Murshal any public force of the United Horth Carolina delbig. tiction, to be used as a portion of the pome countries, and if that do not suffice to maintain order, then he rany call forth the milicoupley for the same object any part of the land or naval torce of the United States. So, also, if the observation he to the laws of the Territory, and it be duly presented to him as a case of insurrection, he may employ for its suppression the militia of any State, or the land or mayal force of the United States. And if the Territory be invaded by the cirizens of other States, whether for the purpose of deciding elections or for my other, and the local authorities find themselves muchle to repul or withstand it, they will be entitled to, and upon the fact being fully asvertained they shall most certainly receive. the aid of the general government.

But it is not the dary of the President of the United States to volunteer interposition will be rwite for it will not eccurregion by force to preserve the parity of elections either in a state or Territory. To do so would be subversive of public freedom. And whether a law be wise or unwise, just or unjust, is not a question for him to judge. Builts, of Miss, has been circled Speaker. Much that system affords no juri-diction of re- of which will be given in our rest.

ble and orderly people of the Territory of on the South Carolina Rad Read, to the speed at Kansas to elect their own legislative body, which the train was running over the curve.

The most diminutive of birds, will fight, they young ones in her nest, against the away." make their own social laws, and regulate their any ocial institutions, without foreign selves indef-thrubly in return to encourage the new confirmer. and stimulate strice within the Territory.
The inflammatory agriction, of which the present is but a part, has for twenty years. In comp my with allow stockholders we left produced nothing save unmittegated exil. Cheel the on Tuesday norming last, for Chester North and South. But for it the character to attend the Annual Meeting of the stockholders of the domestic institutions of the future of the Charlotte and S. C. Rail Road. Having a new State would have been a metter of too. Inthe business in Columbia, and a day to spare, tigance States, personally or enfectively, to by the appointment of J. H. Wilson, Eq. of climate, and production, hopes of rapid continues and the pursuit of happiness on the part of the settiers themselves, with an interpretation of the settiers of sometiments and the pursuit of happiness on the part of the settiers themselves, with an interpretation of the settiers of some position with our prayers and tears to stop the temptations which have made the appetites of some any position with our prayers and tears to stop the temptations which have made the appetites of some production. My dear neitee: I have not yet come to the point with you, and I must do it even if it be my last duy to you in the name of the setting the interpretation of the setting the interpretation of the setting of some in the setting that a fact that the interpretation with our prayers and tears to stop the temptations which have made to stop the temptations which h office in error to the industriction of the con- we do not stop at the ster, and when we returned good wi-les, but with no interference from then took a cross multi Juclock.

the cities of the States, and repeated the States, and repeated the continued a resolution authorizing the continued a resolution authorizing the continued as the Directors of the road to run the passage in pamphlet form, and the continued as the Directors of the road to run the passage in this lectures, I should for him, and he one of the best customers of the states, and repeated the passage in his lectures, I should for him, and he one of the best customers of the states and want in hitterest gall and wormwood, and one of the best customers of the states are the passage in his lectures, I should for him, and he one of the best customers of the states are the passage in his lectures, I should for him, and he one of the best customers of the line and the states are the passage in his lectures, I should for him, and he one of the best customers of the line and the states are the passage in his lectures, I should for him, and he one of the best customers of the states are the passage in his lectures, I should for him, and he one of the best customers of the states are the passage in his lectures, I should for him, and he one of the best customers of the states are the passage in his lectures, I should for him, and he one of the best customers of the states are the passage in his lectures, I should for him, and he one of the best customers of the states are the passage in his lectures, I should also the states are the passage in his lectures, I should also the states are the passage in his lectures. I should also the states are the passage in passage in his lectures, I should also the states are the passage in his lectures. I should also the states are the passage in his lectures, I should also the states are the passage in his lectures. I should also the states are the passage in his lectures, I should also the states are the passage in his lectures. I should also the states are the passage in passage in his lectures. I should also the states are the passage in passage in his lectures, I should also the states a and that, therefore, the highest conducts tions of personal honor and potriotism the above deviced owners. er or influence be may powers, the integri- dwar. by of the laws of the republic.

imperative daty to exert the whole power of the Federal Executive to support public alent of the rend shell be reflected by the order in the Tarritory; to windicate its successioners, mapped of the Board of Directors. laws, whether federal or local, against all.

Another resolution, which if corried out will attempts of organized resistance; and so to have an important effect upon the nespecity of prot et its people in the establishment of our cits, we offered by Hon. D. M. Breinger, of their own institutions, and in the full cross-consider it. Applicate of courseling their cross-linears from without and in the full rejoyment of the rights of self-government Manchester, and running a road from theme secured to them by the constitution and Murray's Ferry, on the North Eastern Road. the organic art of Congress.

ed to the be the governor in D. comber last and there seemed to be a great declar enthusiasm were specially quieted without the effusion upon the subject. of blood, and in a antisfactory manner. The former President Mr. Palmer, in an able are determined to make no change, I must there is, to say, reason to apprehend that question itself, which constitutes also indurament or sension of insernal agitation and of external interference.

This, it seems to use, can best be accountilished by providing that, when the inhalitance of Kanas may descre it, and shall be of sufficient numbers to constitute a State, a convention of delagates, duly sizeted by the marking of the form. Thir, it seems to me, can best be accomthe qualified set to shall governible to frame a constitution, and thus to prepare, through regular and herful means, for its admission ndo the I mon he a State.

I re-postfully recommend the enactment of a law to that affect. I recommend, also that a recial appropropriation be made to defray any expense which hay become requisite in the executime of the laws on the maintenance of pullie order in the Territory of Kanena-FRANKLIN PIERCE.

made by the Boston prove over the alloyed at Fort Mill, S. C. inhumanity of sondring back to Enrope a young woman with so hilly who had become a charge upon the public She The structure of the Commissioners of the town was brought to this country free of expense of the receive in egain called to this Nuissante. been done in treating Let us a purper. It

ECCUT, OF MR UNIONS SCHOOL-TO show how merbanical skill and deboradd to the value of raw material the Bruish Quarterly Review gives this just unitse cal-

CHARLOTTE

Tuesday, February 12, 1826.

A Speaker at Last.

We have to announce to our readers that Mr it be constitutional -that is, if it be the disastist com has been manifested in certain fail Road lecident.

agents, and by repeal, are ample and more miles from his manuscript, and then but for a mo acceptance of the mission to England. prompt and effective town illegal violence, and of the passenger cars upsetting and snother gain if need be to keep our sons, our fath. pet the same construction upon "the net of Greeks even though they may offer eithe," ment, and sometimes standling at a word. The disorganized state of Congress has here cometational means must be seru- manufacting "his Message, which the Ed- The South has already had one two many and has to place his eyes close to the paper not prevented the usual guieties of the winpallously guarded this great prerogative meserous injury although there was a large name vortex of temptation when appetite ruins so iter has undertaken (unsolicited, I suppose,) of that class of politicians who claim to be to decipher it. His paragraphs seem to be ter season. Balls and parties are of night. pallously guarded—this great protogrative in serious injury lithing in the paragraphs seem to the paragraphs seem to be protogrative in serious and parties are of neglitive popular sovereigned paragraphs seem to the paragraphs seem to the paragraphs seem to be express in advance for him. I think I Northern men with Southern principles; composed of a succession of compound sent by occurrence, and the lovers of this species have proved that the Editor's remarks published in his diminutive article are entirely dignantly refuse to follow blindly in the lie sometimes appears to stop for breath He to gratify their taste. The President's proposed of a succession of compound sent by occurrence, and the lovers of this species have proved that the Editor's remarks published in his diminutive article are entirely dignantly refuse to follow blindly in the

Late Foreign News.

socialously diffused through remote States and Prince thouseholder the presidency, and a strangely enough a the Presidency, and a good Southern Dem. to feed the flower and the actions between the feed the flower and the actions the feed the grant and the action of the flower plant and the action of the f

Meeting of Stockhelders.

meeting remeted the restriction upon the direct since then that something has changed you this writer does, the absurdity that the to the circumstances of eministrans of the restriction upon the area in every respect. Is it so? Are you described to the purchese of iron; and a rese in every respect. Is it so? Are you described was elemented the restriction upon the area in every respect. Is it so? Are you described was elemented to the purchese of iron, and a rese in every respect. Is it so? Are you described was elemented the restriction upon the area in every respect. Is it so? Are you described was elemented the restriction upon the area in every respect. Is it so? Are you described was elemented to the purchese of iron, and a reservation upon the area.

tought supported with the North Carolina and comes it, that on a ladies tongue are found illar to the President, or can compose as in the history of our goodly city, and is look life and character of Oucen Victoria, and nor by any or sutherized military force, to South a seeing Rail Reeds. Mr Polmer opposed so glibby such herrid words "ginger-pop," rin mpt to a meach upon or nearly the au. the resolution and stated that it would have the "champaine" and "good old brandy." Nacitizen of our country should permit the read, not to run on Sundays; he self to such a creature; for he will be a beast Speaker, the charge of absurdity will rewell to forget that he is a part of its gove.

The first portion of er occasion, and as most of them come to a miterable and lamanted death at the self to such a part of its gove. himself to forget that he is a part of its goss to more the shange it would require an outlay of determination of me policy and its measurer, she resolution and it was a test down in you have got since you have been risiting which is published in this weeks number ington Course yesterday was crowded not

Mr. Il way Surveys then introduced a resolution

Among other very important regulations proced Entertaining these views, it will be my was one requiring the Board of Derectors to petition the Legislatures at North and South Carlling for an amendment of the charter, so that the Pres-

the organic act of Congress. The property of the project bearried out, it will give us a read to the project bearried out, it will give us a read to the project of the West o Although serious and threstening disturby road, and also mother roats to the scaboard by another in the Territory of Kanete, accounts, was of Wilmington. It was press a unanymously, and fining enter expressioned his thee, the dates insist, however painful to me, that you of which he had so fithfully discharged. Aspro. change your correspondents, as well as the discribers will continue to occur there, with printe resolutions were reported by the committee kindred you were once proud, with us, to beincreasing tendency to violence, until some to extend the reports of the efficers, through the decisive tension to be taken to dispose of the Courant, Hen. D. M. Barroger, tendering the country that which constitutes the in thooks of the steekholders to him, and effering a Seco theke's author soud for 17

The fellowing gentlemen were elected Directors for the cusuing year :

Charleston - Jun. Caldwell.

The new Board tion elected Wm. Johnson, Esq. this place, Persident, a gentleman who will After nearly all the N. C. Stockholders and ton resolution new adopted to liable all future meet. age at Columbia by a mejority of one rate 12" The present difficulty between J. Fulton. Esq., of the Welmington Journal and A. Bure, Esq. of the Welmington Journal and A. Burr, renders the last grand flourish of the trumpt of the of the Wilmington Hernold, I as been amics. this writer. It is too good to be last. Hear him bly educated through the intersection of friends,

Be About a year ago a great outery was I. We call attaction to the card of Dr. Cabb,

----MR. SPRING'S BOG PEN.

by Meuric Train A Co., and the general. The low Board passed ordinates off t ordinates agrees a created that great injustice had sever agrees it not one of which it is tellevided. How ever tally excepted by those officers. And it by its. NEIGHBORS

BURL THE N. C. WHISE

AUNT BETSY TO ESTELLE. culation : A lar of from raised at the editorial whence this canonized piece of English bucolumn is a large from raised at the convinced by the perusal of this by his Quizotic effort. But the convinced by the perusal of this by his Quizotic effort. But the convinced by the perusal of this by his Quizotic effort. But the convinced by the perusal of this by his Quizotic effort. But the convinced by the perusal of this by his Quizotic effort. But the convinced by the perusal of this by his Quizotic effort. But the convinced by the perusal of this by his Quizotic effort. But the convinced by the perusal of this by his Quizotic effort. But the convinced by the perusal of this by his Quizotic effort. But the convinced by the perusal of this by his Quizotic effort. But the convinced by the perusal of this by his Quizotic effort. But the convinced by the perusal of this by his Quizotic effort. But the convinced by the perusal of this convinced by the perusal of this convinced by the perusal of this convinced by the convinced by the convinced by the perusal of this convinced by the convinced Thirty one pounds of from here beared mother were a child. The heen made into wire upwards of one loss No monder you despair of female influence lag, to be on very good terms; for this is a not only do not "find fault with him" for thrown open, and this modern Vulcan, the the planning into it House at any time by voting with us, and and success make it is bought, and so fine on "the appetite" of men, when my poor matter which concerns only himself and the his approval of the President's Message;" mighty king killer stood before that immenss when they supposed they could thereby e. we cannot by rotang meth. there-

What was it for? Was it not to cultivate a gard it as a rebuke for their failure to orfaith that was to subdue appetite? When ganize, and by vote refused to receive it or languard Address; but we all know how lecture. At length he sprung to his feet as you said "deliver me from evil" and "lead allow it to be read, while the truth is the soon he forfeited all claims to the gratitude if alarmed at something behind him, and ap- cipal competitors were O. Follett, of Columus not into temptation." Through what iu- President by the act of communicating it, of the American people, by openly violat- proached the desk at the front of the stage, bus, Ohio, and C. Wendell, of this city. strument in man is he led into temptation? extended to them more civility and courte- ing the pledges which he then gave. Look where he stood for almost a minute, survey- Asa Biggs made himself heard in the and into evil? Answer, "his appetite." It sy than they deserved." Now, so far from at his recent acts: at the very time when ing the crowd, and wiping his spectacles.— Senate yesterday for the first time. The paper nearly to correspondent's. Our tenders has been, I trust, by my influence, that Jumill be r with fee it will not even repeat.

As the audience was still coming in, and question which brought him out was a momill be r with fee it will not even repeat.

I trust, by my influence, that Juminding fault with his approval of the Mesmill be r with fee it will not even repeat.

I trust, by my influence, that Juminding fault with his approval of the Mesmill be r with fee it will not even repeat.

I trust, by my influence, that Juminding fault with his approval of the Mesmill be r with fee it will not even repeat.

There was some "noise and confusion" about the purchase two hunhave it in your letter that woman sinfluence of the above quotation in order that while ry, he appointed Reeder, an abolitionist, the door, he walked back to his chair and dred cords of wood for distribution among cannot affect man's appetite. What have I he thought he was complimenting the Pres-lived for, if I have failed in this? To be ident, he was actually doing him an injury when the inhabitants became so much en-man's plaything—to be his puppet. My by such an injudicious expression as the following the proposition. What cares Asa dear neice, I flatter myself I have been lowing: "while the truth is the President Pierce appointed Shan-manuscript in his hands, and seemed rather how much the poor suffer so that he gets more than that. I have been a daughter, by the not of communicating it extended to non, another abolitionist, to succeed him, restless and fidgety. or unjust, is not a question for him to judge. It has not a question for him to judge. It has constituted a post of the land — that is, if it be the his constitutional — that is, if it be the his constitution has been manifested in certain by the not of communicating it extended to his eight dollars per day? Why should he are the results and courtesy than the nore civility and courtesy than they have been adaughter, a wife, a mother, a sister, an aunt, and in all these my works bear evidence that I have been adaughter, a wife, a mother, a sister, an aunt, and in all these my works bear evidence that I have been adaughter, a wife, a mother, a sister, an aunt, and in all these my works bear evidence that I have been more civility and courtesy than they have been more civility and courtesy than they care!

A. O. P. Nichelson, of the Union news. It is lecture in a clear and distinct tone, with his lecture in a clear and distinct tone, with this lecture in a clear and distinct tone, with this lecture in a correspondent for the approaching morn of another President Precedent Precedent Precedent In the first that the poor suffer so that he gets more than that. I have been adaughter, a wife, a mother, a sister, an aunt, and in a wife, a mother abolitionist, to succeed him.

The President Precedent Precedent Precedent Precedent In the common that the poor suffer is the the more civility and courtesy than the gets in an authorities of the wife, a mother, a sister, an aunt, and in a wife, a mother, a sister, an aunt, and in a wife, a mother, a sister, an aunt, and in a wife, a mother, a sister, an aunt, and in a wife, a mother abolitionist, to succeed him.

After the and flagery

The President Precedent Prec I failed in you! In all these relations my being the President of a party, and not of nation, and we have therefore reason to and his hands resting on the desk. In his mission has been to persuade, I ask for no the whole American people. If I have suspect that it partakes too much of the "art left hand he held a white pocket bandker- ed ex Senator is in this city, we presume to nore. And we have used petition—persua- not formed an erroneous estimate of Presi- captandum" character. "Actions speak chief, occasionally putting his left hand in practice before our Courts.

On Tuesday last, the up train when about 7 sion and not the ballot box, to the Commis- dent Pierce's political accumen, he would be louder than words." We have high classic his vest poeket. He seldom raises his eyes. How George M. Dallas has signified his

And will you - will any one of sense or reason we may be allowed to form an opinion from he the President of the United States. Mr. short, pointed and epigramatic.

say a wife, a mother, a sister shall not do all his remark about the woodrous "harp of a Tazewell at that time a distinguished Sens. His betures are principally composed of The approaching session of the National or domestic mole-tation. Laterfurences on By the arrival of the Persia at New York, we she can by persuasion, and petition; or any thousand strings," and the tune that was for from Virginia, after contemplating Pres. the one hand, to procure the abolition or proadvanced I isd. with solve during the work of save those so dear to her? Save them from the manifestation of his faculty for the appearance to her said: "He deceived me once, that was a fouch of the sensual licentions of that body. Many delegates from the manifestation of his faculty for the appearance to her said: "He deceived me once, that was a fouch of the sensual licentions of that body. Many delegates from the manifestation of his faculty for the appearance to her said: "He deceived me once, that was a fouch of the sensual licentions of that body. Many delegates from the manifestation of his faculty for the appearance to her said: "He deceived me once, that was a fouch of the sensual licentions of that body. Many delegates from the manifestation of his faculty for the appearance to her said: "He deceived me once, that was a fouch of the sensual licentions of that body. Many delegates from the said: "He deceived me once, that was a fouch of the sensual licentions of that body. Many delegates from the said: "He deceived me once, that was a fouch of the sensual licentions of that body. Many delegates from the said: "He deceived me once, that was a fouch of the sensual licentions of that body. Many delegates from the said: "He deceived me once, that was a fouch of the sensual licentions of that body is the said: "He deceived me once, that was a fouch of the sensual licentions of that body. The said is the sai > are proud to give." But my dear neice I mertal Shakspeare has said : find that appetite with our rulers is as you "The man that hath no music in his send say too strong for their gallantry. But Is fit for treasum, strategem and spoils."

if it be my last duty to you in the name of strange that a harp of thousand strings my dead sister. I have seen a change in you Should keep in tune so long." with at the loss of constant of such distances o quire him to matutain, by whatever of pow- nearly at the same import, which was also soles in Heaven. Think of the words our excel- not the power is elect a Democrat even if their presence. -the Elder was not there that time :

"Who steels my nurse, steels trush; 'tis some thing, nothing. [ands; "Twas name," the his, and has been all ve to thous-But he that friehes from me my good name, Robs me of that, which not enriches him,

The admission on your part, my dear neice, is very bad for those with whom you have been a sociating since you left home, and truly not a very flattering picture of the ladies who did not petition with us. I think you in-inuated too much against them, and their appetites. To close you must come home soon, and try to regain what you have lost in sentiment and social position; and we will do all we can to belp you; but if you knowledge

I am your grieved aunt BETSY

YOR THE N. C. WILLO.

The following effusion appeared in the Western Democrat" of the 29th January

* A writer ("Civis ") to last week's "While "place upon a horp of a time, some strings," the tune of more than a column of that paper, finding tout with us, for our approval of the Pro dent's Message. We control undertake to orga with a men who minutains, as this writer does, the aboundity that the Democrats and not the Know. Nothings of Congress are responsible to the fedure to ricet a Speaker. We will needly re mark that he is not slope in his condemnation those who approve the Message. Hale the ale tion Senster from New Hompstore, and all his party to the North, are equally opposed to it and its supporters. We cannot withhold from our

" In conclusor, I, in all kindness, foreware the progress of the Southern American party, he em boths upon a Quixotic experition. As well might be affected by the Mississipping the Mississipping and the Mis with a bulench; or to extragand the t. ye of the out when he sinces with his meredian spiendor by a furthing residuality. The expect of Americans will ultimately prevail, will finally triample; and it will be an long proclaimed throughout the length and termith of the Union, school from Maine to California, and se exhaed from Florida to fown, i might not we who signed the petition have I cannot refrain from stating here that, if re-peruse my communication; and then I derous balls of his salire and sarcosm.

NAME AND POST OF THE PARTY OF PERSONS ASSESSED.

Joked for some in bosoms of Carolinians; the Editor alludes to me, or my harp, or shall hope to read in some future number.

Be depicts the weak and service defirence ability, more thorough knowledge of the Ah! my neice had my boy Julian been home my tune, be unwarily compliments me very of your paper, of your paper, of your moderaking to arrive college, and an officer he would have highly; but I protest against his marring gue "with me, which you say, you cannot gloried in standing " alone in his glory " if the beauty of the couplet contained in the do now I now most respectfully request you need be to speak-to set-to die who a be hymn which my father requested me to com- to "extend" to me "the civility and coursaw our petition with our prayers and tears mit to memory at a certain period during tesy " which I "deserve" by publishing in ing ones but bad editions of the first, and tending the term for the naturalization of to stop the temptations which have made my boyhood and as the line which he has the Western Democrat not only this, but al. the appetites of so many rule them to ruin. quoted looks melaneboly standing alone, I so the communication which you notice

You say to Julian, above all things, to evidence is to be found in the letter of the spend, lose or win money, they generally do vanced age of eighty years,

Elder Lovejug's? Your uncle and myself of the Whig. In this letter Mr. Marshall only by gentlemen, but quite a respectable have tried to teach you to lay up treasure says: "We, (the American party.) have number of ladies graced the occasion with lent minister came over last sacrament day we wished to doso. We cannot carry with The day was rather disagreeable, being us to that party, the scattering votes which cold and cloudy, but the sport was fine and never have as jet voted with us, some of every one seemed to enjoy themselves to the [ands: them not members of our order." Read at life. I must confess that the scenes most so the following quotations: "They, (the commonly enacted on such occasions are Democrats,) car organize the House at any not congenial with my taste, and I never go, time by voting with us, and we cannot by without censuring myself for it afterward voting with then. "The struggle may be There is a pleasing excitement consequent long and hard; but they, (the Democrats,) upon the immediate exercises of the will be forced at last to give the House to and I have enjoyed the sight presented by the Black Republicans, or to save it in the balf a dozen fiery coursers bounding round only way it can be saved, by the election of the track like a whirlwind enveloped in a sound National American. I refer the clouds of rolling dust, through which may Editor in the next place, to the speech of he disaly seen the blue and crimson coats, the Hon. Mr. Carlisle, M. C. from Virginia, and scarlet caps of the riders. which he can read when he has leisure, in But a truce to horse racing, while I nass the "National Intelligencer." And last, on to a more petial subject, and one deci-though not least, I refer him to what he dedly more rational and intellectual. I told ought to consider good, sound Democratic you last week that Thackery, the great Enevidence, which the Editor of "The Daily glish Lion, was here, and that I would tell Carolina Times," quotes from the "Wash. you what I thought of him when I heard him ington Star," under the head of "Whose roar. Well, I have heard him roar, and fault is it " The following is the substance saw him shake the dew drops from his flowof the quotation which the Editor can read, ing mane, as he demolished with rengeful "Thrown Away-We never saw an opport thirst, the airbuilt eastles and flimsy frost tunity for catching a speaker under difficult work of English nobility in the seventeenth circumstances more completely thrown a. centuries. The night approached for his apway than was that of electing Mr. Orr to pearance before a Charleston audience, at be speaker of the Thirty-fourth Congress, Hibernian Hall, and half the city was agon vesterday, after Mr. Riehardson had with. to see and hear him, drawn. It was no egregious junz paus to He is in the hands, and at the disposal of number of votes was declared duly elected ten, and so fallely made against our party, resolution of Mr. Rust, as was done on the sure a select audience, and give the lion a House then immediately proceeded to vote each, or two dollars for the course, notwith. I subjoin the following extract: for a speaker, (Mr. Richardson having pre- standing which the large and spacious Hall "It would afford me for greater pleasure, destruction, is not within the contemple combine justice with generosity.

From our Correspondents.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 7, 1856.

fore attaches itself to him. The Editor has riosity was wrought up to the highest pitch Me Peer Latelle . By nome means I have the President's Message," every candid man. He is welcome to all the honor he can gain the aute chamber back of the stage from priceless privileges transmitted to us."

was the fabric that a part of it was convert. It is fall six fort in pletely deceived.

When he received him with an audible lect one of their own party, were so compared they appeared they could thereby a me cannot by rough none of their own party, were so compared they are not should be held responsible and have no forther and the standard be held responsible and partition at this fall six fort in pletely deceived.

They are, and should be held responsible and partition at this fall six fort in pletely deceived. ed in lice of here had, into a barriete's unity failed with her hu-band's appetites. Pierce, in his present "forlors hope," needs noble and patriotic sentiments which it con- murmer of applause. He is full six feet in pletely deceived.

dren, honor, friends and religion, to take up him, and thus urge him to future aspirations; ted character, delivered in language manly probably two hundred pounds. His face is offered a resolution declaring Wm. Cullom with such a woman as he did, and go from but I do object to the manner in which he, and dignified. If President Pierce will full and ruddy, and his hair silvered over of Tennessee, Clerk of the House. Adopyou all, to a strange country and a drunk- (meaning the Editor not President Pierce,) earry out the measures which he so ably with gray, while the expression of a fine eye ted by a vote of 126 to 89. Mr. Cullom is treats of a party which be calls the "Know advocates, he will then have described the is somewhat shaded by a pair of large spec- a true American, was a member of the last Oh my neice, you cannot tell how it pains Nothing party," he means, I suppose, the lasting gratitude of his countrymen south toeles.

The suppose of the stage in the stage in well not to know that I will say any thing that is true, if the telling will do you good, and 126 against it, that I undertook to dead, and you know me as all the mother you ever fend the American party which I considered had, and yet I am sorry my dear to say that you.

When I well not to know that I will say any thing that I undertook to despend on the House, by a vote of 87 for, true Constitutional doctrine on that vexed to spring to his feet at the first intimation to spring to his feet at the first intimation to spring to his feet at the first intimation to spring to his feet at the first intimation that the addicate was ready to receive him. Six of our most distinguished and honoresty.

On Tuesday, A. J. Glossbrenner, of Pa. On Tuesday, A. J. When I used to make you and Julian get Message creates quite a surprise and sensa- unjointy of the members of the Democratic the gentlemen on his right, as if he expected to 85. Robert Morris, of Pa., American, down on your knees to say your prayers, tion among the Know Nothings. They re- and Whig parties strongly advocated the them to give him some intimation when was Postmaster, by a vote of 108 to 97.

more. And we have used petition-persua- not formed an erroneous estimate of Presi- captandum " character. " Actions speak chief, occasionally putting his left hand in practice before our Courts. irrelavent. But the Editor serms to have wake of any politician North of Mason's is unlike his great compeer and fellow coun- weekly levees are also attended by the beau been in a musical mood when he wrote it, if and Dickson's line, even though he should tryman, Maccauley, whose sentences are ty, wit, talent and fashion now congregated produced miscinavous interference on the said: "He deceived me once, that was a fonch of the sensual licentiousness of a inations of that body. Many delegates from the production of his faculty for the approach in facility of the people of this combined. The production of music. The people of this combined in the production of that body. Many delegates from the manifestation of his faculty for the approach in facility of the people of this combined in the manifestation of his faculty for the approach in the manifestation of his faculty for the approach in the manifestation of his faculty for the approach in the manifestation of his faculty for the approach in the manifestation of that body. Many delegates from the manifestation of his faculty for the approach in the manifestation of his faculty for the approach in the manifestation of his faculty for the approach in the manifestation of his faculty for the approach in the manifestation of that body. Many delegates from the manifestation of that body. Many delegates from the manifestation of that body. Many delegates from the manifestation of that body. The manifestation of that body in the manifestation of that body. The manifestation of that body. The manifestation of that body. The manifestation of that body in the manifestation of that body. The manifestation of that body. The manifestation of that body in the south in the manifestation of that body. The manifestation of that body in the south in the manifestation of that body. The manifestation of that body in the south in the manifestation of that body in the south in the manifestation of that body. The manifestation of that body in the south in the manifestation of that body in the south in the manifestation of that body in the south in the manifestation of that body in the south in the manifestation of have only one string, instead of a thousand. Anglo Saxon brethren are commonly afflictive certain.

It is better to harp upon that, than not to harp at all; or, to drop metaphor, carefully pius, just to knock them down with the pon-several individuals have been named, none first a fool and a knave, and the two succeeds the Senate Mr. Adams introduced a Lill extheir royal households as very little better, foreigners to twenty-one years, this of course It is a world's wonder that the English gov- failed. In the late canvas in Mississippi ha dear noice: I have not yet come to hope he will not "find fault" with me for your small effusion. I hope you will be ermuent has held together as long as it has stumped the State for the American party; out with you, and I must do it even quoting it with its mate, thus:

generous enough to do this; you will then noder the rule of such kings as Thackeray and that party is, in a great degree, indebt show this community that you desire to combine justice with generosity.

tells us the three Georges were, and I suped to him for their partial success in that combine justice with generosity. of all, as I really believe he was

thing to make fun of and quarrel at, and he Pierce ceases. The Hon. Jefferson Davis, seems to be glad, for the sake of his lectures, Secretary of war has been over ejected to that the Georges and their royal families the seat. were no better than they were. But for two I should have written this letter yester- isolsted passages in his lectures, I should good a Message as the President can. If ed forward to with much interest by all who the other was his feeting and pathetic epi-

Washington, Feb. 6, 1856. it is with feelings of profound satisfaction, that I announce to you the organiza, ceived from some of my personal friends tion of the House of Representatives. Not, however, on account of the men selected, Government money, which has been going them, as might be expected, are down on ded. Nathaniel P. Banks, Jr., of Massa-plurality resolution offered by Mr. Clingman was lost. Thursday and Friday were occupied by various plurality resolutions,

On Saturday the plurality rule was adopted, to take effect after three ineffectual el forts to cleet, which being made, and no final vote was bad as follows :

For N. P. Banks, Jr., of Massachusetts 103 For Wm. Aiken, of South Carolina For H. M. Fuller, of Pennsylvania For L. D. Campbell, of Ohio For Daniel Wells, Jr., of Wisconsin

the Thirty-fourth Congress; and being con-factionists, who prevent an organization. day before yesterday. Had that question chance to mar before those who could ap- ducted to the Chair made a short speech been put without postponment, and had the preciate it, tickets were put up to one dollar scknowledging the compliment, from which to-morrow by joining the Republicans; but viously withdrawn his name.) Mr. Orr would which will sent one thousand persons, has in taking the chair of the House, were I tion of one of us; and carnestly as the end bare been elected on the next succeeding been crowded to overflowing every night, supported even by the self-assurance that I mies of Americanism may desire it, it will vote. But for the intervention of the Pam- and his third lecture last night was more could bring to the discharge of its duties, never be done. We will not do that which ocratic caucus after Mr. Richardson's with. crowded than any. He has literally cut to always delicate and arduous, and now envi would forever disgrace ourselves, insure a drawal, Mr. Orr would have received near- pieces three of the Georges, with their courts, round with unusual difficulties, any capacity sectional contest for the Presidency, perly every Know Not ing vote in the hall," &c. counsellors and cabinets, and I suppose he ty commensurates with their responsibility haps, first the success of the Democrats, but Every candid mind must conclude that the will finish the gossiping butchery tomorrow and dignity. I can only say that, in so far certainly within a very short rime, cause a evidences which has been adduced is abunnight on George the fourth, which is said to as I am able, I shall discharge the obligated disruption of the country better the greatest scamp of them all. which I made, and which the Editor calls | I have long been affected with a penchant constitution, and with importality as it re- victory, the leaders will not see the oldan absurdity; the charge of shourdity there- for seeing great men, and I confess my cu- gards the rights of members of the House, mate effects of a course which they desire I have no personal objects to accomplish,- us to take. attempted to ridicule the concluding para- to see the renowned author of Vanity Fair. I am animated by the single desire that I This is the condition in which we are placgraph of my communication. All logicians Pendennis and the Newcomes, and whose may sid in some degree in maintaining the ed, and the country should not hold us have agreed in the opinion that ridicule can- name had filled so much space in the news- well established principles of our govern- sponsible for the non-organization of the nangied shouts of my and gratitude American not be considered the test of truth: and in papers of the country for the last few months, ment in their original and American significant this particular instance, as well as in all oth. So I opened my hand and heart, and bought ention; in the development of the material We have not the power to elect a Demsupports, one, that she is again in the Almaare leading we give notice that the lift the Editor's effertercence of party spirors, and will sharply again be returned to use the lift the Editor's effertercence of party spirors, upon the faithful records of history, it a ticket for the course, and went early on interests of that portion of the continent we occut, even if we wished to do so. We can the might of the first lecture so as get a choice occupy, so far as we may do within the not carry with us to that party, the scattering learn to reason rather than declaim; and not the sagacity to peresice that he at the seat near the foot of the throne. I looked limited and legitimate powers conferred up sotes which never have as yet voted with us. he might directer that hold "assertions up- same time assails the patrioric sentiment at my watch every five minutes, occasionally on us; in calarging and swelling the capa. some of them not members of the order. supported by evidence," invariably recoil contained in the last line: "Americans shall turning to take a hasty glance at the crowd city of our government for henificent infla. And an attempt to do so would be almost upon " how who atters them." That I did rule America; or he does so intentionally, that was closing in behind me, but in the ences at home and abroad; and, above all, sure to force them to vota for Banks. They not " find fault with him for his approval of He may take " either horn of the dilemma. main I kept my eyes fixed upon the door of in preserving intact and in perpetuity the object to the man we are running; but I humbled our family, and orphaned so sweet warrantable inference which the Editor made by approve of the pro-slavery portion of his an awkward shambling guit, and seated him lean party, and then left and denounced it. His election should be hailed with delight fall, as I really believe he was. expires on the 4th of March, 1837, at the Thuckersy is certainly in search of some-same time the administration of Franklin

WHO PREVENTS THE ORGANIZA TION OF THE HOUSE.

The following letter, says the Lexington Observer and Reporter, from our able Re then I can prove that the Democratic party love a crowd and patronize the torf. There taph over the grave of the blind, deaf and presentative in Congress explains the true therity of the inhabity at so the Territory of the inhabity atts of of the Inhabity a tional Americans doing any thing that would forfeit their claims to the respect and confidence of the country a

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4, 1856 Dear Sir :- I have not been able to learn, except from a few letters which I have rewhat is the opinion of our friends, as to the, stand the American party proper have takbut because the organization is effected, and en in regard to the election of Speaker of because the useless waste of time, and of the House. I have as yet, received but us, and on me especially, for the course l chusetts, is the Speaker of the House of and the true American haves taken. They Representatives of the Thirty-fourth Con are of course, the Democratic papers who kindly send me all the disagreeable informa-Contrary to the expectation of all the tion they can. I have felt, and do feel, anxious to have the approparie a of those whose wishes I most carnestly desire to represent, and whose interest and bonor I have our. and resolutions declaring sundry individuals nearly at heart; and I have pursued the only course which seemed to be possible to precent the ruin of our party, and serious injury to the country. To have united with the Democrats, even if such anion had not one received a majority of the votes cast the been put beyond the pale of honor, by the resolution which they passed at their meeting, would have resulted in the election of Banks, who is, in my opinion, the very worst man in the House. We have never had votes enough to elect by joining the Democrats; and they know it. And their constant effort has been to force the election of Binks, hoping to throw the re-214 sponsibility of that act on us; and thus Mr. Banks having received the highest fasten the charge of Abolition on us, so of postpone taking the main question on the the Mercantile Library Society, who, to in- Speaker of the House of Representatives of or failing in that, to proclaim us obstinate

It is true, we could effect an organization this act of treason to our country, and self-which made him foreste his wife and chil- all the encouragement he can get to sustain takes, it is a state paper of a highly elevation, weighing On Monday, Mr. Savage, of New York, and if it should happen that Books is elect-