

Divorces

In reading the numerous exchanges which reach us, we are struck with the large array of divorce cases chronicled.

In our section, where such things are of rare occurrence, we are amazed at seeing the marriage rites so often broken, apparently for no just cause, save by whim or caprice.

In Vermont during the last five years not less than 574 divorces have been granted; for adultery 164, willful desertion 188, desertion 60, intolerable severity 126, for refusal to support 13, with twenty others for causes that are not mentioned.

In Massachusetts for the same time 1,254 divorces have been granted; for adultery 546, desertion 569, cruelty 122, intemperance 21, here the ratio for adultery is startling.

In Ohio, out of 2,681 cases granted for divorce, 635 were for adultery; 1,130 for absence or neglect; for cruelty 480; for intemperance 196.

In Vermont during seven years 15,710 marriages have taken place; out of which 730 divorces have occurred, being 1 to 21.

In Massachusetts for four years there were 45,372 marriages, and divorces in ratio 1 to 44. In Ohio for the year 1866, the marriages were 30,379; and divorces in ratio 1 to 26.

In Connecticut during the last 8 years the marriages were 33,227; the divorces in ratio 1 to 11.

It is remarkable in the New England States that they do not increase in population save among the Irish.

"Papa, I think you told a fib in the pulpit to-day," said a little son of a clergyman. "Why, my boy, what do you mean?" asked the father. "You said," continued the child, "One word more and I have done." Then you went on and said a great many words. The people expected you'd leave off, 'cause you promised them; but you didn't, and kept on preaching a long while after the time was up."

Day-Dreams.

I am dreaming, dearest, dreaming. While the hours come and go; As I lonely sit in silence, And the sun is sinking low. Of those brief but halcyon moments, When your eyes looked love in mine; And my heart, with rapture beating, Confessed its worship thine.

I am thinking, dearest, thinking Of those sweet and chaste caresses— The kisses prest on lip and brow, 'Mid the dark and waving tresses— Those words so dear, breathed in mine ear, With all of passion's fervor; They thrill me still, and bind my heart To thine, my love, forever.

I am waiting, dearest, waiting While the hours come and go; As the twilight shadows gather, And my head is bending low. For your footsteps, darling, waiting For your hand to clasp in mine; And to hear you fondly murmur: Thou art mine, and I am thine.

All this, and more, looking in that direction, is being done, without any provocation or reason for it, on the part of the whites. 40 Years before the Public. NONE GENUINE ENERGY THOSE HAVING THIS BUSINESS MAY BE SURE TO OBTAIN IT

The Southern Hepatic Pills, That old, long known and well tried remedy for all BILIOUS diseases, caused by a DISEASED LIVER.

Read the following CERTIFICATES from persons of the highest respectability. LIVER COMPLAINT. REV. DR. C. F. DEEMS, (August 23d, 1862,) says: "I have derived great benefit from these Pills, and have known many families and individuals who have found them very beneficial, and I have also known physicians in excellent standing to recommend them to their patients. For all diseases arising from disorders of the liver, I believe they are the best medicine offered to the public."

REV. JOHN W. PORTER, Snow Hill, N. C., (January 5th, 1863,) says: "For twelve years I was a great sufferer. My liver was diseased. I lost my flesh and strength, and my skin seemed changed in its color by the bile with which my system was overcharged. I became subject to frequent and violent attacks of bilious colic, every attack leaving me weaker than its predecessor. The physicians had been able to patch me up a little, but my health was in a deplorable state. I had taken patent medicines until I was tired of them. Without energy or comfort, I was barely able to go about a little. A length I yielded to the earnest persuasion of a friend and commenced taking the HEPATIC PILLS, with no confidence in them. They acted like a charm on me. From that hour I have improved: I have persevered in their use, until now, by God's blessing, I am well and hearty. I had a negro man, who, as I believe, was saved from death by a dose of these Pills. My Doctor's bill was annually from $100 to $200, but I have had no use for a physician since. I can confidently recommend them as a superior family medicine."

These Pills are made by G. W. DEEMS, No. 28 South Calhoun Street, BALTIMORE, Md. They can be sent to any point in the United States by Mail or Express. Price—For one Box, 25 cents. F. SCARR, Druggist, Special Agent at Charlotte, N. C. Aug. 24, 1868. 1y
