political principles, but to certify to his soundness on the slavery question. The more the Yankee freesoil candidates friends strive to extricate their favorite, the deeper they sink him in the Serbonian bog of Freesoilism! Keep it before the people!—Let the Whig press cry aloud, and spare not the co-alition of New Hampshire and New York Free-follers against the rights of the South:

ANOTHER FEW HAMPSHIRE SPEECH.

Senator Norris has acquired distinction as one of the authors of a document certifying that Gen Pierce never uttered the obnoxious sentiments that are imputed to him. The value of the certificate was reduced below par by the discovery that two of those who signed it, Messrs. Norris and Hibbard, one representing New Hampshire in the Senate, and the other in the House—were themselves identified with free-soil agitation, and appear in the State and National records in connection with the well known series of resolutions in support of the Wilmot proviso. We called for an explanation on the subject, but have received none. The organs have not a word to say in vindication of either of those gentlemen, who are still cited, however, as Gen Pierce's reliable sponsors.

We now have another fact to chronicle in reference to Mr. Norris. It is no less than an extract from a speech delivered by this firm friend of Gen. Pierce on the occasion of the discussion of the Wilmot proviso resolutions in the New Hampshire Legislature. Mr. Norris was then speaker of one branch of that body, and he left the chair to deliver the remarks from which we quote. The passages are taken from the report published at the time, in the Concord (N. H.) Independent Democrat, and we understand that their accuracy has never been impugned by Mr. Norris:

"I should be willing to go farther than even the resolutions themselves. I should be willing to say this, and have said it, and to southern men, although a 'doughface,' that no more territory should be admitted into the Union, where slavery exists, and that I would vote for a law prohibiting it."

"Sir, I am in favor of these resolutions. I think they speak the sentiments of truth, justice, and freedom; and I should like to know if there is a man in this house—I hope the yeas and nays will be called—I should like to see the first man in this House who will dare face the freemen of New Hampshire and vote against them. I should like to see the first who will go home to his constituents and say, I voted against these resolutions because they were all wrong. They state the principles upon which our Government must rest. They avow principles for humanity and for God himself and His laws. And I hope that they will be adopted as they are."

"Mr. Norris, then, was in no respect behind the requirements of the New Hampshire Democracy, and is well entitled to the honor of certifying that Gen. Pierce is sound on the slavery question.

We have one question, and only one to ask in regard to this matter.

If Mr. Foss, the reporter of Mr. Pierce's New Boston speech, is not to be credited on oath because—he is a freesoiler, and if Mr. Goodale, the editor of the Manchester democrat, is to be disbelieved for the same reason, on what ground is the country asked to place implicit confidence in the certificate of Mr. Norris, who is as deeply committed to abolitionism as either of them? We desire a specific reply.

Valuable Property—the Reed Gold Mine—for Sale.

BY virtue of a Deed in Trust, executed by A. Hartsell and Timothy Reed, for purposes therein specified, I will sell at Public Auction, on the premises, on Tuesday, the 12th day of October next, that very valuable Tract of Land, known as the lying in Cabarrus county, North Carolina, on the waters of Meadow Creek, about 14 miles South-east of Concord. This Mine was of the first discovered in the United States and has never ceased to yield the greatest abundance of rich ores—turning out from 50 cents to $100 per bushel; whilst large quantities of decomposed gold have always been found on the surface and along the water-courses. The tract contains 745 acres, with veins of Gold and other ores passing through all of it. No doubt exists as to the richness of the ores, and the immense value of the mine; and nothing but capital is needed to make it the best property in the country. Capitalists are earnestly requested to examine it.

The title is undoubted; and the sale will certainly take place. Terms, 12 months' credit with interest.

Messrs. Hartsell and Reed will show the Mine to persons wishing to purchase. For further particulars, enquire of Rufus Barringer, Esq., at Concord.
