

SINGULAR OCCURRENCE.
On Friday, the 21st instant, a large brig appeared off the bar of Beaufort, North Carolina, which stood off and on for some time. A pilot went off from the town, and was astonished to find that she was manned by six negroes and only two white men, one of the negroes calling himself Captain. The negro Captain took three men in a boat and went up to the town. On landing they were questioned, and stated that they left the former Captain sick at Campeachy, and that the care of the vessel was given to this negro, as he was the only navigator. One of the boat's crew upon being afterwards interrogated, stated that the Captain came out in the brig and fell overboard on Wednesday night. At a subsequent examination they all stated that the Captain had fallen overboard.—The statement made by the mate, who is a white man, is, that they had been out from Campeachy thirty one days, and that the Captain became insane soon after he had sailed, and fell overboard on the 23d September. He then surrendered the charge of the brig to the negro, not being himself a navigator. This, it is supposed, is the true state of the case. The papers are all regular. The negroes say that they prevailed under the influence of fear, as they knew that they were in a slave state. The brig is entered the Herriet of Marblehead, from Campeachy, laden with logwood, bound to New York, and consigned to Howland and Aspinwall. They were out of provisions, and came into Beaufort for a supply.—Eve. News.

MECKLENBURG JEFFERSONIAN:
Charlotte, Friday, October 23, 1846.

RAIL ROAD MEETING.
The Farmers of Mecklenburg and adjoining Counties, are earnestly invited and requested to attend a public meeting, in Charlotte, on TUESDAY of October Court, at 11 o'clock, to consult upon the construction of a Rail Road from Charlotte to Camden, S. C. The meeting will be addressed by Col. W. J. Alexander, James W. Osborne, and other distinguished gentlemen.

MANY CITIZENS.
The absence of the Editor for the past week, will account for the appearance of this week's JEFFERSONIAN.

EXPLANATION.
That from the delinquency of the young man who makes up our packages for the week, were sent from the office on Monday, the 21st instant, to supply the want of the paper, and our subscribers will take care that no mistake be made in our subscription. An apprentice in the Western part of the State, who was sent from this place last week, is about 17 years of age, a good composition, and a fair hand. He is of small stature, and wears a down-cast look when spoken to. He informed his employer that he intended, on Tuesday, to leave him, George would have been dismissed with such a recommendation as he deserved; but since he has acted otherwise, to satisfy the law, a reasonable reward will be paid for his delivery in Charlotte.

FROST.
On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday mornings last, we had in all this region of country very heavy white frosts. The health of the country was improving, but we hope the appearance of old "Jack," will exterminate even all appearance of Ague and Fever.

FROM THE ARMY.
The official despatches from Gen. TAYLOR will be perused with deep interest. It will be seen, too, that our Government has very properly sent him instructions to put an end to the armistice. The last Washington Union remarks: "Major James Graham left Washington this morning, in the southern train, with despatches for Gen. Taylor. It is believed that he carries out instructions for terminating the temporary cessation of hostilities."

P. S. Since the above was in type, we learn from a special correspondent of the New Orleans Picayune, that the number of Mexicans ascertained to have been killed at the battles of Monterey, was FIFTEEN HUNDRED. Our loss was five hundred.

THE ELECTIONS.
The second trial in Maine was more favorable to the Democrats than was the first. But even yet, the failure to elect, leaves the political character of the Legislature all in doubt. In Maryland, the Whigs have carried the Legislature by an increased majority from last year. In South Carolina, Democracy has all to itself. The former members of Congress are all elected. Messrs. R. B. RHETT, ARMISTEAD BURT, JOSEPH A. WOODWARD, A. D. SIMMS, and R. F. SIMPSON, were re-elected without opposition; and Capt. Jas. A. BLACK, in the York District, beat his two opponents very easily, as did the Hon. I. E. HOLMES, in the Charleston District. We do not know that there is a single Whig elected to the Legislature, if we except our friend Richard A. Springs, Esq., from York.

The Congressional election in Georgia has resulted in the choice of four Whigs and four Democrats—Toombs, Stephens, Jones and King, Whigs, and Iverson, Cobb, Lumpkin, and Haralson, Democrats. This is a loss of one member to the Democrats, though the popular vote shows a considerable Democratic gain since the last election. Georgia is Democratic.

The elections are over in Pennsylvania and Ohio, but no returns have as yet come to hand. We understand Col. Bortinger has signified his intention to run for Congress again in this District. The Colonel will attend to his case in time. The Democracy is a pretty clever fellow for a Whig, but we shall spare no honorable means to effect his defeat next August.

THE GOVERNOR'S ELECTION.

Below we give the official vote for Governor of the State, at the late election; also the vote of 1844, showing the difference between the votes of 1844 and 1846.
