CHARLOTTE:

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1833.

Salisbury Convention.—This Convention assembled in Salisbury, according to previous notice, on the 17th inst. Gov. Swain presided, and Gen. Patterson, of Wilkes, and John W. Huske, of Fayetteville, acted as Secretaries. We learn that 14 counties were represented. The Convention passed Resolutions recommending to the Legislature the patronage of the State, to works of Internal Improvement. We shall publish the proceedings in our next.

Major Jack Downing.—This distinguished friend of "the Government," who has made himself popular by his humorous letters, has, as we learn from the Fayetteville Observer, paid a flying visit to Fayetteville. We shall insert his letter to the editor in our next.

We call the attention of the citizens of this county, friendly to Internal Improvement, to the following circular from some of the most respectable citizens of Wilmington, proposing to hold a meeting in that place on the 31st inst. to take into consideration the subject of Internal Improvement.

WILMINGTON, Oct. 5th 1833. It is proposed to hold a meeting of Citizens in the town of Wilmington, on Thursday the 31st instant, to take into consideration the subject of Internal Improvement. The citizens of the adjacent counties are invited to attend, collectively, or by Delegates, to participate with the inhabitants of Wilmington and New-Hanover in the proceedings of the meeting. It is believed that subjects of much general as well as local interest will be considered. It is proposed to examine the River thoroughly, and arrangements will be made for a Steam Boat excursion, which all strangers attending the meeting will be invited to join, and which, it is hoped, will afford both amusement and instruction.

The presence of our patriotic Governor, who is confidently expected to attend the meeting, will add to the interest of its proceedings, and to the pleasure of those whose public spirit may induce them to attend.

E. B. DUDLEY, ALEXANDER MACRAE, WM. B. MEARES, WM. F. HOYT, JOSEPH A. HILL.

Our river is now rapidly on the rise, and the quantity of rain that has fallen, authorizes the belief that the Steam Boats will be once more in operation in a day or two. This will be an agreeable event to those, in town and country, who have had goods long on the river.—Fayetteville Observer.

More bad effects.—We learn that the Directors of the State Bank at Raleigh have resolved, as a measure of self defence, not to make any further Discounts. Previous to the removal of the Deposites, this Bank had been making the best use of the brief remainder of its existence, by discounting very liberally.—Fayetteville Observer.

JONATHAN LEWIS, charged with having set fire to this City, in June last, was tried at Franklin Superior Court, last week, and acquitted. We understand that Judge MARTIN, in his charge to the Jury, seemed decidedly of opinion, that the Fire was the work of an incendiary, but that the evidence was not sufficient to connect the Prisoner with it.—Raleigh Register.

Robberies.—The Southern Stage was robbed on Saturday night last, a short distance this side of Columbia, by cutting the Trunks from behind. The property taken consisted chiefly of Jewelry, and amounted to about $3,000—nearly all of which has been recovered, and the robbers, (two negroes) arrested and lodged in jail. We understand that a search was making for a white man supposed to be concerned in the robbery.

A Trunk containing several thousand dollars worth of Gold in bars, with other valuable articles, was taken from the baggage rack of the Northern Stage, between this place and Cheraw, on Tuesday night last. No discovery has yet been made of the robber. A reward of fifty dollars is offered for the Trunk and its contents. Camden Journal.

At a Meeting of the Directors of the So. Carolina Bank held yesterday, the proposal of "the Government" that they should receive the public Deposits for this City, was considered, and unanimously rejected. We are informed, that on the condition required, it is not probable that any Bank in our City will take them.—Charleston Mercury.

Mr. Grundy has been re-elected Senator to Congress from Tennessee. He was elected on the 55th ballot, when the votes stood— for Grundy 33, Eaton 18, Foster 9. The 42d ballot stood, for Grundy 23, Foster 23, Eaton 14. Mr. Eaton then, to enable the two Houses to terminate the contest and make an election, addressed a letter to the Speaker of the Senate, withdrawing himself from further competition. Whereupon, Mr. John Bell was nominated, who, after a few ballottings, received as high as 23 votes, but then fell back, and the election on the 55th ballot resulted as above stated.—Nat. Int.

The following card of Mr. Duane, is marked by the same spirit of independence, which has ever so honorably distinguished his public and private acts. Few persons ever retired from an office, with so large a share of the public confidence and respect: Peteraburg Times.

A CARD. W. J. DUANE finding that his name is used by each of the contending parties at the present election, to promote their several purposes, without regard to facts or to his feelings, deems it a duty to himself to request the public not to give credit to any publications respecting his principles, views or sentiments, unless sanctioned by his own name. Recent occurrences at Washington have produced no change in his principles; nor can flattery on one side, or menaces on the other, divert him from the course that he has pursued from the first moment at which he was competent to think for himself. October 7th 1833.

Boonsville, (Missouri), Sept. 19. Gov. Stokes, of North-Carolina, one of the U. S. Commissioners to settle and adjust the boundaries of Indian lands South and North-west of Missouri, passed through this place on his way to Cantonment Leavenworth, on the frontier.—The object of his present visit, as he informed us, being to settle difficulties with a refractory portion of the Kickapoo tribe, who have refused to live upon the land allotted to their nation—and have crossed over on those of the Delawares.

Counterfeits.—We have just seen a counterfeit twenty dollar bill on the Bank of the State of Georgia. The paper is not so good as that of the genuine bill; the engraving is tolerably well done, but the signatures are bad imitations, particularly the names W. B. Bulloch and S. Hale. The name of Mr. Hale is spelt HEALE. The bill bears date at Savannah, 27th Oct. 1821—payable at the branch bank in Augusta to S. HEALE or bearer—letter K—No. 347.—Sparta Union.

Speculation.—It is stated in the Charleston Mercury, on "good authority," that previous to the announcement of the determination to remove the deposits, orders were received in that city from New-York, to buy up all the United States Bank Stock then in the market, as soon as it fell as low as from 165 to 107. Whether these orders came from the New-York Allies of the Kitchen Cabinet, or not, the deponent saith not.

We take great pleasure in informing our readers, that the neglect we noticed some days since, in the transmission of the newspaper bags between Petersburg and Fayetteville has been promptly noticed by the General Post Office Department, and a heavy fine imposed on the Contractor. This is as it should be.—Charleston Courier.

Balloon Ascension.—Mr. Durant, the Aeronaut, ascended in his balloon from Baltimore, on the 14th inst. The wind being light, he continued for 30 minutes in sight of the multitude assembled. He intended to cross the Chesapeake Bay, but finding that he had not time to reach a place of safety on the Eastern Shore before dark, he descended on board the Steam Boat Independence, which was then on her way from Baltimore to Frenchtown. Neither his balloon nor himself experienced the slightest injury, and to such perfection has he brought the art of navigating the air, that he descends at pleasure to such a distance from the earth as to converse with its inhabitants, and then rises again. The hazardous experiment of crossing the Bay, which is there several miles wide, was undertaken voluntarily.

Forty thousand bushels of wheat, direct from Archangel, Russia, have been received at the port of Quebec.

DIED. In this town, on the 22d inst. Mr. John Wyatt, aged 38, a native of England but a citizen of the United States. He was no sectarian, but his heart and hand was ever open to the call of his fellow beings. He was an honest man and that's the noblest work of God. Communicated.

In this county, on the 16th inst. Mr. John D. Caldwell, in the 44th year of his age. He was a steady, industrious man and a good citizen. Also, on the 20th inst. John Kerr, about 12 years of age, son of widow Mary Kerr.

Also, on the 21st inst. In Anderson Reilly, son of Mr. Wm. Reilly, in the 6th year of his age. Another Revolutionary Patriot gone.

Died, in this county, on the 19th inst. at his residence ten miles west of Charlotte, Mr. Alexander Porter, in the 94th year of his age. He was actively engaged during our Revolutionary Struggle, and was among those who met in Charlotte on the 20th May, 1775, to proclaim independence. He was long a useful and intelligent citizen, a kind and indulgent parent, and died, we believe, in full exercise of the Christian faith.—Communicated.

And yet Another. Died, at his residence in Mecklenburg county, on the 16th inst. Mr. Charles Findley, aged about 75 years. He was as kind a neighbor as ever lived; and an honest man—the noblest work of God.—Communicated.

OBITUARY. Died, after a short but severe illness, in Cabarrus county, on the 26th inst. John H. Alexander, Esq. in the 45th year of his age. Seldom has it fallen to our lot to record the death of one whom we so deeply deplore: a kind and affectionate friend, a useful citizen and devoted Christian. His worth was highly appreciated by all who knew him, and his loss will be long and deeply felt, and his memory fondly cherished by an extensive circle of friends and a pious community. The last moments exhibited a calmness and serenity of mind, none can experience but those who have made their peace with God and have based their hopes on the only sure foundation stone. But since our loss is his gain, we should endeavor to copy his example, that when we are called to quit these frail tenements of clay, and this mortal part shall put on immortality, we may, like him, be prepared to join the Assembly of the first-born whose names are written in Heaven.—Comm'd.

Dissolution of Copartnership. THE firm of Watson & Gillespie is dissolved by mutual consent, one of the said firm, R. Gillespie, having removed to the State of South Carolina, and it is convenient to call upon those that are indebted to us for settlement, hope therefore that it will not give offence to any one to find their accounts in the hands of some other person for settlement. The Books of said firm may be found in the hands of Doct. Sam'l B. Watson, who at all times may be found at his father's residence in Charlotte, (the house formerly occupied by Dr. M. Dougherty) who is fully authorized to settle the business of said firm. ROBERT WATSON, RICHARD GILLESPIE. Charlotte, Oct. 25d, 1833. 3w

The Farmers' & Planters' LARGE ALMANAC FOR 1834, For Sale at this Office, by the grocer.

Abolitionists.—We notice in the New York papers that the incendiary Garrison, with a few mad enthusiasts in that City, have commenced the agitation of the slave question in this Country; but we are glad to perceive with small prospects of success. This infamous fellow, it will be remembered, has lately figured in anti-slavery associations in London. At one of these, a Royal Duke, Sussex, gave the sanction of his presence, and the firebrand O'Connell entertained a large audience with his railings against this country, calling us a nation of Slave-stealers and Hypocrites. He was more than borne out, and equalled in the work of national defamation by this degenerate native of America. That his Royal Grace, the Duke of Sussex, should feel a strong sympathy for the negroes of our country—even more than he does for the whites—is not to be wondered at or much to be regretted; he feels that our institutions have taken much of the glitter from the trappings of Royalty, and he wish to prostrate them even by the spread of domestic dissension is so natural to that narrowness of soul, for which the name of Guelph has been distinguished in the Government of England, that we can overlook it. But for a man who has been great with the voice of approbation, whose name has been urged and sustained with as much as good words—for this man, O'Connell, to stigmatise our whole nation with the vilest slang, is grating to the very backbone of patriotic feeling.—He is a very proper instructor to the vile Garrison in the mysteries of agitation, and we doubt not that as sincere a disciple in the case of human liberty.

But to return to the feté at New York; it was a complete blow-up, to the hopes and expectations of the Abolitionists. When it became known that a meeting was intended at Clinton Hall, with the purpose of forming an Anti-Slavery Society, the people of that patriotic City, animated with devotion to the peace and security of our common country, repaired by thousands to the scene, to express their indignation at such a movement; finding here that the proprietors of this Hall had excluded the agitators, word was given to adjourn to Tammany Hall to express themselves on this subject; the crowd here collected was immense, and embraced more of the respectability of the City than any meeting thus large had ever been known to contain.—They here were addressed (after organizing the meeting,) by Messrs. Tallmadge and Neal, and resolutions denouncing the abominable cant and inverted sentimentalism of the Garrisonians were passed with unanimous bursts of acclamation. In the mean time, Garrison, Chapman, & Co. slunk off to an obscure chapel and in secret conclave to the number about 25, they resolved themselves into a Society—made a constitution and for the 10th time, told the world that all men are created free and equal. Abortive as this frantic effort has turned out, we may expect it to be seized upon by Southern agitators to rouse the common people against the North;—indeed, we believe that there are some disorganizers in the South, who would hail with delight the general dissemination of these sentiments, as nothing would be more likely to bring about that rupture of our union which they have so ardently desired.—Carolina Watchman.
