

The Journal.

CHARLOTTE:

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1853.

Georgia Election.—The Augusta N. A. Gazette of Thursday last, says:—“We learn verbally from Milledgeville, that returns from all the counties received at the Executive Department, give Gov. Lumpkin a majority of 2500 votes.”

New Jersey.—The late Elections in New Jersey resulted in favor of the Jackson party.

There can be little doubt, from what we learn, (says the Richmond Compiler,) that Councillor Peter V. Daniel of this City has been offered the place of Attorney General of the United States; and still less, we imagine, that he will accept of the tender.

The General Assembly of Tennessee have passed a resolution unanimously, instructing their Senators and requesting their Representatives in Congress to vote against the re-charter of the United States Bank.

Mrs. Hannah More died on the 7th, at her residence in Windsor Terrace, Clifton, England, in the 80th year of her age. Few persons have enjoyed a higher degree of public esteem and veneration than this excellent and distinguished lady.

The following was among the regular toasts at the celebration of St. George's day in Quebec:

“England and the United States of America—may the Atlantic which rolls between them always be a Pacific Ocean.”

Two Jurors were fined last week by Judge Settle for going to sleep while on duty. Justice though blindfolded, must never nod.

Fail, Dividend.—The Manufacturers' Insurance Company of Boston, have declared a dividend of ten per cent. for the last six months.

Great Methodist Meeting.—A Methodist conference was held at Manchester, (Eng.) which terminated on the 12th of August. The number of preachers present was 430. It was stated that there had been an increase of members in Great Britain amounting to 27,389, exclusive of the returns from America, where the increase amounted to 40,000.

Nullification of the Civil Authority.—The U. S. troops some weeks ago killed a Col. Owens, who resided among the Indians within the limits of Alabama, because he resisted an attempt to drive him out of the Indian territory. This has created great excitement in Alabama, and apprehensions are entertained of a collision between the troops and the citizens of the State. It will be seen by the following, that the governor of the State has been applied to for a force to arrest the commanding officer, Major McIntosh.—Fayetteville Observer.

FROM THE COLLEGE (GEORGIA) DEMOCRAT. The Superior court for Russell county, Ala. has been during most of the week employed in investigating the murder of Owens. Judge Harris Presiding. The Solicitor General Col. Picket has been employed in ferreting out the testimony which was exceedingly difficult to come at, as it appears no person were immediately present, but the detachment of troops who were concerned in the murder; we learn that the Solicitor addressed a letter to the commander of the Fort, Maj. McIntosh, stating the difficulty, and requesting a surrender of the file of soldiers who were present at the killing of Owens to the sheriff of Russell county, in order that an investigation might be had, at the same time forwarding the Globe of 24th Aug. which contained an article stating, that the commander of the Fort had instructions to aid the State in the investigation. To this request, the commander replied that he had received no such instructions and that he would not comply and that the soldier who shot Owens did it in the execution of his lawful duty. Process was then issued for certain soldiers and suspected persons in the Fort, without success, the Maj. informing the Sheriff upon a demand being made that he would not give up a man; an attachment was then issued against the Major for a contempt of the Court, which was also disobeyed, the Sheriff returning that he could not take the Major without danger of his life.

It appears also that a subpoena was issued for Lieut. Manning and served, but he also refused to obey it; we learn under this state of things and upon the affidavit of the Sheriff that the force of the county was inadequate to serve process on persons in the Fort; that the presiding Judge despatched a messenger to the Governor of that State calling on him for aid.

We have also learned that true bills for murder have been found against divers soldiers at the Fort, and also against other individuals who were concerned in the transaction.

It now remains to be seen whether the military authority is to control the civil. Here is a band of United States' soldiers within the boarder of the State who hold themselves above the laws of the country, and set the laws and the Officers at defiance. Will Alabama submit to this?

The rumored appointment of Mr. Daniel, of Richmond, as Attorney General, turns out to be true. The following is from the Official paper:

APPOINTMENT BY THE PRESIDENT. Peter V. Daniel, of Richmond, Virginia, to be Attorney General of the United States, in the place of Roger B. Taney, resigned.

The Convention Question.—The following resolutions were introduced by Col. Isaac Croom, at a late meeting of the citizens of Lenoir County, by which they were adopted. This county has always opposed a Convention, and we therefore record these resolutions as an evidence of a unanimous change of opinion to the detriment of their own political interests.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting it is expedient and just, that the ensuing Legislature recommend a Convention to the People of North Carolina, for the purpose of making the specific amendments to our State Constitution proposed by our Western brethren.

Resolved, That our Representatives be instructed to lend their aid and concurrence in the adoption of any measure, securing these objects, with the express proviso however, that the Convention be strictly confined to the proposed amendments.

Fayetteville Observer.

Mr. Gaston of North Carolina, yielding to the solicitation of his friends, has consented that his name be presented to the Legislature of that State as a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Chief Justice Henderson. There is not in the whole South, a man better qualified to fill any station, than Wm. Gaston. Whether looked upon as a polished scholar, a most high minded and honourable gentleman, or as a statesman of the very highest order of talent, North Carolina has great right to be proud of him.—N. Y. Courier & Enquirer.

“Who reads an American Book?”—Dwight's System of Theology has passed through thirty editions in England. Here we unfortunately depreciate the works of our own citizens to aggrandize those of foreigners: in England, no work is held in greater esteem than Dwight's System—in lexicography, no work is more esteemed than Webster's—and in mathematics, none is so approved as Bawditch's Laplace.

Cooker's new novel, The Headsman, has been published in London now about two months. He has got about 1,000 guineas from his publishers there; and about 85,000 from his publishers in this city; and indeed, for most of his late works, he has received the same amount. Our authors have a manifest advantage in their privilege to secure copyrights in England.—N. Y. paper.

A gentleman having given a quantity of peaches to some Irish laborers on a rail road in the vicinity of Boston, one of them was asked how he liked them, he said, the fruit was very good, but the seeds scratched his throat a little as he swallowed them.

MARRIED. In Rowan County, on the 17th ult. by the Rev. Philip Pearson, Mr. Alexander Springs, formerly of Mecklenburg county, to Miss Eiza, daughter of John March, Esp. of Rowan.

DIED. In this county, on the 31st ult. Mr. James I. A. Sample, son of Mr. Joseph R. Sample, in the 19th year of his age. Also, on the 1st inst. Mrs. Dorcas Alexander, wife of Mr. Elias Alexander.

COACH MAKING ESTABLISHMENT FOR SALE.

The time of our partnership having expired, and in order to close our business, (as one of the parties intends leaving the section of country) on the 26th day December next, we will sell to the highest bidder, the Establishment where we are now carrying on the Coach Making Business. There is two lots, front and back, both improved. The front lot has on it a large Dwelling House, Wood Shop and Smith Shop and other necessary out-buildings. The back lot has a Dwelling House and other out-buildings suitable for a private family. The lots will be sold together or separately, to suit purchasers.

Also, 2 lots opposite Mr. Long's. The front has on it a new Dwelling House, and is well calculated for a private family.

Three sets of Blacksmith Tools and all the Tools attached to the Wood Shop, a quantity of ready made work and all the unfinished work we have on hand, Household and Kitchen Furniture and a great many other things too tedious to mention. The above property will be sold on very accommodating terms. The terms will be made known on the day of sale.

Any person wishing to engage in the above business will please call and examine our establishment, as we will sell privately if we can meet with a purchaser.

Notice to the Public.

WHEREAS, through my mistake, I gave to William Luckey, a Note of hand for the sum of about ten dollars, the date not recollected, Thomas Shelby witness to said note, which Note William Luckey fraudulently obtained. I hereby forewarn every and all persons from purchasing or trading for said Note, as I am determined never to pay any part of it.

W. M. TAYLOR ALEXANDER. Oct. 31, 1853. 62th

Mr. Editor.—The following extract is made from an excellent little work entitled the “Cold-water Man.” You will subserve the cause which it advocates by giving it an insertion in your useful Journal. W. J.

TO PROFESSORS OF RELIGION.

Every person both by precept and example, favors entire abstinence from the ordinary use of ardent spirits, or he countenances drunkenness.—Professors of Religion which cause do you promote, that of entire abstinence or that of drunkenness? Neutral you cannot be. Are you a cold-water man, or do you drink a little? When you came out from the world and were received into the Church of Christ, you declared your willingness to be “prepared unto every good work.” Here is a good work; a work which hides a multitude of sins, and prevents multitudes more. Are you prepared to engage in promoting it; or are you ready to say, that you have become “weary in well-doing?” If you are not weary of doing good, why hesitate to give your name in order to promote the cause of temperance which you know to be good?

If you are distilling or vending the article, you know you are manufacturing drunkards, and are therefore living habitually in the commission of a known, willful, atrocious sin. Who can believe that the man who knowingly destroys his neighbor's soul, is a true Christian? Give up your soul-killing trade, or give up your profession of that religion which requires you to “do good to all.” You cannot now plead ignorance on this subject. You know that all you make and sell injures the consumer. You know that you seldom or never furnish it for medicine. As you value the cause of Christ, relinquish this notorious business in which you are engaged, or relinquish your profession of religion. Do not wrap the cloak of religion round a heart which is so attached to “filthy lucre,” that for its sake it would suffer you to destroy an immortal soul in hell. A religion that will suffer its professor to act thus habitually with his eyes open, cannot be christianity. If you are yet ignorant on this subject, you have closed the eyes of your understanding against the light of truth which, in its meridian splendor, has been shining around you. Doing this cannot justify you. But you are not ignorant of the evil. This is impossible. A sight of the drunkard has told you, in language which you cannot misunderstand, that the business of distilling or vending ardent spirits is destroying your fellow-creatures for time and eternity. Others are doing it. Every man who distills, or sells, or drinks ardent spirits is doing it. All such persons know they are doing this. They all encourage each other in their vicious practice, that of dealing in or using distilled liquor. They all encourage the drunkard to drink. They will sell, for his money, give him the poison, at least when he is sober.

Professor of Religion, will you knowingly and deliberately destroy, for this world and the world to come, your fellow man, and yet pretend that you love him? O, let conscience answer. Will you throw your neighbor into hell for a shilling, and then say you love him? What shameful depravity! How can the professed follower of the Lord Jesus Christ, batten his heart against the tears of the mother, and the cries of the worse than orphaned children, while he turns the husband and father into a demon; and to pay him for doing so, often takes the last morsel of bread from their table and leaves them to beg or starve? Will you again repeat this crime by making your neighbor drunk? Will you sell him what you know will injure him? Will you by drinking, encourage the degrading vice of drunkenness? Will you not join a temperance society and thus do all in your power to discountenance the ordinary use of intoxicating liquors? If you will not forsake this abominable traffic, if you will not lay aside the drunkard's cup, how can you believe that yours is the spirit of Christ? For the sake of that religion which you profess, do be entreated, to forsake your injurious business, and the pernicious custom of moderate drinking.
