

The Journal.

CHARLOTTE:

SATURDAY, MARCH 30, 1833.

We are authorised to announce Col. EVAN ALEXANDER as a Candidate for the Office of County Clerk.

We are authorised to announce WILLIAM BOOTWICK, Esq. as a Candidate for the Office of Superior Court Clerk.

We are authorised to announce BRADY GATES, Esq. as a Candidate for the Office of County Court Clerk.

We are authorised to announce PEARBALL THOMPSON, Esq. as a Candidate for the Office of County Court Clerk.

We are authorised to announce Mr. JENNINGS B. KERR as a Candidate for the Office of County Court Clerk.

Messrs. Gales & Seaton will please accept our thanks for their politeness in forwarding to us a copy of Mr. Webster's speech in pamphlet form; also that of Mr. Clay, on the introduction of his bill to modify the Tariff.

SNOW STORM.—After enjoying for nearly three weeks Spring weather, we were visited on Thursday last, with a storm of rain, hail and snow, and it appears as if winter had just commenced.

IMPORTANT.—If true. We were shown yesterday a letter from Havana, which contained a Postscript of the 15th inst. stating that Rice had been sold that morning at 12 rials—that a small cargo just arrived from Savannah, was sold at 13—and adding that a report was current that WAR HAD BROKEN OUT BETWEEN FRANCE AND RUSSIA—the information stated to have been contained in a London paper of the 27th Jan. This is four days later from that city than our accounts by the Nimrod.

The Athens (Geo.) Banner states that a rupture took place at Fayetteville, in that State, on the 1st inst. between Col. FINDLAY STEWART and a Mr. LEONARD, formerly of South-Carolina, which resulted in the death of the latter.

Counterfeit Ten Dollar Bills. The U. S. Bank, are in circulation—they are signed GEO. NEWTON, President, and S. ROBERTS, Cashier, and are made payable at the Bank in Norfolk.

Counterfeit.—The public are cautioned against spurious bills which are now in circulation. A U. S. Bill of the denomination of $5 payable at the Bank or any of its branches, letter C. No. 6061, signed by W. Biddle, Pres. and Wm. McIlvaine, Cashier, dated June 2, 1828, tolerably well executed, was passed upon a merchant in King-Street.—Poulson's Ad.

Executive Clemency.—Jonathan Lewis, who was convicted at November Term, 1830, of the Circuit Court of the U. S. of carrying in his possession materials adapted to the making of Counterfeit Bank Notes, and sentenced therefor to five years confinement in the Jail of this city, has had the unexpired portion of his imprisonment remitted by the President of the U. States.

Negro Washington, was convicted at the Superior Court of Granville of the murder of Mr. Charles Daniel, and sentenced to be hung on Friday the fifth of April.

The Grand Jury of New Port R. I. have found a true bill against the Rev. Mr. Avery, for the murder of Miss Cornell. His trial is to take place on the first Monday in May next.

The Hon. J. Q. Adams is spoken of by some of the papers as a candidate for Governor of Massachusetts.

An act for the entire abolition of Lotteries after the 31st December next, has passed both branches of the Pennsylvania Legislature.

The Hon Lewis Williams, is again a candidate for the next Congress, in the district composed of the counties of Surry, Wilkes, Ashe and Iredell.

Death of Commodore Tucker.—The Northern Advertiser of Thursday, informs of the decease, on Sunday the 10th inst. of this old patriot, and veteran captain of the Revolution.

From the National Intelligencer. A New Question.—It has been the subject of much conversation, since the adjournment of Congress, whether Mr. CLAY'S LAND BILL be not in fact now the law of the land.

FROM THE NEW YORK COURIER AND ENQUIRER. But we learn from Washington that a question has been raised, which, in our opinion, is well taken, and, if so, then is the Land Bill the law of the country—the Executive's detention of it to the contrary notwithstanding.

Now, it is contended, that inasmuch as the constitutional term for which the late Congress was elected expired on the 3d of March, they did not "by their adjournment prevent its (the bill's) return."

PROCLAMATION.—EXTRA.

The following document is copied from the Norwich Republican.— TO ALL REAL AND TRUE AMERICANS!!! DON'T GIVE UP THE SHIP!

WASHINGTON, as by a Patriarchal influence, spoke of such CHARACTERS and TIMES! Hence be advised to consider any one, who would seek to divide the nation, as an ENEMY—and should be dealt with accordingly!

Norfolk, March 8.

Loss of the Packet Ship William Drayton.—The line Packet Ship William Drayton, Capt. Sutton, from New York, whence she sailed 21st February, with a valuable cargo on board, bound to Charleston, (S. C.) went ashore at New Inlet, Currituck county, (N. C.) at half past 11 o'clock on the night of the 24th following.

MILLEDGEVILLE, (Geo.) MARCH 7. Stage Accident and Loss of Life.—The Mail Stage in fording Walnut Creek, last Friday night, two or three miles from Macon, on the road from Clinton, was swept by the current from the rocky ford into deep water, where it capsized, and we lament to say, Mr. Charles W. Washington, of Macon, one of the passengers, being unable to swim, was drowned.

New Article of Trade.—A trader in this town advertises "Gentlemen's Bosoms." If he will sell Gentlemen's Hearts, the Ladies will patronise him—Perchance the bosoms are false—hearts certainly are, at least so say the women.—Lowel Compend.

Domestic Yeast.—Boil one pound of good flour, a quarter of a pound of brown sugar, and a little salt in two gallons of water, for one hour.

The Washington correspondent of the New-York Standard is somewhat merry, though not very witty, upon the subject of Mr. Webster's humble parentage.

We find the following extract circulating in the news-papers without credit to any one. We are ignorant, therefore, of the source of it. But no one who has ever read the Arabian Nights can fail to perceive at once the aptness and felicity of its illustration.

Another Munificent Donation.—We are informed by a gentleman who left Washington a few days since, that just before his departure, intelligence had been received at the office of the Colonization Society of a legacy of $10,000 from New Orleans.

An interesting Ship's Company.—The Providence Journal relates the following anecdote:—Some dozen or fourteen years ago, a brig arrived at Liverpool from Boston. The Captain went to the Custom House with his papers, to enter his vessel.

Nonchalance under a severe Accident.—Wednesday an accident of a serious nature occurred on board of one of the steam-boats, while under way about seven miles from the city.

WARNING TO LOVERS.—Lovers should be careful not to fall asleep when courting before a huge winter fire. Serious accidents sometimes happen in consequence.

ATTENTION! Artillery Company. YOU are hereby ordered to parade in Charlotte, at the usual parade ground, on Saturday, the 6th of April, at 10 o'clock.

Yet another.—The last Boston Advocate heads one of its columns with the effigy of a huge snail leisurely creeping along with a large lag strapped on his capacious back, with the title "U. States Mail" conspicuously printed thereon;

COMMUNICATIONS.

For the Miners' & Farmers' Journal. Mr. Editor: A few nights past, we had a sermon in the Presbyterian Church, on the subject of raising by charity, a fund to educate some indigent young men in some of the Northern States—this no doubt is a praiseworthy undertaking, provided this money be applied to the purpose spoken of.

A CITIZEN. FOR THE JOURNAL. A REVIEW. There is, perhaps, no offence chargeable to the present age more dire in its effects or more lamentable in its consequences than that gross and willful neglect which is paid to works of literature and learned composition.

My wife is sick, my wife is sick, My wife is sick in bed; You lie you dog, you lie you dog, There's whiskey in her head.

The origin of this beautiful production is involved in the darkest obscurity. Some attribute it to Butler, the great author of Hudibras; verse.—Others ascribe it to some versatile genius in the reign of the "bloody Queen Mary."

My wife is sick, my wife is sick, My wife is sick in bed; You lie you dog, you lie you dog, There's whiskey in her head.

My wife is sick in bed, the husband proceeds, without tedious digression, to describe the "locus in quo," or place where he found his charming spouse.

My wife is sick in bed, the husband proceeds, without tedious digression, to describe the "locus in quo," or place where he found his charming spouse.

thus delightfully administers relief to our benighted understandings. We have already transgressed our intended limits, and must ask the indulgence of the reader for the imperfect manner in which we have glanced at the merits of the poem.

DIED. In this county, on the 22d inst. Mrs. Barbara Carr, consort of Mr. Robert Carr, in the 82d year of her age.
