VALUABLE

TOWN LOTS FOR SALE.

BY virtue of a Deed of Trust to me executed by Dr. William L. McRee, deceased., in his life time, I shall, on Monday of the Superior Court for Burke county, being the 19th day of November, 1855, at the door of the Court-House in Morganton, expose to public sale, to the highest bidder, a valuable lot in the town of Morganton, one square west of the Court-House, fronting on Main and College streets, where Dr. McRee resided, containing four or more acres, on which there is a very fine nearly completed, with four large rooms below stairs and as many above, with a wide passage above and below, and cost about three thousand dollars. Adjoining the main building is a fine one-story brick building, with two rooms and a piazza in front, with all the necessary outhouses and stables, in good repair. Immediately on the corner of Main-street, is a fine one story brick building roughcast and covered with tin, with a large and convenient Store-Room well-fitted up and two other suitable rooms attached. Also, a yard tastefully decorated with evergreens, flowers and a fine garden.

BRICK DWELLING HOUSE,

Its situation is central and convenient, nay and person desirous of purchasing a beautiful, healthy and desirable residence, would do well to attend the sale. The Western Rail Road will be here in less than three years and property will double in value. Should this opportunity to secure a Summer or a permanent residence unsurpassed by any in this or any other town in North Carolina be lost, there is no probability of acquiring within the corporate limits of the town a residence so desirable.

EAGLE CITY!

THE GREAT POINT OF ATTRACTION!!

DESTINED TO BE THE GREAT CENTRE OF

Manufacturing Interests in

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA, and perhaps of the

UNITED STATES.

I INTEND to have a railroad from SALISBURY to EAGLE CITY. People may laugh at the idea, if they choose, as I doubt not many will. But didn't they laugh at Fulton whilst he was talking about propelling boats by steam, at the rate of six miles an hour? Didn't they laugh at Columbus, when he talked of discovering a new world in the West? Didn't they laugh at the colonies when they grew a little rebellious, and talked at independence? I know I'm a small potato compared to Fulton or Columbus; or to the Franklins, Washingtons, Putnams, &c., of revolutionary memory—glorious, whole-souled men and patriots as they were—worthy sires of men a better race than we. But haven't people laughed at me a thousand times when I have seen fit to talk of things which they thought I couldn't do? I'm none of the "can't" stock. I say I intend to have a Rail Road from Salisbury to Eagle City. I don't wish to get in the way of Charlotte and her Western scheme, nor in the way of Salisbury and the Western extension. Mine is to be a North Western Road from Salisbury. It must be built. Why, there are millions of dollars worth of produce in that direction, and mines of mineral wealth beyond calculation, which this Road will bring to the Markets. It must come out. It shall come out. Eagle City shall be the terminus of the Road, unless the people above see proper to carry it on. But Eagle City must rise: Like that heaven aspiring bird, it must soar aloft. It is worthy of being the home of the greatest and best of mortal men, as it is now the abode of peace, plenty and happiness. Why not build a great manufacturing city there? It has the water power, timber, stone and every thing else in abundance. There are productive lands, pure water, pure air—no chills and fever there—and willing hearts and ready hands. There may be found waving harvests, rich meadows, lovely vales and enchanting hills. Primeval forests, cool springs and numerous rills. All inviting, all smiling, all cheering and all delighting. And shall these great blessings remain forever locked up? I tell you nay. The North-Western Rail Road will open the gate to this Eden of America; and if Eagle City be the terminus of that Road won't it be a place! Won't people then want to buy lots there? And won't lots bring a price? Lands, for miles around the city, and all along the line of Road—won't they rise in value? The increase on their value alone, will double the cost of the Road. Who doubts these things? There is a mint of money in Hunting Creek alone. Every pound of its crystal waters will turn to money, and this great agent of commerce and enterprise will soon turn to good account the abundant resources of this abundant region: Let's build the Road. I'll take help if I can get it; but if no one else will take hold, I'll attempt it on my own responsibility. The work shall be done.

CHARLOTTE HOTEL.

THIS Hotel situated in the centre of the town of Charlotte, convenient to all the places of business—is still kept open for public accommodation. The proprietor has been engaged in keeping a public house at this stand for fourteen years. He now offers to the use of the public a new edition of his former house greatly enlarged and improved, presenting in front a two story VERANDA 100 feet in length by 12 feet in width, handsomely shaded by trees in the side walk, affording a pleasant promenade at all hours of the day.

The house is thoroughly furnished throughout, and in every part of it creature comforts are abundant and tangible, especially in the DINING ROOM, where the inner man is renewed day by day.

Connected with this Hotel are stables affording room for 100 horses, abundantly furnished with grain and provender, attended by faithful and obliging hostlers.

The proprietor feels confident that with his long experience and many new advantages added to his own native disposition to be pleasing and agreeable, he is prepared to offer his friends and the rest of mankind, as many comforts and as much good cheer as will be found anywhere, perhaps a little more so.
