A Heart for Every One.

Oh! there's a heart for every one If every one could find it; Then up and seek, e'er youth is gone, Whate'er the toil, ne'er mind it ! For if you chance to meet at last With that one heart, intended

To be a blessing unsurpassed, Till life itself is ended. How would you prize the labor done, How grieve if you'd resigned it; For there's a heart for every one, If every one could find it!

Two hearts are made, the angels say, To suit each other dearly; But each one takes a different way-

A way not found so clearly! Yet though we seek and seek for years, The pain is worth the taking; For what the life of home endears

Like hearts of angels making! Then haste and guard the treasure now, When fondly you've enshrined it, For there's a heart for every one, If every one could find it.

EXTRAORDINARY BIRTH.-We find the following case of remarkable and unusual fecundity, recorded in a recent number of the Clarksville (Tenn.) Patriot:

A lady named White, living in Maury county about ten miles from Spring Hill, gave birth yesterday morning to four male children, weighing in the aggregate twenty-three pounds. They are well-formed and healthy. The mother is said to be a very fine woman, has been married about three years, and is but twenty-two years of age. Two weeks ago she weighed two hundred and nine pounds, and measured seventeen inches round the neek. She has dark eyes and hair, and is five feet eight inches high. This is her second experience in family progress. The former child is still living and is now fifteen months old. The father is a remarkably wellmade, quiet, sound, handsome man. They live effect the half dollar paid will be refunded. happy and love each other very much.
