J. $ Mog

North Carolina Whia.

"Be true to God, to your Country, and to your Duty."

VOLUMES.

CHARLOTTE, N.C., JANUARY 4, 1855.

HOLTON & WILLIAMSON. EDITORS.

T. J. HOLTON, PROPRIETOR.

TERMS:

The North-Carolina Whig will be afforded to corribers at TWO DOLLARS in advance, or TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS if pay must be delayed for three months, and THREE pOLLARS at the end of the year. No paper will e discontinued until all arrearages are paid, ex-tion, and 25 cents for each continuance. Court ad-sectimentates and Sheriff's Sales charged 25 per-Ta cents per square for sach time.

I " All letters on business must be directed to " Editors. Letters must be post-paid or they willnet be attended to.

IP l'ayments can be made to either 1." Postmas ers are authorized to act as agenta.

Poetry.

A printer weary and wan; His fine all mortally pole, As slowly plotded his houneward woy, the dawning of early day, Broke out in a bitter wall.

His voice was busky and low, As though his longs were gone ; he coughed and gasped, and coughed again, he presend his hand to his breast in pain, While thus his plaint ran on :

" A world of toil is this ! It both no joy for me: ther by day, and labor by night, By the light of the sun, and by condle light-Labor continually.

Some men have a day of rest, But Subbath for me there is not; tool all the week, and tool all the stay God has given to rest and to pray-Lot this is the Printer's lot !

"When I was a boy," he sold, "I played on the Julis of green: the stream-I fished in the b st was I to sit and to look Infetter a on anture's scene.

could never forget that it was he who saved litter. His wounds were dressed and all [her life. When he became ill, she would possible assistance rendered to the wounded do all for him in her power, and often pastor. Catharine was overjoyed to see her cheered his lonely hours by singing some dearest friend so comfortable beautiful hymns. She would often say, The old man had learned that his dear gislature, that the receipts into the Trensu-tions of the Board of Internal Improve- not foresee the appropriation by the last As-for addressing a few lines, which I hope Cau I not render you some assistance ? Can much.

I do too much for one who saved my life !" " It is all right," said Catharine. " If I was taken by the Russians, and many of its have been carried before the General, and inhabitants slain. It was a sad day. Many would have missed seeing your servant, who of $2,981,466.61. This includes over one the State. in lines or less, thus sized type) for the first inser- and at the time of the battle was visiting for you on the battle field." "Now," said Catharine, " my dear henethe sister of Skovronski, a few miles distant.

terment light; and a deduction of 333 per cent. will She heard the cannon, but did not under. factor, bless me, your poor child, for I must be made from the regular prices, for advertisers by stand the cause. This part of our story leave you." e vert. Advertisements inserted monthly or must be described by another. Though a "Go, my child, go," said the old man, in arteriy, at $1 per square for each time. Semi-description, it will give a life-like air to the will bless you. Catharine kissed the lips of the old man, the cottage and a young man hastily dis- left the house. mounted. "The Russians are at Maricaberg ." exclaimed he, rushing into the apart. she met the young soldier who presented Treasury.

ment. "I have escaped with difficulty to her with the lantern in the battle-field, and bring this letter from your brother (addres. who now kindly presented her to the Gensing the pastor's sister,) who has given his eral.

> should not see you again." "I gave you my word," was her brief making $620,653.44.

"What shall I do with her ?" inquired the General, addressing himself to the soldier.

We extract the following lines from the peems Such was her anxiety to see her best you, my child ?" added he, turning to Cath- may be set down now at $2,925,663.50.

you belong to me."

as they walked together away.

the army?

father and benefactor is in town, and I am cannat suppose that I am proud-a child 409,663.50, by the sale of $111,000 Bonds, determined to share his fate, whatever it without name

"Yes," replied Catharine, "I love you Bonds for the North Carelina Railroad.

ter I, of Russia; you are, therefore, a pris- sion to marry you."

Treasurer's Report.

We learn, from the Report of Mr. Treasand running thirty years.

'My dear father, what can I do for you ? child was a prisoner, and this grieved him 'y of North Carolina, for the two last fiscal ments, to enable the State to pay her sub- sembly of 880,000 out of the Treasury for will find you in a perfect glow of health, years-that is, from the 31st October, 1852, scription to the North Carolina Railroad. the benefit of the Deep River Improvement, and in glorious spirits, particularly on the subdo too much for one who sared my life?" "It is all right," said Catharine. "If I to the 1st of November, 1854, were, for On the 20th of August, 1702, Marienberg had not been taken prisoner, I should not 1853, $1,760,127.72, and for 1854, $1,221,-nation of the been taken prisoner, I should not 1853, $1,760,127.72, and for 1854, $1,221,-and anglorious spirits, particularly on the sub-it formed necessarily no part of my esti-had not been taken prisoner, I should not 358,89-melting for the two years t 338.89-making for the two years the sum Hence the sale of only $130,000 bonds by part of the session.

inhabitants slain. It was a sad day. Many would have missed seeing your servant, who have missed seeing your servant to build have missed seeing your servant to the option of the Editors. A pt at the option of the Editors. A sembly.

The disbursements for 1853 amounted to and for the improvement of the navigation to declare sufficient profits to supply this de- and the South, by standing to their backs 1,504,473.87, and for 1854 to $1,605,409. of the Neuse and Tar rivers. Of these I ficiency, the Legislature will be better ena- when they go into internal improvements. slight thread of fiction may be seen in the a solemn voice ; "do your duty, and God above amount of receipts-$2,981,366.61, er, was in a condition not to be embarrass. sented from those having charge of that of the people-everything that will raise us the sum of $36,286.46, the balance in hand, od by the failure to dispose of the whole Road.

November 1st 1852, and the balance of amount, as nearly all of the whole amount Should this be deemed doubtful, I re- ple. They say we are behind all the other A horse suddenly stopped at the door of and exclaimed, "Adieu, my father " and expenditures or disbursements over receipts advertised were to remain in the Treasury, spectfully recommend that provision be States in rail roads, plank roads and canals. will appear, $152,131.31. This balance on account of advancements already made made for an adequate increase of the reve- I believe we are; but I took a walk the As she entered the tent of the General is due the Literary Fund by the State for the above objects.

the Public Treasury for 1855 at 835 5,643. for the construction of the Weldon and Gas- should see a determination on the part of around, and behold I saw a little cloud 11, and for 1856 at $251,643.11-making ton Road, and for the improvement of the the Legislature, to provide revenue for the riving in the East whose margins were gilt "What ! have you returned " said the $646,256.71 for the two years ; and he esti- Neuse and Tar rivers, of either advancing payment of interest, and not to borrow with the reflected rays of the yet unrisen General on seeing her. "I feared that I mates the disbursements for 1855 at $337, the money from the Treasury or selling the money from year to year to do so, which sun. It was a glorious sight, and according 176.72, and for $1506, at $253,376.72- bonds. I preferred advancing the money is the more exchange of one creditor for to my interpretation indicated the rising from the Treasury, as it was then in a con- another.

Thou art a Livonian," replied the offi-er. "Livonian balongs now to one Crar, Pes-sion to marry you." of the Char," said be; "remain where you there is right that I should ask permis-sion to marry you." the North Carolina Bailroad, to visit the tary and Comptroller of State, and G. W. Iar Statement, a considerable portion of our Catharine had waited but a few minutes. City of New York. Under the first named when a young officer, advancing, said, "The act, it was made my duty to contract with Mordecai, Esq. And the last sale by the State bonds sold was purchased by two little to raise a fuss with her. She wants some suitable Bank in that city, to pay off three last named gentlemen.

NUMBER 46.

From the Salisbury Watchman.

Last October, after due advertisement, I they now exist, as I cannot anticipate what ! sold $130,000 bonds, dated July 1st, 1854, the action of the Legislature may be in re- To the Gavernor and Legislature of North Carolina : gard to apprepriations, &c. And I may I trust, dear Governor and Fathers of the urer Courts, recently submitted to the Le- These bonds were all sold under resolu- mention in this connection, that as I could State, that you will not think hard of me State of North Carolina. Now what I would

After 1856, the present sources of reve- say is, give us all the help you can to build tion of the Weldon and Gaston Railroad, time enough, and if completed, will be able in the East and the West, in the North in the sight of God and the American peonue; for as I remarked in my last report, other duy to see what I could see. I was For, as I remarked in my last report. I it is important that the public, and especi- transported to the top of one of the highest The Treasurer estimates the receipts into exercised the discretion given by the Act ally those who deal in State securities, mountains in the State, and east my eyes glory of our State. I have since then read thereby accumulating a surplus at one time the Public Fund, and have no reference to tion of wild ducks and geese in Currituck. dier! She is born for it! Well, what say had to the list of estimated disbursements. And by this course there has been a sa- tion of them, and of the Tabular Statement, portant to the good people of Currituck, ving of several thousand dollars to the a pretty good idea, I think, may be formed whose main dependance for a living is on of the prosperous Public Works that we the wild ducks and geese which use in their "I say," replied she, hesitating, "my since the close of the last fiscal year, on the Ail of the above bonds were issued in have completed, and also of the extent to waters. I hope, dear father, that you will which others have been pressed forward to- not only secure their protection in this case, the wife of a soldier than the slave of a debt of $42,000 to the Bank of the Repub. The premium which the Tabular State- wards completion. And while several of but that you will pass a charter for a raillic, and the creation of one of $20,000 with ment shows was realized on the honds, I our sister States can present a more import road to the county sent of Currituck to con-"Brave? Catharine! from this moment Robert L. Maitland & Co., of New York, think I am borne out in saying, is flatter-on belong to me." I fancy, in pointing to as many, can, at the then, you percieve the good people of Car-The soldier arose, and beekoning Catha sold on the 20th of October last. rine to follow him, he left the test. Do I have not included the $250,000 of the In order that the public should have full ours. But, as we shall have other bonds to more glorious, and not less fleet upon the you know who I am, Catharine " said he, Bonds of the Wilmington and Raleigh Rail. considence in the fairness with which the sell, and as capitalists at a distance, in wing! I call upon my fathers, the Goverroad Company, endorsed by the State, be, bids would be awarded, and for my own looking to the purchase of State securities, nor and the members of the General As-"No; but you said that you wished to be cause of the promptness with which the protection, I announced, in each advertise- may say that this state of things may exist scally of North Carolina, and particularly Company meets this interest, hesides pay. ment, the names of certain gentlemen of and yet that our debt may have been kep, upon my noble father, A. J. Dargan, Esq., "True : but do you know my rank in ing off a portion of its debt, from time to high character, who would superintend the down by heavy annual contributions by our to see that this matter is attended to. Also breaking of the seals and awarding of the people to our State Treasury, and that, that a charter be granted for a railroad bids. therefore, it furnishes but little evidence of from Salisbury via Ragie City in the Coun-In the advertisement of the first sale in the extent of resources-for their informa- ty of Iredell, to Wilkesboro' and the Ten-to be sold under the Act, for the benefit of New York, the names announced were G. tien it may be stated that it exists under a nessee line. And you must not forget to "You are content, then, to link your des. the Weldon and Gaston Bailroad, and the B. Lamar, President of the Bank of the system of taxation, the true character of pass a bill chartering a Bank to be located "Go, then, and Gol preserve you!" an. tiny with mine," taking her by the hand." Neuse and Tar Rivers, and of $370,000 Republic, J. Posts Brown and David S. which is at once indicated by the fact, that at Beaufort, with a branch located at Eagle Freeman, Esps. of New York. Finding on it levies for the State Treasury but 20 conts. City. This Bank ought to be allowed to She had not presented far before an because you have been kind to me, poor In a few days after the adjournment of the day of sale, Messre, E. B. Freeman and per annum upon the poil, and 6 cents on put out 3,000,000 of dollars-one million the last Legislature, it because necessary R. W. Hyam, of this State, in the city, they the hundred dollars valuation of real estate; for the use of the branch at Eagle City.-"Catherine," she quickly replied ; "I am The soldier stopped before a tent more for me, in order to carry out fully certain were associated by me with the other three and that too, under an assessment fixed With these improvements our State would the adopted child of the pastor Skowronski," elevated than the rest. " This is the tent provisions of an act passed just before its gentlemen. The three first named gentle- several years since, and now, confessedly, arise and shine, like the sun of brightness,

She is a hornetty. place, and it takes put gentlemen, acting as the agents of thoir re- several charters which I hope she may obto Maricaberg to find my adopted father. On cutoring the test, she saw a large the interest, and finally the principal of our A record of the proceedings in each case, spective States. And I am not aware that tain; for notwithstanding she is most out Conduct me, then, to him-in his house-in number of officers, in the centre of whom State Bonds, thereafter to be sold, the State signed by the gentlemen selected, will be more than these two States were in the mar- of the State, she is in North Carolina, and I kis dungeon-no matter where-so that I she immediately recognized the young sol- placing in said Bank the funds necessary to exhibited to the Committee of Finance. The ket purchasing honds at the time, while a go in for the whole State without exception. dier, her companion. "Where is the Czar!" do so; and it was also necessary to procure remaining $111,000 not sold on the 20th much larger number were selling them. Can't father L. Q. Sharpe get a charter for suitable plates on which to have the bonds. October, are now advertised to be sold on Both these gentlemen were natives of North a company to navigate flunting Creek Carolina, reared and educated in the State. That ought to be allended to.

We give the concluding portion of the dition to do so, to selling the bonds, and The estimate are of course confined to your proceedings on the bill for the protec-Treasurer's Report as follows : "The debt of the State, for the better in the Treasury, upon which interest would the receipts into, or disbursements from, There were some noble speeches made on "Make her my wife-the wife of a sol- understanding of which, reference may be have been accruing while it was lying idle. the Literary Fund. But by an examina- that subject, which, I suppose, is very im-time.

This debt has undergone some changes State.

" It matters not," sold Catharine ; " you This delt will be increased soon to $3,- bids.

horse for my use " " Do tell me what has occurred at Marienberg," said Catharine. "Why, do you not hear the cannon?---Gen. Scheremeticf, with the army is home reply barding Marienberg. Oh, it is a cruch sight facts presented.

" My father, my benefactor " cried Catharine, sobbing.

The

"What is that to you " replied the young general.

girl. "I am in haste, and pray you let me pass. " You, of course, are not aware then, that the town is in the hands of the Russians," said the man. "Well, what then !" interrupted Catharine. "That all the inhabitants are prisoners ; my husband. and if you pursue your route, you will also be taken prisoner yourself." "Thank you for your advice; but my ite inninded bir name.

may find him."

Skovvonski.

gracq

eaca pe ?!!

"Who is your General ?"

im there without help ?"

the General of the officer.

be properly buried."

" She wishes to speak to you may be." swered the mon.

to behold

Thomas Mackeller, author of " Droppings from earthly friend, that she immediately started arine, who seemed quite bewildered. The lines below have much of the for Maricuberg ; but on reaching the town "I say," replied sile, hesitating, " my since the close of the fast meal year, on the sums of $1,000 each. The sums of $1,000 each. The remain which interes and pathes of Hood. They will, no she was met by one of the guard, with, alt, find favor with the Printer, whose toils and "Where are you going ?"

obles are faclingly described. THE DOOM OF THE PRINTER.

. For twenty and years and more, ife has worth away muchy forms of passonous air.

"re yearned for a sight of the valleys fair, And the light of open day.

An innorent prisoner doomod. My least is being within illy alloubl a man untuinted by gnilt. the blood of a creature never both spilt, He pent, like a felon, for sin ?"

The printer then coughed and sighed-The stars were growing dim, a usward glanced at the morning sky, by thought it were good to die, And do th would be rest to hom-

His heart was tired of heating ; He proyed to the Lord above ty a man whose heart had been riven, of or other men's interest given. And he cought has merey and love.

He hard to his humble hame ; He infinit awake to ery, letter (ob, mother) I'm leavery for bread i' as us printer lowed, with an sching head, On any Mary's bosom to data-

(1) ye, who have never known The richness found in a crist, estimate seen on the develate shelf. I poor mat's pocket is empty of pelf. Receive my slory on trust.

Say but in your carries score, hy her whetraces these rough written rigines And much of his rhym. . is true.

Remember this holy truth-Leverity guilty of bloods:

Miscellaneous.

From Blackwood's Magazine. THE EMPRESS OF RUSSIA.

it who was remarkable for his piety, be- taking her hand, "show me the place where of magnificence unusual for him; and in the State Bonds, while this was to be succeeded of the revenue collected by Sheriffs, for the are, and unweavied efforts of doing you saw him fall."

rol. On returning to his hamble dwelling The night was dark, and it was with dir-the night was dark, and it was with dir-the that point, the attention of the capitalists, that description of revenue to have increased the that point, the attention of the capitalists, that description of revenue to have increased the plea that wounded vanity and disap-the plea that wounded vanity and disap-the plea that wounded vanity and disap-the plea that the North and in Europe, would be the very member of the House to the attention of the capitalists, that description of revenue to have increased the plea that wounded vanity and disap-the plea that wounded vanity and disapthe tries of a child. His horse showed an soon came to a field covered with the bodies the battle of Pruth." In a space to proceed; he dismounted, of the slam, while the cries that arose told She was blessed with two children, one more attracted to our stocks, and the re- went into operation, and I anticipated a still inversed the object of distress. There lay a a scene of horror. It was dark, and how other-a daughter-became Empress of known. For I have found that the latter the re-assessment of real estate that is to all frozen child. Wrapping it in his cloak, could she distinguish her benefactor ? . Soon Russia. Temporated his horse, and in a short a soldier appeared with a fantern, which he is a soldier appeared with a fantern, which he is the Great placed the crown, with great the State by the meagre lists of exports in value, since the last assessment, in every kindly offered her, but advising her to dis-puter, and pisced in the care of his faithful at once declined.

the family. She was named Catharine, not formed to be a slave, though a General he breathed his last, being only in his fortyto the circumstance that she was found may be your master. You are now beyond fourth year.

" M. Catharine's day, the 25th of Novem- the camp; no person can see you. Fly " She was nursed with great care and If you want mone", here it is." and treated by the family as an

"The word of a girl without name, with- and expired May 27, 1727, at the age of dated January 1st, 1553, and running thir- sarily often great inequality of valuation of taw her. A more lovely little creature out birth, is of little consequence. I con- thirty-eight.

As the grow up she interested herself in Catharine remained unmoved, and recall hardly be imagined. and always ready to assist as occasion re- for the pastor continued, and in a few mo- rough pebble, without the attrition received So after taking the same steps, I sold in but not paid for on the Istinstant, as I have that has yet to be paid out to two of the objects for which these bonds are sold. These with your friends, replied Catharine. These with your friends are been your friends. These with your friends a " If affected Catharine, for she loved the "with your little Catharine."

the reported him as a perent; but she revived, and was soon carried home on a him into collision with them-

" Touch me not," said Catharine, her beautiful dark eyes flashing. "I returned Czar wishes to see you."

As the officer did not seem disposed to inquired Catharine of the officer.

comply with her request, she inquired, dier, who was seated. "General Scheremeticf," was the reply.

"I wish, then, to speak to the General." In a few moments, as the Cossack officer wise, Catharine," said the Emperor of Rus- of her subscription, and therefore arrange- State Bonds. For when I have been able as inquiring where the General could be sia. " How astonished you appear 1 Dees ments had to be made at once, for borrow- te obtain a premium afte such sales on such "given to the Treasurer, with proper restricfound, an old weman, perceiving her, uttered the news grieve you ? Does my title pre- ing a larger sum of money than our Banks funds, I have feit it my duty to do so. a cry of despair. " O, my dear child, you went you from loving me !"

ter." The old lady was the servant of as the future Empress of Russia.

Here closes the thread of fiction in our place. Catharine turned pale at this and intelli- stor, After their marriage, the Emperor of Moscow, where she received every atten- lie in that city, and also arrangements with could get from others, and especially from It is pretty severe on Judge Saunders; but The officer hade her follow him, and he tion becoming her publics. She was lovely it, for the advancement of such sum of the Banks in this city, in which the State is soon introduced her into the General's and beautiful. She loved to do good, and money as should be required for the Rail- also interested.

tent. She threw becself at Scheremeticfs to make others happy around her. feet, " A grace, general ! for pity's sake, a " No doubt Peter the Great saw that she from a sale of her bonds.

to him ; he had absolute power to raise her lasting only uttil the close of this Assembly be allowed to seek for his body, that it may royalty, she did not forget the pastor of Ma. with this Bank or some other in the city of to be less than $1000 and plates were prorienberg. She loved him still and did what New York. The tone of her voice was so peculiar, she could to cheer his last hours. He never a heart-broken brokher for succor did erays, and her countenance so commanding, yet recovered from his wounds, and survived inquire into the fitness of the Bank selected ;

at the sight of her youth nod courage, and Catharine mourned over his departure, and upon such inquiry, that a better selection said, "The camp is situated outside of the sighed that one she had loved most of all could not, under the circumstances, have walls ; if I grant your request, what guar- on earth was now no more.

antee shall I have that you will not try to She often accompanied the Emperor in cape?" his journeys through his empire, and fre- after inature remained to it by sales of bonds for these wherever found; and I accord to his Honor turning, that he might be set free legally in whatever he is onticed to af each but then it whatever he is onticed to af each but then it whatever he is onticed to af each but then it whatever he is onticed to after a sole but the might be set free legally in declaration he issued we find these words . by other sales of similar amount.

a short distance on the snow he dis- that many were still alive. It was, indeed, of which-a son-died when a child. The sources of the State become more generally larger amount in 1856, in consequence of

That child was at once adopted by the continue her search till morning. This she pomp, upon the head of Catharine. His from North Carolina, because of the want, portion of the State, but especially in cer errant, an old lady who had long resided "But," said the brave soldier, " you are attended him constantly. January 28, 1725, our products to our ports.

ty years.

INFLUENCE OF WOMAN .- Man is but a ment.

and of his flock, his naturally robust faintly whispered, "Where am I ?" down into a smoothness which occasions him scription, ex obtation was evidently giving way. This "With your friends," replied Catharine- to roll over and over with the rest of his July, 1853.

There !" said he, pointing to the sol- engraved. Besides, the individual stock. the 20th December, inst.

were willing, at the time, to furnish in ad. Hence I charged the North Carolina Rail- to preserve, in any event, her credit. will see your protector no more? He died "I loved you as a soldier," said she; "I vance of the sale of the first $500,000 of road Company a premium on part of these on the battle-field by a Russian ballet, while will also love you as an Emperor." The our bonds for the benefit of said road ; as it fands furnished that company, and as there in the act of binding up the wounds of a Czar arow, and taking the hand of the was important to the interests of the State, has been some doubt about the propriety of poor soldier. He is dead-my poor mas- young ophin, presented her to his officers that the sale of such an amount should be such a charge against the Company, I will advertised several weeks before it took state, that I took the greund that, as these

Accordingly I made a contract for the and she was only part net sole owner of the road, before it could be taised by the State,

"No doubt Peter the Great saw that she from a sale of her bonds. was precisely the woman who could share The contract is on file in the Treasurer's feet a connection between the Raleigh and we should have refrained from transferring (mr. Myers replied at considerable length, explaining some peculiar circumstances con-"What does the child want" inquired his enthusiasm, and sympathize in his plans, office, for the inspection of the Committee Gaston and the Scahoard and Roanoke it to our columns : The obscurity of her birth was no obstacle on Finance. It is, of course, temporary,

"It is true," replied Catharine. "Dear to the loftiest condition in his empire." and it will, therefore, he necessary for the pastor Skorrontki! The favor I ask is, to Though surrounded with the honors of Assembly to make a permanent contract

The Committee of Finance will, of course, strutched not a finger to bless and to save, so ingenuous, that the General was moved but a short time. His end was peace, and I flatter myself that it will be found, been made.

Before leaving New York, I concluded, In 1711, when Peter was at war with the $500,000 of the bonds, if not the second al- latter purposes. ly. In 1711, when Peter was at war with the so, in that city, rather than in Baleigh-a Go, then," soid the General ; "bat re- Tarks, by her extraordinary shill and supe. so, in that city, rather than in Baleigh-a discretion given in the Act prescribing such peror, and saved the army from being de- sales, as it designates no particular place. ceipts and disbursements for the fiscal years demeanor. He should remember that he handed round.) Is the little town of Marienberg lived a On leaving the tent, she soon met the stroyed or taken prisoners. Peter eaused at any one time, anything like $500,000 My reasons for estimating a larger amount health was now rapidly deeling. Catharine as yet, of facilities for the transportation of tain localities. This law, I think, should be Accordingly I invited, in January, 1854, er uniformity of valuation. in various newspapers, scaled proposals till stands, the different boards of Commission-Catharine sustained the title of Empress the 31st of March, to be addressed to me at ers are separately, not only in different with great dignity, and was greatly beloved New York, directed to the care of Messra, counties, but in different portions of the "Fly! when I are given my word not by her subjects. Her reign was short .- Brown and DeResset of that city, for the same county, without concert or consulta-She survived her husband about two years, purchase of $500,000 North Carolina hondy, tion with each other, hence there is necesquent sales, is shown by the Tabular State- timated receipts in 1855, the amount of

The vaterable Skovronski was grow- ments he was found nearly senseless, and from contact with the gentler sex. It is September, 1853, at the same place, anoth- also thore to be sold on the 20th December and, and, ander his excessive labors, for quite speechless. After several attempts, he wonderful how the ladies pamice a man or $500,000 more bonds of the same de- next; and have accordingly placed in the down into a smoothness which occasions him scription, except that they were dated 1st column of disbursements, the small amount holders in the North Carolina Railroad A small portion of the amount under the and may therefore be supposed to be well Your humble and obedient servant, in "There? That is my hushand " Company, had just placed themselves in a head of premium, was obtained on the acquainted with her resources and her the small voice of a little child, which is "He is thy husband and the Coar like- situation to call upon the State for a portion Northern exchange received on the sale of people. I suppose the usual authority will be

J. UPPING JR.

-----EMANCIPATION OF JERRY.

Most of our readers have doubtless heard of "Jerry," a slave belonging to the Hon, D. M. Barringer. It appears that Mr. B. is desirous of setting Jerry free. The following is a sketch of the proceedings on the bill to emancipate Jerry, in the House of We know not who wrote the following Commons, Dec. 5: The bill for the eman-reading. Mr. Smith, of Halifax, said that he was it is a life-like portraiture of his Honor, opposed on principle to the emancipation of nected with Jerry's history, and appealing

Mr. Dargan followed in the same strain, the last Astembly requires bonds seld not as usual, acted in the several capacities of Mr. Barringer said Jerry had been in his Judge, Counsel, and Jury. Such rapid service fourteen years, and had traveled strides towards the complete exercise of the with him in Europe; that during all that It will be seen that besides meeting the one man power, are certainly usurpations time he had never heard the slightest thing ordinary calls upon the Treasury, there has without precedent even in the Judiciary of alleged against him, but, on the contrary, he been advanced from it, in the last two years. North Carolina. But this is not all. Eve-was a general favorite. He is remark-240.000 to take up the Haleigh and Gaston ry one who has seen Judge Saunders on the akle for his honesty and humility, and in Loads endorsed by the State : 380,000 for bench, must have been surprised at his utter his (Mr. B.'s) opinion, is one of the best Deep River, and a much larger amount for want of common courtesy towards the Bar, colored men living. While at the North, I respect and admire talent and learning portunities to escape, but he preferred reas well as in Europe, he had numerous op-

A few words in explanation of some of virtues only serve to show, by contrast, in Mr. Shepherd spoke in behalf of Jerry, is the people's second-not their master. Mr. Sicele was opposed to allowing any and he should remember, that although he has grown fat, in a measure, off the public Mr. McKerron said the very credita

Mr. McKesson said the very creditable crib, it ill becomes him now to snap the manner in which Jerry conducted himself among the abolitionists of the North last But perhaps he should be pardoned, on summer ought to be in itself a double inpointed hopes will goad a man to insult his liberate him; and when in New York once, best friend. The late election of U. S. Sen- meeting some North Carolina brokers, shaators which gave general dissatisfaction to ving the paper money of their State, he the well-disciplined party, does not set well took gold from his pocket and redeemed on the Judge's political stomach. He, as the paper at its full value, for the honor of everybody knows, has or had aspirations his native State. He (Mr. McK.) hoped (modest, of course) for that distinguished such conduct would not be overrooked.

honor; and the regret seemed to be, that Mr Smith made some remarks in opposiour court came so late he could not reach tion to the bi".

Raleigh before the election, to prosecute Mr. Vance said he was a friend of Jerry's and moved that his daguerreotype he sent On Monday and Tuesday, he dispatched, to the Senate with a proposition to print ! after a fashion, the business; and yesterday Mr. Jordan spoke at considerable leghth morning left for the "City of Oaks," with in opposition to the bill, which he considout having Court formally adjourned at all. ered as establishing a bad precedent. He Thus you see, if any man has any pleading said there were already too many free neto do, he can call at his leisure and do it; grocs in the State she were not made happy by their smancipation, but were, in has opinion, more miserable than any slaves. appointed and nothing short, perhaps, of Free negroes have become a nuisance, and another trip to poor, "unfortunite Spain," for his part, he would not vote for the emancipation of Jerry or any other slave, unless the bill in their behalf contained a provision to send them from the country as our Court remains open. Like poor Clingman, he is sadly dis-will calm his troubled spirit. Yadkin Co., Dec. 7th, '54.

his claims.

Respectfully submitted, DANIEL W. COURTS, -----funds belonged to the State exclusively, catharine turned paie at this sad intenti-gence, and inquired, " Have you, then, left placed her in a private dwelling in the city above purpose, with the Bank of the Repub. road, it was proper to charge as much as I article, communicated to the Rowan Whig, cipation of Jerry was taken up for a second sum that should be found necessary to ef- word of the censure in this communication, the slave.

Railroads, there has been paid out of the Treasury $87,500; but I concluded to sell only $57,000 for that purpose, as an Act of this week. Judge Saunders presided ; and,

Weldon and Gaston Road, and the the clerks and the witness.

his journeys through his empire, and fre- after mature reflection, that it would be Neuse and Tar rivers, than has yet been re-

"Go, then," said the General; "but re-member your promise to return, for you be-rior judgment, she saved the life of the Em, discretion given in the Act prescribing such the items contained in the estimates of re-demeanor. He should remember that he for demeanor. He should remember that he

The night was dark, and it was with dif- "She has been of the greatest assistance to I believe that, by advertising and selling any one year, is the fact that I have found But methan he choid in the second best of the greatest assistance to the greatest assistance year 1855, than has yet been realized in both at the North and in Europe, would be od every year since the present revenue law are very much underrated by many persons take place in 1855, as that description of amended, so as to insure, if possible, great-As it now

The result of this, as well as of subse- value. I have placed in the column of es-those bunde sold on the 20th October last,

JUDGE SAUNDERS.

Under the act appropriating one half the Did we not believe that he merits every slaves and wished to know something about

Our Superior Court has been in session strongly in his behalf.

tions, to borrow money for the State, so as Public Treasarer.

JUSTITIA.