CHRIST HEALING THE BLIND.
 BY A. BARKER.
 Two sinners by the way side lie,
 Wrapt in the robe of grief;
 Fearful and sad as a major passed by,
 They humbly sought relief.
 Where pride encircled the haughty lip,
 Among the gathering crowd;
 Spurning their low companionship,
 By chiding them aloud.
 Yet still with faith in him they cry,
 Their aspirations rise;
 Have mercy Son of God most high,
 And open thou our eyes.
 He stopp'd—compassion's waters gush
 Within the Saviour's heart;
 Bidding the naughty torrent rush,
 The sable cloud depart.
 He speaks—his holy light doth pour
 Her thousand charms abroad;
 Their eyes unclose—they stand before
 The great ETERNAL GOD.
 No purple robe of kingly dower
 Around his form was bound;
 No regal gem from earthly pow'r
 His holy temples crowned.
 But o'er his head a glory gleams
 In one transcendent band,
 Hid in those bright eternal beams
 That round the blest expand.
 'Tis thus the true believer's blest,
 The smile of Faith is given,
 To heal the heart-sick wounded breast,
 By sin and sorrow riven.

25 DOLLARS REWARD.
 RANAWAY from the Subscriber, on the 26th of December last, my Negro Boy
JEFF,
 about 35 years of age, stout built, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and has a scar on his forehead over one of his eyes, caused from the kick of a horse. When spoken to has a pleasing countenance and something of a down look; his wearing apparel not recollected, and if it were his friend John Underwood has got him others, as suspicion rests very strong against him for harboring the said Boy.
 A further reward of
TWENTY DOLLARS
 will be given for said Boy and proof sufficient to convict any white person of harboring him.
 From information, I am led to believe that he has been at work at different Gold Mines through the lower end of Mecklenburg County, N. C. with this said John Underwood in an unhandred way, such as carrying off the Ore after night and washing it when best suits their convenience from being detected.
 John Underwood, at this time, is absent from his family, and it may be that he has got in with the Boy to go off with him. The said Underwood is about 30 years of age, dark complexioned, black hair and eyes, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, possesses a mean look and is a shoemaker by trade, is fond of spirits and lying in negro kitchens.
 The above reward will be given for the Boy if brought to me, or lodged in any Jail so that I can get him.

PROSPECTUS
 Of a novel and interesting Weekly Publication, to be commenced on Saturday the 6th of July.
 TO BE ENTITLED
The Spy in Philadelphia,
 AND
SPIRIT OF THE AGE.
 IT is very philosophically observed by Addison, that our greatest pride arises from doing good to each other, or, in other words, from being individually serviceable to society. This can be best effected by a proper application of our intelligences, moving them out according to the necessities of the community, and less lamenting the decay of public virtue than checking the progress of public vice: for vice retarded is virtus advanced. As the direction and discussion of measures of national and state policy are the business of the daily press, the full application of Addison's remark is necessarily neglected, and the consequence is, that shielded by wealth and worldly influence, are abroad among the people, not only suspected, but courted and requited; and that a publication is necessary which will not only detect, but exhibit these vices in sheep's clothing to public scorn; a work which others will be warned from their tent and service be rendered to society. In effecting this object we shall pursue a yet untrodden path; one where the necessary truth shall be mingled (not concealed) with contrasting flowers. The manner of the "Spy in Philadelphia" shall be careful, delicate, and uncontaminated by party or malignity; its censure shall be judicious, satirical elastic. Literature and the arts shall find in it an untired friend; Dramatic and Literary criticisms shall meet with most tentative and impartial duty, and sketches of the Bar and Pulpit of Philadelphia shall occasionally appear from the pen of competent judges, uninfluenced by personal acquaintance or professional attachment. To these recommendations, our Poetical column will add another, which, coming from an already popular source, will, we trust, be equal to that of more pretending publications. It is unnecessary to be more explicit, as we presume the want of the proposed journal is not only admitted, but generally felt.—We therefore place ourselves before the PEOPLE and relying upon their love of justice and of public virtue, await their decision respectfully but confidently.
CONDITIONS.
 The first number of "THE SPY IN PHILADELPHIA" will be issued on the first Saturday in July. It will be printed on good white paper, in eight quarto pages, and will cost five cents. As it is intended to render the contents worthy of preservation, for amusing or instructive reference, the advantage of the proposed and more portable size will be evident. The terms are $2 per annum payable in advance, or $2 50 if not paid before the expiration of six months. Agents will be allowed a discount of 10 per cent on all subscribers they shall obtain, on remitting one year's payment in advance, or becoming responsible for the same, and a gratuitous copy of the paper.
 "THE SPY IN PHILADELPHIA" will contain humorous engravings after the manner of the celebrated Cruikshank. They will be executed by skillful artists and accompanied with comic illustrations in prose or verse from the pens of original and competent writers.
 All orders must be addressed, post paid, to
 WILLIAM HILL & CO.
