

The Journal.

CHARLOTTE:

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1834.

"E" is received and will be attended to in our next.

Can the Editors of the Camden Journal and Charley Gazette inform us why it is those papers are received so irregularly...

ELECTION RETURNS.

From Ohio full returns have been received. The Anti Jackson men have succeeded in selecting a majority of members to the next Congress.

Table with columns for Anti-Jackson and Jackson candidates, listing names like Belmont, Sporer, Thomas, etc.

The representation in the present Congress consists of 11 Jackson and 8 Anti-Jackson—in the next of 10 Anti-Jackson to 9 Jackson men...

In Georgia the entire Union Ticket have prevailed by a majority of about 4000. The following is the aggregate returns from the whole State:

Table showing election returns for Union and State tickets, listing candidates like Wayne, Selby, Towns, etc.

In the next Legislature of Pennsylvania, parties will stand as follows: In the Senate, Jackson 25, Anti-Jackson 8. In the House, Jackson 51, Anti-Jackson 20.

The Charleston Courier, of the 27th ult. says that the members elect to the next Congress from that State are F. W. Pickens, Jas. H. Hammond, W. R. Davis, R. B. Campbell, Gen. Griffin, W. J. Grayson and H. L. Pinckney...

In the next Legislature the parties will be as follows: In the Senate 32 Nullifiers and 13 Union men—in the House 93 Nullifiers and 31 Union men...

The election in New York took place on the three first days of this week. Great anxiety is felt by both parties to hear how the Empire State will go...

We have never had the situation of North Carolina so severely brought to our minds at this time, as the circumstance of 7 or 8 families in this county, removing to the far West to better their situation...

Balloon ascensions are becoming quite common in this country. The citizens of Charleston were, on the 22d ult. gratified at beholding the ascension of Mr. George Elliott...

A public meeting was held in Yancey county, on the 21st ult. two men being elected from each captain's district, for the purpose of instructing their Representatives what course to pursue at the coming session of the Legislature...

Resolved, That our representatives be, and they are hereby instructed to use their most strenuous exertions to induce the Legislature to make provision for calling a Convention, for the purpose of so amending our Constitution as to give the citizens of every section of the State...

Resolved, That our representatives be instructed to support a liberal system of Internal Improvement—the system most likely to promote the interest of the State generally...

Resolved, That we have the highest confidence in the integrity, the patriotism, and the talents of our distinguished fellow-citizen, his Excellency David L. Swain...

We invite the attention of our readers to the following extracts, copied from the St. James's Chronicle, a London Tory paper, of the 2d of Sept. It is well known to many that the opponents of a Republican form of Government in England...

The people of England may now learn a lesson on Republicanism from its most brilliant specimen, the government of the United States. It has proved a splendid failure. Van Buren, who learned many useful tactics in this country...

He will initiate mildly and cautiously; but having the support of the democracy he will undoubtedly succeed in bringing the whole Union under the sway of a few ennobled and cultivated minds...

A short time ago, we published an article from the Albany Evening Journal, charging the Hon. Henry Plummer, a Representative in Congress from Missouri, with abusing his speaking privileges...

Mr. Robinson, whose lamented death has caused the "providential exposure of official corruption," so vainly published to the world, was in this city during the last session of Congress, and was employed by Mr. Plummer to attend and respond to such business communications as he received from his constituents...

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.—SEPT. 22. Table listing market prices for various goods like Cotton, Sugar, etc.

Since last we have experienced a brisk demand for Cotton, the sales of the three days amounting to about 13,000 bags, of which are 100 Sea Islands, at 17 a 20d; 120 prime Howards, at 14d, and 3000 American on speculation...

The city of Boston has voted to send 67 Representatives to the lower house of the Massachusetts Legislature. As the citizens of Boston pay their own representatives, they are allowed to send as many as they think necessary.

It is stated that Judge Doval has determined to resign his seat on the bench of the Supreme Court of the United States, owing to his extreme age, being about 80 years of age. Judge Marshall is about the same age.

The Hon. Edward Everett is to become Editor of the North American Review, after the next session of Congress.

One of the most grandful hurricanes ever experienced in any part of the West Indies, occurred on the night of the 20th September, on the Island of Dominica. The works on two-thirds of the principal sugar estates were levelled to the ground...

Governor SWAIN left Raleigh on Wednesday last for Newbern. The following remarks of the Spectator, of the 17th inst. explain the object of his visit to the Seaboard:

We are gratified to learn that some of the friends of internal improvement, or in other words, the real friends of the State, have recently written to Governor Swain for the purpose of urging his promised visit to the Seaboard...

SAVANNAH OCT. 16.

Riots in Charleston.—We have seen a letter from a gentleman of Charleston, stating that on Monday night a serious riot occurred in that city.

Mr. Martin Van Buren has succeeded in running down a National Bank which was the most insuperable obstacle to executive control, and has evaded in his hand the reins of a good team of state institutions which will draw well together and bear him upwards like the steel of Pegasus...

A correspondent of the Boston Courier thus describes the state of North-Carolina: "This State is less known and honored than it deserves to be."

[We have seen nothing in the Charleston papers in relation to the above statement, and have therefore reason to believe that it is either without foundation or greatly exaggerated.]—Eds. Atl. Star.

Mr. Robinson, whose lamented death has caused the "providential exposure of official corruption," so vainly published to the world, was in this city during the last session of Congress, and was employed by Mr. Plummer to attend and respond to such business communications as he received from his constituents...

We observe that an inhabitant of the city of New York, who had been placed by one of the parties on the committee of vigilance in his ward, comes out in the newspapers, refusing the appointment, and stating that he had abstained from exercising the right of suffrage for twenty-five years!

Mr. White, of Tennessee.—The Nashville Banner, remarking upon the fact that the Tennessee papers are coming out almost unanimously in favor of the Hon. Hugh L. White for the Presidency, says, "It becomes Tennessee to be modest in this matter, as one of her citizens is at present Chief Magistrate, with a considerable part of his term unexpired."

Jefferson's Opinion.—"Freedom of Elections, being essential to the mutual independence of Government, so virtually cherished by most of our Constitutions, it is deemed improper for the officers, depending on the executive of the Union, to attempt to control or influence the free exercise of the elective right; and further it is expected that no officer will attempt to influence the votes of others—NOR TAKE ANY PART IN THE BUSINESS OF ELECTORSHIP—(that being inconsistent with the spirit of the Constitution, and their duties to it.)"

We perceive by the New York papers, that no less than $8,332,352 in specie has been imported into the single port of New York within the first six months of the present year. Of the sum received within the last three months, two and a half millions consisted of gold, and was brought in, doubtless, to get the benefit of the profit by re-coining at our Mint.

Private letters from Pensacola, received in Mobile on the 10th inst. state that that city is visited by an epidemic fever, which proved fatal in thirty-five cases, during the month of September. On the 5th inst. there were thirty cases of fever remaining, though no death had taken place on that day...

At Stoughton's Hotel, in Salisbury, on the 27th ult. the Hon. JOSEPH PEARSON, formerly a Representative in Congress, from that district, aged about 60 years.

WISLIP to pay my Debts; and as I cannot do so without the assistance of those who are indebted to me, consequently I am constrained to request all who are in arrears with me to come forward (without any further solicitation) on or before the Tuesday of our next County Court and make settlements.

My wife Elizabeth A. Blount has left my bed and board without any lawful cause and taken nearly all the property out of my house. I forewarn all persons from treating to the amount of one cent with said wife, for I am determined not to pay one cent of her contracts.

MY wife Elizabeth A. Blount has left my bed and board without any lawful cause and taken nearly all the property out of my house. I forewarn all persons from treating to the amount of one cent with said wife, for I am determined not to pay one cent of her contracts.

THE FARMERS' & PLANTERS' LARGE ALMANAC, 1835. Calculated for the Northern of Salem, N. Carolina, FOR Sale at this Office, either by the dozen at $1 single one. Price—Dwain 75 cents, single 10 cents.

ALL those who have given notes to the subscriber as the Trustee of Col. John Sloan, are notified to make payment by the November Court, as longer indulgence cannot be given.

DESIGNING to remove his Negroes from his plantation near Charlotte, offers for Sale, on Tuesday the 18th of November, the following property: A large quantity of CORN, Fodder, Hay, Oats, &c. &c. Hogs, Cattle, 2 yoke of Oxen, Mules, Farming Utensils, Cotton Gin, A set of Blacksmith Tools, Horse-mill, Wagon and other property.

WEEKLY ALMANAC.

Table showing moon phases for November 1834, including days like Saturday, Sunday, Monday, etc.

THE MARKETS.

Table listing market prices for various goods like Brandy, Peach, Apple, Beans, etc.

THE SUBSCRIBER.

DESIGNING to remove his Negroes from his plantation near Charlotte, offers for Sale, on Tuesday the 18th of November, the following property: A large quantity of CORN, Fodder, Hay, Oats, &c. &c. Hogs, Cattle, 2 yoke of Oxen, Mules, Farming Utensils, Cotton Gin, A set of Blacksmith Tools, Horse-mill, Wagon and other property.

The plantation he would dispose of, either as an undivided whole, or it would be divided into small tracts to suit purchasers. Any part of the above property would be sold on or before the day of sale, by application to the subscriber, or in case of his absence by his overseer Mr. Bailey.

ISAAC F. ALEXANDER. No. 1st. 1834.

NOTICE.

AS I am determined to remove, I wish to sell my plantation, lying two miles and a half East of Charlotte, on the Lawyer's road. Any person wishing to purchase can come and examine and judge for themselves.

ISAAC F. ALEXANDER. October 15th, 1834.

Dr. P. C. Caldwell.

HAVING resumed the practice of Medicine, can at all times be consulted at Mr. Wm. Davidson's corner store-house, and will attend promptly to all calls in his profession.

TYPE FOUNDRY.

SHERMAN & SANUEL ECKLIN, having purchased the Type Foundry established by the late J. HOWE, have entered into partnership, for the purpose of carrying on the Manufactory of Types, under the firm of S. Ecklin & Co.

We intend keeping on hand a large assortment of type, especially those kinds most used, which will enable us to supply orders with the least possible delay; and have now for sale a large quantity of the best quality (stock purchased from the estate of J. Howe) and intend to make additions to it.

Such improvements as the wants of the trade and taste may require, will receive the earliest attention at this establishment.

Printing Presses of every description, Printing Ink of the most approved qualities, Composing Sticks, Brass and Common Gallies, Chases, Imposing Stones, Paper and Press Boards, Standing Presses, Furniture, together with a complete assortment of all articles used in a Printing Office, will be kept constantly on hand.

Small fronts, suitable for Book-binders, in great variety, may be had when called for.

Orders from all parts of the Union will be promptly and most carefully attended to, and particularly in supplying cuts for all facets furnished by our predecessors.

We respectfully solicit a share of public patronage. To the former patrons of this foundry, we deem it sufficient to say, that they will be as well and as promptly served as heretofore, should they be disposed to favor us with their orders.

Corner of Crown and Gallowhill streets. Philadelphia, Sept. 18, 1834.

Sunday School and Family LIBRARIES.

THE Publications of the American Sunday School Union, now amounting to 102 books in paper covers, and 256 books bound, suitable for Juvenile, Family and Sunday School Libraries, furnishing a large amount of instructive and interesting matter; all having been examined and approved by the Committee of Publication, composed of an equal number of members of the Methodist, Presbyterian, Episcopalian and Baptist churches, (any one of whom by his single vote can exchange any word he pleases)—can be obtained at the following named depositories in this State, (North-Carolina).

- Raleigh, Turner & Hughes. Fayetteville, James Miller. Wilmington, Geo. E. French. Newbern, J. C. & M. Stevenson. Oxford, R. J. Yancey, Jr. Milton, Margaret Smith. Salem, Conrad Kruser. Hillsborough, Dr. Jas. Webb. Greensborough, W. R. D. Lindsay. Salisbury, J. Blackwood, at Col. Leamy's. Charlotte, David Parks. Statesville, Alexander & Cowan. Morganton, L. Henderson. Lincolnton, D. & J. A. Ramsour.