

A Lion Tamer attacked by a Lioness.

Many of our readers doubtless recollect Herr Lengel, or, as he was called, "the Lion King," who exhibited in our city in connection with Dan Castello's Circus on several occasions.

"Last night while Mr Lengel was in the cage of the lion and lioness, and after he had ended his performance in the cage, the lioness suddenly seized him by the right leg as he was passing him, threw him, and made at him again, but was driven off by two men armed with heavy iron bars, steel pointed shrap, and the lion tamer made his escape from the cage.

The excitement among the spectators near the cage was intense, but fortunately the larger portion seated on the other side were not aware of the accident. The employees of the show took the affair very coolly, as something that was not unusual. We were told that the lioness has been very tame for some weeks; hence the precaution of having the men near with the heavy iron bars, held like a soldier holds his musket to the charge, ready for any emergency.

The Southern Hepatic Pills, That old, long known and well tried remedy for all Bilious diseases, caused by a DISEASED LIVER.

Read the following CERTIFICATES from persons of the highest respectability. LIVER COMPLAINT. Rev. Dr. C. F. Deems, (August 25d, 1862,) says: "I have derived great benefit from these Pills, and have known many families and individuals who have found them very beneficial, and I have also known physicians in excellent standing to recommend them to their patients."

Rev. JOHN W. POTTER, Snow Hill, N. C., (January 5th, 1862,) says: "For twelve years I was a great sufferer. My liver was diseased. I lost my flesh and strength, and my skin seemed changed in its color by the bile which my system was overcharged. I became subject to frequent and violent attacks of bilious colic, every attack leaving me weaker than its predecessor. The physicians had been able to patch me up a little, but my health was in a deplorable state. I had taken patent medicines until I was tired of them. Without energy or comfort, I was barely able to go about a block. At length I yielded to the earnest persuasion of a friend and commenced taking the HEPATIC PILLS, with no confidence in them. They acted like a charm on me. From that hour I have improved. I have recovered in their use, until now, by God's blessing, I am well and hearty. I had a negro man, who, as I believe, was saved from death by a dose of these Pills. My Doctor's bill was annually from $100 to $200, but I had had no use for a physician since. I can confidently recommend them as a superior family medicine."

These Pills are made by G. W. DEEMS, No. 28 South Calhoun Street, Baltimore, Md. They can be sent to any point in the United States by Mail or Express.
