

MECKLENBURG JEFFERSONIAN:
Charlotte, February, 1st, 1847.

Such of our patrons as have settled their accounts by note with R. W. STEVENSON, are requested to pay their bills to any one but the undersigned, as each note bears on it the written endorsement of
J. V. HAMPTON.
January 27, 1847.

Two apprentices in the printing business are wanted immediately at this Office.
Also, a Journeyman Printer, of a steady habit, can find a situation at this office, at good wages, if application is made soon.

OUR VOLUNTEERS.
We are highly gratified to inform our readers that the 1st to 10th Regiments in addition to the present standing army, has at last passed Congress. We also learn that our Townsman, the Hon. G. W. CALDWELL, has been appointed a Major in the Regular Army, and that Lieut. E. C. DAVIDSON has been commissioned a Captain of Dragoons, with authority to recruit a company for the war.

NEXT GOVERNOR.
It is now understood, that the Federalists in our last Legislature, in discussing up everything else, also discussed for the next Governor of North Carolina, and gave the honor to Renneth Rayner, of Hertford county. This saves the people the trouble of selecting a candidate for themselves. The nomination is intended, we suppose, as a reward to Rayner for framing the Bill to redistrict the State for Congress, and his Mexican speeches on the war, in which he declared this to be "Pall's war," "a war of rapine, conquest, and plunder," &c. Well, time will show whether such a man as Rayner can be forced upon the people by party dexterity to fill the chief Magistracy of the State.

Mr. J. V. HAMPTON, formerly a Solicitor, N. C., has been elected by the Legislature of Florida, Register of Public Lands in that State. The office is very responsible and honorable one, and we are sure could not be filled by a more capable or worthy man.

MR. CALHOUN.
We know it will not only surprise but mortify our readers, to learn that Mr. Calhoun has joined the Whigs and Abolitionists in the war question. A few days since he made a Speech in the Senate, in which he indirectly denounced the administration of our President, and advocated distinctly the withdrawal of our troops from Mexico, and a recognition of the Republic of Mexico. This is all we can now say, and all we would like to say on such a subject. When John Calhoun goes to Mexico, we go up.

APPOINTMENTS.
The President has made the following appointments, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The persons appointed are all citizens of this State:
Gaston H. Wilder, paymaster in the army, with the rank of Major.
Kearl I. Whitaker, assistant commissary, with the rank of Captain.
Wm. I. Dancy, assistant quartermaster, with the rank of Captain.
Gaston D. Cobb, to be surgeon.
James A. McRae, assistant Surgeon.

TRUE TO THEIR CREED.
The Legislature of Massachusetts, by a vote 165 to 47, refused to vote a cent for the benefit of the Volunteers from that State. A resolution of thanks to Gen. Taylor for his brilliant victories over the Mexicans, was also defeated by an equally large majority. These are the same people who opposed the war of 1812;—they have backing, new however. The North Carolina Federal leaders go hand-and-hand with the "blue lights of the Bay State."

GO ON!
The Tarboro' Press, in noticing the appointment of Field Officers of our Regiment of Volunteers, makes the following just and sensible hint to the Editors:
"Let us suppose Col. Robert Treat Baine (for so he is called) to address a proclamation to the Regiment in the eye of battle. It must run thus: "My gallant companions in arms! You volunteered—I did not. You believe this war to be just—no no. You volunteered or not—be the war just or no—I am your Colonel and you are my men. I am your only friend willing to lead you as your Colonel in an unjust war as in a just one, and fight or wrong you must fight it out. Go ahead—Hurrah for Mexico!"

TRUST THEM NOT!
A writer in the New Hampshire Patriot, said to be a leading Whig, has produced quite a sensation among his party in that State, by his able indication of the justice of the Mexican war. It is one of his communications, he says:
"The administration at Washington had done every thing in its power to assist with the national honor to avoid the collision, and when at last a blow was struck it was only in self-defence. I repeat the war was commenced by Mexico—by sending the American flag to the head of the American Gulf. Yet there to meet in this country—by occupying high places too, so as to patriotism, the Legislature of America, feeling and American patriots, as not only to become the political opponents of the Government, but to become the political enemies of the Government, and to be called for the 'blue light'—to war for the extension of Slavery." Why, sir, the man who undertakes the circumstances can deliberate do this, must either be utterly ignorant of the causes connected with this war, or he must possess a heart which can only find a place in the bosom of a traitor to his country, its laws and its God."

STILL LATER.
By the subsequent arrival of the U. S. steamer Alabama, from Brazos Santiago, intelligence has been received of the arrival of the Louisiana Volunteers, teers from this State to lead them to battle, men who have thus denounced the war—men upon whose lips the words of treason uttered in our Legislature are yet warm.

"A GUILFORD WHIG"
We had intended to notice suitably the scurrilous communication over the above signature, which appeared in a recent number of the Raleigh Register; but our friend of the Standard has done the job so handsomely, that we subjoin his remarks—"A Guilford Whig" may yet find that writing scurrilous libels is not the thing it is cracked up to be:

"Mecklenburg Volunteers"—The Register of Friday last contains a communication over the signature of "A Guilford Whig," which, for vile falsehoods, and mean, low misrepresentations as to Capt. Green W. Caldwell and the Mecklenburg Volunteers, is without a parallel in the annals of partisan infamy. This miserable scribe, boasts of his patriotism, and charges cowardice and treason on Captain Caldwell and his company, because they refused to march under Field Officers forced upon them by a caucus and a party Governor. God save the mark! Old Tory Guilford preaching patriotism to the people of North Carolina! Old Tory Guilford, (with the exception of some five or six hundred democrats, who are there, as they are every where, the true friends of the country) that petitioned Congress not to annex Texas "as a States State"—that held the first meeting in North Carolina to denounce the President as the cause of the Mexican war, and to take sides with the public enemy—that cherishes and supports a newspaper which, but a month or two since, called upon the people not to volunteer, and told them to beware that the "wickedness of the rulers," in bringing on this war, "did not fall upon" them—that sent a Senator to the last Legislature, who declared in his place in the Senate that this was a war of "rapine, conquest, and plunder"—this County comes forward to applaud others, and to preach lessons of patriotism to the men of Mecklenburg! When will wonders—when will impudence cease!

But the mouths of these Mexican whigs are closed. The arrows aimed by this malignant Guilford Tory have fallen shivered to the earth; for the very morning on which the Register was issued containing this communication, information was received here that the President had accepted Capt. Caldwell and his Company into the Dragoon-service; and instead of being in the rear with the Volunteer forces, that gallant Officer and his men will be allowed to unite with the regulars in the "fore front of the hottest battle." If the war continues much longer, they will be in the van of battle, fighting and bleeding for the country, while this poor "Guilford Whig" will be serving his Tory masters, and slandering and vilifying better and braver men than himself.

LATER FROM THE ARMY.

The N. O. Picayune reports the arrival of the steamship McKim, from Brazos, with dates to the 24th January. By this news, it appears that Santa Anna has been assassinated. Little credit however is given to the report. Gen'l Worth had arrived with his command at the Brazos. Gens. Scott and Worth are to have the command of the main and regular army, which is now concentrating at Tampico or in the neighborhood. The opinion is now almost universal, that a movement is to be made against Vera Cruz, which is to be invested both by land and water.

Gen. Wool was in command at Saltillo with 3000 men.
The kindness and hospitality of the Mexican ladies at Parras are highly eulogized. Their attentions to the sick of the American soldiery called forth much gratitude among those whose sufferings were alleviated.

Gen. Cully was posted at San Rosalia as early as the 10th of Dec., with a force of 2000 citizen soldiers or rancheros, with a view to intercept Gen. Wool, who was expected to march upon Chihuahua from Monclova. We copy the following:

HIGHLY IMPORTANT!
We have just received news from Anton Lizardo up to the 20th ult.

One of the letters states that Congress on the 9th ult., after a stormy session, approved the first section of a bill, authorizing the Government of Mexico to raise $15,000,000 by the hypothecation or sale of certain goods of the church. Santa Anna opposed this, and it is rumored that his opposition so exasperated his soldiers that they had shot him! Our correspondent says that this report requires confirmation, but there are many circumstances which still render it not impossible such has been the fate of Santa Anna. The army was in great distress.

The passage of the above law has certainly created the greatest excitement in Mexico. The churches are closed, and every indication of mourning and of resistance has been evinced by those who support the religious establishments.

The Mexican Congress and Mexican Press everywhere appears to be thoroughly aroused. The issue they make is "Ser a no ser"—to be or not to be.

Mr. Rodgers was still in confinement at Vera Cruz, but was well treated. We have files of papers, but have no time to look at them before the mail closes. To-morrow we shall give a full summary of news.

STILL LATER.
By the subsequent arrival of the U. S. steamer Alabama, from Brazos Santiago, intelligence has been received of the arrival of the Louisiana Volunteers, and their departure for Tampico; also that the Regiment of Rifles have been dismounted, and that Col. Harney has been arrested by Gen. Scott, for disobedience of orders, and was to be tried immediately by Court Marshal.

Gen. Worth is said to be quite unwell, though able to give orders. He has between two and three thousand men with him—the pick of the army.

Gen. Scott and staff still remain at Brazos, but it was thought he would sail in a few days for Tampico.

The steamer Cincinnati was lost on the night of the 22d ult. about 25 miles to the northward of Tampico. She had on board two companies of troops and two 9 pounders, and was bound on an expedition against Soto la Marina.—Two soldiers and the two pieces of cannon were lost. The vessel was sold as she lay high and dry for $50.

OBITUARY.

DIED, in this town, on the 9th inst., Mrs. CAROLINE E. ALEXANDER, consort of Mr. C. T. Alexander, and daughter of T. Hampton Esq., of Lincoln County, in the 23d year of her age, leaving a husband, an infant child, and many relations and friends in bereavement.
Death-bed scenes often administer the most impressive admonitory lessons to the living. Though Mrs. A. had been the subject of conviction some two years ago, yet she expressed no hope by making a profession of religion.
As a general truth, death-bed scenes of penitency are to be regarded as delusive and evanescent; yet the case of the dying thief upon the cross evinces the possibility of genuine penitency; and the attainment of a well-founded hope, even when the lamp of life is being extinguished.

Some days before the death of Mrs. A., when, to all liberal views, she was in the full possession of all her mental powers, she became the subject of distress and anguish of spirit, the most keen and pungent. The immediate cause of her distress, and she could not relinquit nor repent, nor apprehend Jesus as the only way to the Father, yet her heart was as hard as a rock—utterly insensible and unfeeling—she was shut up in hardness and in darkness.

After this state had continued for hours, she at length began to say, "Eight begins to shine upon the path—I begin to see the way—where am I—in this world yet—I thought I were gone."—Presently her views became enrapturing. Then her words of counsel and exhortation to friends around her became the most appropriate. How affectionately did she warn them of sin, and urge one and another to meet her in heaven.

Again and again would she commit herself, her child, her husband, and her friends to Jesus. But she is gone, leaving all these to mourn her departure. And yet they do not mourn as those who have no hope, but should rather say—"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."—Communicated.
