the Apostles: "Whereupon, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the Heavenly vision.

The venerable Divine delineated with great force and beauty the early instruction of Saul of Tarsus, his persecutions of the church, his and character of the great Apostle to the Gentiles-the first missionary-was a fitting introduction to an account of the progress and present condition of the missionary work. The carefully collected statistics presented many facts which were as striking as they were interesting and gratifying, and which certainly removes the too common impression, not to say reproach, that the good accomplished by missionary operations is altogether inadequate to the means employed. would doubtless tend to aid and encourage the its blessings.

Legislature of North Carolina.

In the House, on Monday the 20th, Gen. Laffin introduced a resolution directing the Governor to call upon Gen. Grant for two Regiments of U.S. troops to be stationed in this State. This resolution created considerable discussion -the colored members opposing it on the ground that they could not trust U. S. soldiers, but preferred to have the Militia armed. The resolution was finally laid on the table by a vote of 45 who shall at once go before a Judge of the Supreme to 36.

The bill declaring all municipal offices in cities, towns and incorporated villages vacant, and authorizing the Governor to appoint such officers, to hold until the 1st Monday in January next, when an election shall be hold, was passed. The Bill directing how County Officers shall qualify has been passed by both Houses, and is now a law. It will be found in another column. On Tuesday, the 21st, nothing was done in the House of importance. In the Senate, the bill declaring the municipal offices of towns and cities vacant, and authorizing the Governor to appoint said officers, was discussed. Messrs. Osborne, Love and Ellis showed its unconstituconversion and subsequent ministry. The well tionality beyond a doubt, but the majority passed drawn picture was not without effect. The life it notwithstanding. The radical members voted against giving the people the privilege of electing officers immediately.
