BLIND BOY AT PLAY.

BY RLIEA COOK. The blind boy 's been at play, mother, And merry games we had ; We led him on our way, mother.

And every step was glad, ut when we found a sterry flower, And praised its varied hae, tess came trembling down his check,

Just like a grop of dew. We took him to the mill, mother, Where falling waters made A rainbow o'er the rill, mother,

As poiden sun rays played. at when we shouled at the scene, And helled the elear blue sky. He stood quite still upon the bank And breathed a long, long sigh,

We saled him why he west, mother,

Whene'er we found the spots
Where periwinkle crept, mother,
O'er wild forgetime nots.

All moth he said, while tors randown As fast as summer showers,

* It is because I cannot see The aunahine and the flowers."

Oh! that poor sightless boy, mother, His taught me I am blest; For I can look with joy, mother, On all I love the best. And when I see the dencing stream,

And dulains red and white I kneel upon the mordow and, And thank my God for sight
