

POETRY.

NEW ENGLAND'S DEAD. "I shall enter upon no encomium upon Massachusetts—she needs none. There she is; behold her, and judge for yourselves. There is her history. The world knows it by heart. The past, at least, is secure. There is Boston, and Concord, and Lexington, and Bunker Hill; and there they will remain forever. The bones of her sons, falling in the great struggle for Independence, now lie mingled with the soil of every State, from New England to Georgia. And there they will remain forever."—Webster's Speech.

New-England's dead, New-England's dead! On every hill they lie; On every field of strife made red, By bloody victory! Each valley where the battle poured Its red and awful tide, Beheld the brave New-England sword With slaughter deeply dyed. Their bones are on the Northern hill, And on the southern plain, By brook and river, lake and rill, And by the roaring main!

The land is holy where they fought, And holy where they fell; For by their deeds, that land was bought, The land they loved so well! Then glory to that valiant band, The honored Saviours of the Land! Oh! few and weak their numbers were; A handful of brave men; But to their God they gave their prayer, And rushed to battle then. The God of Battles heard their cry And sent to them the victory.

They left the ploughshare in the mould, Their flocks and herds without a fold, The sickle in the unshorn grain, The corn, half-garnered on the plain, And mustered in their simple dress, For wrongs to seek a stern redress, To right those wrongs, come woe, come woe, To perish or overcome their foe.

And where are ye? O fearless men! And where are ye to-day? I call,—the hills reply again! That ye have passed away; That on old Bunker's lonely height, In Trenton, and in Monmouth ground, The grass grows green, the harvest bright, Above each soldier's mound!

The bugle's wild and warlike blast, Shall unster them no more; An army now might thunder past, And they heed not its roar. The starry flag, beneath which they fought, In many a bloody day, From their old graves shall rouse them not, For they have passed away.

PUBLIC AUCTION.

AS I do not contemplate pursuing the Mercantile Business any longer in this section of the country, and wish to have my business closed, I am necessarily induced to offer at Public Auction, the whole of my

CIRCULAR.

New Establishment. CHARLESTON, S. C. 41-CAROLINA, September 1st, 1833.

THE Subscribers beg leave to inform their friends and the public, that they have entered into Copartnership, under the firm of Macnamara, Phelan & Co. And will open a Mercantile Establishment in CHERAW, S. C. on the 1st of October next.

OUR STOCK will comprise all the leading articles, necessary for the country, which we will sell at the lowest prices, and our purchases will extend to all descriptions of country produce, for which we will pay the highest prices. Mr. JOHN MAGRATH, for many years largely established as a Factor & Commission Merchant, in Charleston, has started his steamboat LIBERTY, on the Pee Dee, between Charleston and Cheraw, to which we will act as Agents, which will give us advantages and facilities, that few possess. It will enable us to pay the highest prices for produce, and also to keep constantly on hand a full supply of every article necessary for the country, and to sell at very reduced rates. The necessary funds for the purpose of advances, will be held ready, to anticipate the wishes of such as may please to entrust their business to our care; and should the Planter or Merchant desire to try the Charleston market in preference to Cheraw, we will forward their produce the first opportunity that offers, by the Steam Boat, to Mr. John Magrath, by whom every exertion will be made to effect prompt and advantageous sales.

MACNAMARA, PHELAN & CO. N. B. We have extensive Warehouses in Cheraw, where Produce, consigned to our care, will be stored and forwarded to Charleston, agreeable to order. Also, Goods for Merchants and others, will be received and forwarded as directed, by the first opportunity that offers.

4160 M. P. & Co.

Baltimore Type Foundry.

THE Proprietors of the Baltimore Type Foundry respectfully inform the printers in the United States, that they are now prepared to furnish them with a variety of letters suited to book, news and job work, at prices the same as they can be obtained at from other foundries—consisting principally of the following sizes, viz:

- Nonpareil, Minion, Brevier, Bourgeois, Long Primer, Small Pica, Pica, English, Nonpareil, Brevier, Bourgeois, Long Primer, Pica, Four Lines Pica, Six Lines Pica, ornamented, Eight Lines Pica, Antique, Eight Lines Pica, Finted, Eight Lines Pica, Oak Leaf, Eight Lines Pica, ornamented, &c. Together with leads, brass rule, dashes, plain and ornamented; a great variety of flowers and cuts, suitable for books, newspapers and handbills, card borders, &c. &c. Orders for any of the above, as also for presses, cases, galleys, ink, varnish, or any thing required in the completion of an office, will be executed on terms favorable as at any other establishment of a similar kind in the United States. Old Type will be taken in exchange at 9 cents per pound, delivered at the Foundry. Mr. Edwin Starr, who has long been engaged in carrying on the business, is superintending the Baltimore Foundry, and from his well known experience, will be enabled to attend to the orders of Printers in such a manner, for promptness and accuracy, as to ensure satisfaction. F. LUCAS, Jr. Agent of the Baltimore Type Foundry.

PRINTERS of Newspapers who will publish this advertisement to the amount of two dollars, and forward a paper containing it to the Agent, will be allowed that sum in part payment for any bill they make with the Foundry for type, to the amount of 10 dollars. August 14th, 1833.

25 DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the Subscriber, on the 25th of December last, my Negro Boy JEFF, about 35 years of age, stout built, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and has a scar on his forehead over one of his eyes, caused from the kick of a horse. When spoken to has a pleasing countenance and something of a down look; his wearing apparel not recollected, and if it were his friend John Underwood has got him others, as suspicion rests very strong against him for harboring the said Boy. A further reward of TWENTY DOLLARS will be given for said Boy and proof sufficient to convict any white person of harboring him. From information, I am led to believe that he has been at work at different Gold Mines through the lower end of Mecklenburg County, N. C. with this said John Underwood in an underhanded way, such as carrying off the Ore after night and washing it when best suits their convenience from being detected. John Underwood, at this time, is absent from his family, and it may be that he has got in with the Boy to go off with him. The said Underwood is about 30 years of age, dark complexioned, black hair and eyes, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, possesses a mean look and is a shoemaker by trade, is fond of spirits and lying in negro kitchens. The above reward will be given for the Boy if brought to me, or lodged in any Jail so that I can get him. JEREMIAH CURETON, Sen. Cureton's Store, Lancaster Dis. S. C. September 9th, 1833. 1f—1m

NEW BOOK STORE.

THE Subscriber having no prospect of being again able to perform the labors of the ministry; and feeling, in common with other men, the importance of engaging in some employment which will enable him to provide for the wants of a rising family, has opened a Book Store in Charlotte, N. C. He believes, that such an establishment was needed in the Western section of our State. He respectfully invites his friends, acquaintances, and all who feel any interest in his undertaking, to call and see his Books. He will be happy to execute orders for those who live at a distance.

Whilst he has on hand some valuable works in Law, in Medicine, most of the Greek and Latin Classics, and other books used in our Schools and Academies, many works in Theology, and many Miscellaneous books suited to almost every class of readers, he will be able to procure on favorable terms, any books to be found in the Northern Cities, or in the London Market. It will give him pleasure to assist professional gentlemen or private citizens in enlarging their Libraries, or in purchasing new ones. He looks with confidence and respect to an enlightened community for encouragement. DANIEL GOULD, Charlotte, May 23, 1833. 39t

P. S. I have contracted with the Secretary of the A. T. S. for an Edition of the Christian Almanac for North-Carolina, for 1834. It will contain 12 pages more of useful matter than hitherto and be sold at the same price. It will be published in July, and may be had by the dozen or hundred, of John F. Haven, No. 142 Nassau street, N. Y. of Hughes & Turner, Raleigh, and at the Charlotte Book Store.

STATE OF NORTH-CAROLINA, MECKLENBURG COUNTY. Court of Equity, May Term, 1833. Mary Parks and others vs. Andrew B. Parks, Wm. N. Parks, John M. Parks, Alex. M. Larty and his wife Eliza.

IT appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that John M. Parks, Alexander M. Larty and his wife Eliza do not reside within the limits of this State, It is therefore Ordered, that publication be made six weeks in the Miners' & Farmers' Journal, for them to appear and answer at our next Court of Equity to be held for the county of Mecklenburg, at the Court-House in Charlotte, on the 7th Monday after the 4th Monday in September next, otherwise the bill will be taken pro confesso and be heard ex parte as to them. Test: D. R. DUNLAP, c. c. c. E. Price adv. 92

A New Assortment of WATCHES, JEWELRY, &c.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his customers and the public generally, that he has lately received the following articles, viz:

- Gold and Silver Levers, Lepine & Plain Watches, assorted, Gentlemen's Gold Chains, Seals and Keys, Ear and Finger Rings, Breast Pins and shirt Studs, which, together with his former Stock, makes his present assortment nearly complete, all of which will be sold at a very small advance for cash, or on short time, to punctual customers.

He still continues to manufacture SILVER SPOONS and other articles of Gold and Silver; also, to repair Clocks and Watches, and he would here inform the public, that his is the only shop in town where such articles are repaired.

He will also FLEX GOLD in any quantity, at the shortest notice. GILDING and ENGRAVING, also, done to order. THOMAS TROTTER, Charlotte, May, 1833. 37t

Information Wanted.

SOME few months since, left his lodgings in Washington City, since when he has not been heard from) a gentleman by the name of Sidney Smith—he is of small stature, say about five feet six inches in height, spare made, dark complexion, about twenty-five years of age, and wore away a dark must coat and pantaloons. At the time of leaving, he was under a partial aberration of mind. Any information which may be given will be thankfully received, and the informer will be suitably rewarded. Charleston and Cheraw. THE STEAM BOAT MACON.

Capt. J. C. Grabam, having been engaged the last season in the trade running between Charleston and Cheraw, calling at Georgetown on her way up and down, will resume her trips in the course of a few days, and is intended to be continued in the trade the ensuing season. The exceeding light draft of water, drawing only four and a half feet when loaded, will enable her to reach Cheraw at all times, except upon an uncommon low river when her cargo will be lightened at the expense of the Boat.

Comfortable accommodations for a few passengers, with all due attention. J. B. CLOUGH, Charleston, Sept. 26, 1831. 56t

PROSPECTUS OF A novel and interesting Weekly Publication to be commenced on Saturday the 6th of July, TO BE ENTITLED The Spy in Philadelphia, AND SPIRIT OF THE AGE.

IT is very philosophically observed by Addison, that our greatest pride arises from doing good to each other, or, in other words, from being individually serviceable to a society. This can be best effected by a proper application of our intelligencies, among them out according to the necessities of the community, and less lamenting the defects of public virtue than checking the progress of vice: for vice retarded is virtue advanced. As the direction and decrease of measures of national and state policy are the business of the daily press, the full application of Addison's remark is necessarily neglected, and the consequence is, that those shielded by wealth and worldly influence are abroad among the people, not only unsuspected, but courted and required; that a publication is necessary which will not only detect, but exhibit these vices in sheep's clothing to public scorn; a matter which others will be warned from their content and service be rendered to society. In effecting this object we shall pursue a yet untrodden path; one where the necessary truth shall be mingled (not concealed) with contrasting flowers. The manner of the "Spy in Philadelphia" shall be perfectly delicate, and unaccompanied by cant or vagueness; its censure shall be judicious, its satire chaste. Literature and the arts shall find in it an untired friend: Dramatic and Literary criticisms shall meet with most attentive and impartial duty, and sketches of the Bar and Pulpit of Philadelphia shall occasionally appear from the pen of competent judges, uninfluenced by personal acquaintance or professional attachment. To these recommendations, our Poetical column will add another, which, coming from an equally popular source, will, we trust, be equal to that of more pretending publications. It is unnecessary to be more explicit, as we presume the want of the proposed journal is not only admitted, but generally felt. We therefore place ourselves before the PEOPLE and relying upon their sense of justice and of public virtue, await their decision respectfully but confidently.

CONDITIONS. The first number of "THE SPY IN PHILADELPHIA" will be issued on the first Saturday in July. It will be printed on the white paper, in eight quarto pages, and with good type. As it is intended to render its contents worthy of preservation, for its instructive or instructive reference, the advantage of the proposed and more portable size will be evident. The terms are $2 per annum, payable in advance, or $2 50 if not paid before the expiration of six months. Agents will be allowed a discount of 10 per cent on all subscribers they shall obtain, on the remitting one year's payment in advance, and becoming responsible for the same, and a gratuitous copy of the paper.

"THE SPY IN PHILADELPHIA" will contain humorous engravings after the manner of the celebrated Cruikshank. They will be executed by skilful artists and be accompanied with comic illustrations in prose and verse from the pens of original and competent writers.

All orders must be addressed, post paid, to WILLIAM HILL & CO. No. 1 Athol Building, Philadelphia. Care will be taken to have the work carefully packed when sent out of the city.
