

POETRY.

From the Utica Observer.
RELIGION IN ALL THINGS.
BY B. PARKER.

'Tis written on the arch'd sky,
It rides on ev'ry star;
'Tis sailing on the clouds on high,
And on the winds afar.

'Tis seen upon the wave and shore,
The valleys of the earth;
Where nature's thousand voices pour,
There heaven gave it birth.

'Tis merr'd on the glassy sea,
Where living waters play;
Shining in pure serenity—
In glories full array.

'Tis where the sun majestic springs—
Upon a world below;
It rides upon the cloud's white wings,
And where the waters flow.

'Tis seen in ev'ry flow'rs form,
It breathes in ev'ry sound;
'Tis heard amid the raging storm,
And dwells in all around.

'Tis on the mountain's azure peak—
'Tis on the boundless main;
In wintry storms when dark and bleak,
And in the summer rain.

'Tis on the virgin blush of day,
Where golden treasure's glow;
'Tis in the songster's gladsome lay,
Where gratitude doth flow.

We trace it in the fragrant flow'rs,
Sweet as the breathing spring;
We feel it in the balmy show'rs,
Where zephyrs shake their wing.

'Tis written on the christian's heart,
To all its purity;
Where superstition claims no part,
And free from bigotry.

It comes not wrapt in gloom or fear,
But with an angel's smile;
When none but God himself is near,
To cleanse the heart from guile.

25 DOLLARS REWARD.
RANAWAY from the Subscriber, on the 26th of December last, my Negro Boy
JEFF,
about 35 years of age, stout built, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and has a scar on his forehead over one of his eyes, caused from the kick of a horse. When spoken to has a pleasing countenance and something of a down look in his wearing apparel not recollected, and if it were his friend John Underwood has got him others, as suspicion rests very strong against him for harboring the said Boy.
A further reward of TWENTY DOLLARS will be given for said Boy and proof sufficient to convict any white person of harboring him.
From information, I am led to believe that he has been at work at different Gold Mines through the lower end of Mecklenburg County, N. C. with this said John Underwood in an underhanded way, such as carrying off the Ore after night and washing it when best suits their convenience from being detected.
John Underwood, at this time, is absent from his family, and it may be that he has got in with the Boy to go off with him. The said Underwood is about 30 years of age, dark complected, black hair and eyes, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, possesses a mean look and is a shoemaker by trade, is fond of spirits and lying in negro kitchens.
The above reward will be given for the Boy if brought to me, or lodged in any Jail so that I can get him.

PROSPECTUS
Of a novel and interesting Weekly Publication, to be commenced on Saturday the 1st of July, TO BE ENTITLED
The Spy in Philadelphia,
AND SPIRIT OF THE AGE.

IT is very philosophically observed by Addison, that our greatest good arises from doing good to each other, or, in other words, from being individually servicable to society. This can be best effected by the application of our intelligence, and them out according to the necessities of the community, and less lamenting the want of public virtue; for vice retarded is not advanced. As the direction and discussion of measures of national and state policy, the business of the daily press, the full application of Addison's remark is necessarily neglected, and the consequence is, that shielded by wealth and worldly ambition are abroad among the people, not only suspected, but courted and required, that a publication is necessary which not only detects, but exhibit them in their sheep's clothing to public scorn; a task which others will be warned from their lust and service be rendered to society, effecting this object we shall pursue an untrod path; one where the ordinary, thorn shall be mingled (not cauterized) with contrasting flowers. The manner of "Spy in Philadelphia" shall be delicate, and unobscured by cant or party-gurgle; its censure shall be judicious, satire chaste. Literature and the arts find in it an untired friend: Dramatic Literary criticisms shall meet with most tentative and impartial duty, and sketches the Bar and Pulpit of Philadelphia shall occasionally appear from the pen of competent judges, uninfluenced by personal acquaintance or professional attachment. To the recommendations, our Poetical column, add another, which, coming from an equally popular source, will, we trust, be to that of more pretending publications, is unnecessary to be more explicit, as we presume the want of the proposed journal is not only admitted, but generally felt. We therefore place ourselves before the PEOPLE and relying upon their sense of justice and of public virtue, await their criticism respectfully but confidently.

CONDITIONS.
The first number of "THE SPY in PHILADELPHIA" will be issued on the first Monday in July. It will be printed on good type paper, in eight quarto pages, and of good type. As it is intended to render its contents worthy of preservation, the advertising or instructive reference, the advantage of the proposed and more portable journal is evident. The terms are $2 per annum, payable in advance, or $2 50 if not paid before the expiration of six months. Agents will be allowed a discount of 10 per cent on all subscribers they shall obtain, and becoming responsible for the same, and gratuitous copy of the paper.
"THE SPY IN PHILADELPHIA" will contain humorous engravings after the manner of the celebrated Cruikshank. They will be executed by skillful artists and accompanied with comic illustrations in prose verse from the pens of original and content writers.
All orders must be addressed, post paid, to
WILLIAM HILL & CO.
No. 1 Athenian Building, Philadelphia.
Care will be taken to have the weekly fully packed when sent out of the city.
