

POETRY.

From the Utica Observer. THE UNNATURAL MOTHER. BY R. BARKER. It is related among the horrors of the retreat from Moscow, that a mother abandoned her child only five years old, in spite of its tears and entreaties.

An infant's cry—an infant's prayer, Mingling with deep distress, Rose on the quiet evening air, In all its helplessness.

His little arms extended wide— His lips in suppliant prayer: Looked to the mother at his side, And sought its safety there;

Twice from its mother's arms 'twas cast; Unheeded was its cry; The cruel parent onward past, And left her child to die.

Her heart was like a flinty stone, It felt no grief or joy; She had no love, no feeling—none For her deserted boy.

Fear not, a voice exclaims on high, Above the snow white will; "I who have heard the mourner's cry, Will now protect this child;

The crueller that beheld the scene, And saw the infant's tears, Abandoned her who should have been Protector of its years.

Boyd's Line of Post Coaches.

Running twice a week and back, between Charlotte, N. C. and Camden, S. C. THE Proprietor of this line informs the public, that he has lately furnished himself with new coaches, and he hopes that he will now be enabled to render satisfaction to those who may travel on his line.

The mail leaves Charlotte every Sunday and Wednesday mornings and returns every Monday and Thursday evenings. Persons wishing to make an expedition to New-York, are informed that by Charleston the shortest passage can be made, a steam boat starting for New York every other Saturday—the passage being performed in 7 days. This line intersects with the Charleston line at Camden. THO. BOYD, Charlotte, Aug. 20, 1833.

Baltimore Type Foundry.

THE Proprietors of the Baltimore Type Foundry, dry respectfully inform the printers in the United States, that they are now prepared to furnish them with a variety of letters set to book, news and job work, at prices the same as they can be obtained at from other foundries—consisting principally of the following sizes, viz:

- Nonpareil, Minion, Brevier, Bourgeois, Long Primer, Small Pica, Pica, English, Nonpareil, Brevier, Bourgeois, Long Primer, Pica, Four Lines Pica, Six Lines Pica, ornamented, Eight Lines Pica, Antique, Eight Lines Pica, Fluted, Eight Lines Pica, Oak Leaf, Eight Lines Pica, ornamented, &c.

Together with leads, brass rule, dashes, plain and ornamented; a great variety of flowers and cuts, suitable for books, newspapers and handbills, card borders, &c. &c. Orders for any of the above, as also for presses, cases, galleys, ink, varnish, or any thing required in the completion of an office, will be executed on terms favorable as at any other establishment of a similar kind in the United States.

Old Type will be taken in exchange at 3 cents per pound, delivered at the Foundry. Mr. Edwin Starr, who has long been engaged in carrying on the business, is superintending the Baltimore Foundry, and from his well known experience, will be enabled to attend to the orders of Printers in such a manner, for promptness and accuracy, as to ensure satisfaction. F. LUCAS, Jr., Agent of the Baltimore Type Foundry.

Printers of Newspapers who will publish this advertisement to the amount of two dollars, and forward a paper containing it to the Agent, will be allowed that sum in part payment for any bill they make with the Foundry for type, to the amount of 10 dollars. August 14th, 1833.

25 DOLLARS REWARD.

REWARD from the Subscriber, on the 26th of December last, my Negro Boy JEFF, about 35 years of age, stout built, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and has a scar on his forehead over one of his eyes, caused from the kick of a horse. When spoken to has a pleasing countenance and something of a down look; his wearing apparel not recollected, and if it were his friend John Underwood has got him others, a suspicion rests very strong against him for harboring the said Boy. A further reward of TWENTY DOLLARS will be given for said Boy and proof sufficient to convict any white person of harboring him.

From information, I am led to believe that he has been at work at different Gold Mines through the lower end of Mecklenburg County, N. C. with this said John Underwood in an underhanded way, such as carrying off the Ore after night and washing it when best suits their convenience from being detected. John Underwood, at this time, is absent from his family, and it may be that he has got in with the Boy to go off with him. The said Underwood is about 30 years of age, dark complexioned, black hair and eyes, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, possesses a mean look and is a shoemaker by trade, is fond of spirits and lying in negro kitchens. The above reward will be given for the Boy if brought to me, or lodged in any Jail so that I can get him. JEREMIAH CURETON, Sen. Curran's Store, Lancaster, Dia. S. C. September 9th, 1833. 16-3m

PLANTATION FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale his plantation on which he now resides, lying on the head waters of Steel Creek, containing 185 acres.—There is on the premises a good Dwelling House and other out-houses; also, a Good Orchard. SAM'L. NEELY. 61-3w Oct. 23, 1833.

Dr. D. R. Dunlap OFFERS his services to the Public, in the different branches of his Profession, but especially in Midwifery. Necessity seems to require it. His charges will be moderate; and so proportioned, that while the rich are attended, the poor shall not be neglected. September, 1833. 863

Notice to Sheriffs. THE Sheriffs of those Counties where a vote was taken at the August Elections for and against a change of the Constitution, will please make returns of the votes to his Excellency the Governor, at Raleigh; and in order to provide against the contingency of a miscarriage in the Mail, they will oblige me by sending the same to me also; at Salisbury, N. C. On behalf of the Meeting held at Raleigh, THOMAS G. POLK, Chairman. Sept. 2, 1833.

NEW BOOK STORE.

THE Subscriber having no prospect of being again able to perform the labors of the ministry; and feeling, in common with other men, the importance of engaging in some employment which will enable him to provide for the wants of a rising family, has opened a Book Store in Charlotte, N. C. He believes, that such an establishment was needed in the Western section of our State. He respectfully invites his friends, acquaintances, and all who feel any interest in his undertaking, to call and see his Books. He will be happy to execute orders for those who live at a distance.

While he has on hand some valuable works in Law, in Medicine, most of the Greek and Latin Classics, and other books used in our Schools and Academies, many works in Theology, and many Miscellaneous books suited to almost every class of readers, he will be able to procure on favorable terms, any books to be found in the Northern Cities, or in the London Market. It will give him pleasure to assist professional gentlemen or private citizens in enlarging their Libraries, or in purchasing new ones. He looks with confidence and respect to an enlightened community for encouragement. DANIEL GOULD, 39th Charlotte, May 23, 1833.

P. S. I have contracted with the Secretary of the A. T. S. for an Edition of the Christian Almanac for North-Carolina, for 1834. Charleston and Cheraw. THE STEAM BOAT MACON.

Capt. J. C. Graham, having been engaged the last summer in the trade running between Charleston and Cheraw, calling at Georgetown on her way up and down, will resume her trips in the course of a few days, and is intended to be continued in the trade the ensuing season. The exceeding light draft of water, drawing only four and a half feet when loaded, will enable her to reach Cheraw at all times, except upon an uncommon low river, when her cargo will be lightened at the expense of the Boat. Comfortable accommodations for a few passengers, with all due attention. J. B. CLOUGH, Charleston, Sept. 26, 1831. 56th

PROSPECTUS OF A NOVEL AND INTERESTING WEEKLY PUBLICATION, TO BE COMMENCED ON SATURDAY THE 6TH OF JULY, TO BE ENTITLED THE SPY IN PHILADELPHIA, AND SPIRIT OF THE AGE.

IT is very philosophically observed by Addison, that our greatest pride arises from doing good to each other, or, in other words, from being individually serviceable to society. This can be best effected by a proper application of our intelligences, meeting them out according to the necessities of the community, and less lamenting the decline of public virtue than checking the progress of vice: for vice retarded is virtue advanced. As the direction and discussion of measures of national and state polity are the business of the daily press, the full application of Addison's remark is necessarily neglected, and the consequence is, that vice shielded by wealth and worldly influence, are abroad among the people, not only unsuspected, but courted and required; and that a publication is necessary which will not only detect, but exhibit these wolves in sheep's clothing to public scorn; a mark by which others will be warned from their intent and service be rendered to society. In effecting this object we shall pursue a yet untrdden path; one where the necessary thorn shall be mingled (not concealed) with contrasting flowers. The manner of the "Spy in Philadelphia" shall be perfectly delicate, and uncontaminated by cant or vulgarity; its censure shall be judicious, its satire chaste. Literature and the arts shall find in it an untired friend: Dramatic and Literary criticisms shall meet with most attentive and impartial duty, and sketches of the Bar and Pulpit of Philadelphia shall occasionally appear from the pen of competent judges, uninfluenced by personal acquaintance or professional attachment. To these recommendations, our Poetical column will add another, which, coming from an already popular source, will, we trust, be equal to that of more pretending publications. It is unnecessary to be more explicit, as we presume the want of the proposed journal is not only admitted, but generally felt.—We therefore place ourselves before the PEOPLE and relying upon their love of justice and of public virtue, await their decision respectfully but confidently.

CONDITIONS. The first number of "THE SPY IN PHILADELPHIA" will be issued on the first Saturday in July. It will be printed on fine white paper, in eight quarto pages, and with good type. As it is intended to render the contents worthy of preservation, for amusing or instructive reference, the advantage of the proposed and more portable size will be evident. The terms are $2 per annum, payable in advance, or $2 50 if not paid before the expiration of six months. Agents will be allowed a discount of 10 per cent., on all subscribers they shall obtain, on remitting one year's payment in advance, or becoming responsible for the same, and a gratuitous copy of the paper. "THE SPY IN PHILADELPHIA" will contain humorous engravings after the manner of the celebrated Cruikshank. They will be executed by skillful artists and be accompanied with comic illustrations in prose or verse from the pens of original and competent writers.

All orders must be addressed, post paid, to WILLIAM HILL & CO. No. 1 Athenian Building, Philadelphia. Care will be taken to have the work carefully packed when sent out of the city. Subscriptions received at this Office.
