

A PROCLAMATION, By Wm. W. Holden, Governor of N. Carolina

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, Raleigh, October 12th, 1868.

Information has been received at this department that military weapons, such as repeating rifles of various kinds, have been imported into this State, and have been distributed with ammunition and equipments to citizens in several localities. It is believed that boxes containing arms, ammunition and equipments, are concealed in divers places, ready to be distributed as opportunity may offer.

The object of the persons that engaged must be, either to subvert the government, to resist the constituted authorities, or to prevent a free election in this State on the third day of next month. The government of North Carolina has been lawfully and constitutionally established. This government has been freely and voluntarily formed by a majority of the citizens, in pursuance of acts constitutionally passed by the Congress, under which my immediate predecessor held office from the 24th of March, 1867, to the 1st day of July, 1868.

This government will be maintained for the following among other reasons: 1st. It has been lawfully and constitutionally established by the people of the State. It is operating smoothly and harmoniously. Under the people are quiet and peaceable, and are just entering anew on a career of prosperity. It must not be upset, or even assailed, because the colored people have been allowed to vote; or because a few public men are out of office and a few are in.

2d. Senators and Representatives have been admitted by the Congress to seats in that body. The State is, therefore, as well as the Union. It is as much of the Union as New York or any other State. No State can sever its relations with the common government. If Congress should, therefore, do what is exceedingly improbable, repeal the reconstruction acts, such repeal would have no more effect than a repeal of the act admitting Texas or Kansas to representation. The reconstruction acts have been executed, and are, therefore, beyond the reach of Congress.

3d. The Supreme Court has no jurisdiction of the subject. Its powers are expressly defined by the Constitution to be judicial and not political. It has already decided that the question of admission to representation is a political question, and that when determined by Congress, as it has been in relation to North Carolina, the Court will not interfere. 4th. The President would have no more power to declare the reconstruction acts null and void, with a view to the extinguishment of the government of this State, than I would have to declare that a certain County or Counties in this State should cease to exist.

The government of North Carolina is, therefore, as fully established by the people of this State, as it is the same control of the right of suffrage, and its own internal affairs, as of any other State; and it possesses equal power with the other States to protect and perpetuate itself. The right of the people to have arms in their houses, and to hunt and kill game, is a right which is not questioned. On the contrary, it is claimed as a constitutional right sacred to freemen. The use of arms by the male population, for peaceable and lawful purposes, should rather be encouraged than prohibited; but when, in time of peace, weapons of an extraordinary character are imported into the State by political organizations, and deposited and distributed in a secret manner among persons whose spokesmen deny the authority of the existing government, and who publicly declare that all government, to be authoritative, must be procured by force, and from one race of our people, a state of affairs is at once constituted which renders it the duty of every officer and every citizen to be more than usually vigilant. It can not be pretended that these arms are intended for hunting or sporting purposes. It can not be justly assumed that they are necessary for the protection of those who have them, since the whole power of the State and general governments is pledged to protect the peaceable and the law abiding, whoever and wherever they may be.

If it be the purpose of any portion of the people to resist the laws of the State, or to prevent the government from doing its duty, it is the duty of every citizen to be more than usually vigilant. It can not be pretended that these arms are intended for hunting or sporting purposes. It can not be justly assumed that they are necessary for the protection of those who have them, since the whole power of the State and general governments is pledged to protect the peaceable and the law abiding, whoever and wherever they may be.

The World.

Love built a stately house; where Fortune came; And spinning fancies she was heard to say, That her fine cobwebs did support the frame, Whereas they were supported by the same; But Wisdom quickly swept them all away.

Then Pleasure came, who, liking not the fashion, Began to make balconies, terraces, Till she had waken'd all by alteration; But reverend laws and many a proclamation Reformed all at length with menaces.

Then enter'd Sin, and with that Sycamore Whose leaves first sheltered man from drought and dew, Working and winding slyly evermore, The inward walls and summers cleft and tore; But Grace shored these, and cut that as it grew.

Then Sin combined with Death in a firm band, To raise the building to the very floor; Which they effected, none could them withstand, But Love and Grace took Glory by the hand, And built a braver palace than before.

WONDERFUL DISCOVERY!

Dr. Bryn's Magic Pain Cure. This is a new and wonderful Medicine. It is used for the various forms of Headache, which, in ordinary cases, it cures in a few minutes time; also, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Cold in the Head, and Weakness of the Nerves, is speedily brought under its influence. Ordinary or mild cases of Catarrh in the Head, can also be checked by its use, and prevented from going further, which is of great importance, and even cases of long standing can be cured by persevering in the use of the medicine. It is perfectly harmless, and is warranted to give satisfaction. People often express wonder and astonishment to find themselves so suddenly relieved from all pain; yet the remedy contains no Opium, no Chloroform, no Ether, nor any thing of a narcotic nature. It is prepared from roots, barks, leaves, gums and flowers, and is absolutely harmless, even for an infant. This remedy is a nerve, and is used as a liquid, and this is one reason why it cures so quickly. There are no diseases more common than those for which it is recommended. Millions of suffering mortals would be willing to pay almost any price to secure a few hours relief and rest, if they knew of a remedy that would give immediate ease. Then by all means be cured permanently by using the Magic Pain Cure. Price 50 cents. E. L. SHERRILL, P. M. at Sherrill's Ford, Catawba county, N.
