North Carolina Whig.

"Be true to God, to your Country, and to your Duty."

VOLUME 5.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., JULY 29, 1856.

NUMBER 23.

THOMAS J. HOLTON. EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

TERMS:

The North Carolina Whig will heafflitded tasab. not," replied the youth. scribers at TWO DOLLARS in advance; TWO DOLLARS and FIFTY CENTS if payment be believed for three months; and THREE DOLLARS at the end of the year. No paper will be discontineed until all arrentages are paid, except at the gyman. stion of the Editor.

is inner of less, this sized type) for the first meerertisements and Sheriff's Sales charged 25 per ent, higher; and a deduction of 334 per cent. will made from the regular prices, for advertisers by haps you will call in somebody." ne year. Advertisements inserted monthly or sterly, at $1 per square for each to 1. Postmenters are authorized to not as agents. | Egyman, smiling.

Noctry.

THE NATION'S SONG. Fillmore's going Home.

37. 2. 8. W. Texe-Few Days. Yew unge, few days. For Edinore make the welkin ring, Fillmore's going bonn;
Dis bone will be Washington,
Few days, iew days,
We'll send him there with Donels n.

> Oh! the Locus our are nighing, a dilys, few days, Filimore's going home, Fillmore's going home.

Our cause is brightening every day, For days, Gweniye, So Back "and Frement clear the way Fillmore's going folio: with Back " is last a querier may, Fow days, few days, And the "Masting" and begins to mg, Filmore's going bone.

Oh! the Locos now, &c., &c.

Just see how blue the Loros look. Filmer's going hour Oh! low they trumble, soaks and shot Few diys, lew days They know they're destined up soft river, Fillmore's going home.

Oh the Lores new, Ac., &c.

We'l send the smally brails there ton, The days, for days, (in days, the da With Greely and the "Woolley Horse, Fallmon's going frome-

Oh! the Lucie now, &c., &c.

On the voyage " Back " will lead the way, And pay the erew ten certs a day, Fillmore's going home. The fare will be "Grasshopper class." Few days, few days, With resated Bear ment and "Mula stakes," Fillmere's going bons.

Oh! the lasons now, &c., &c.

Now let each lungar heart rejoice, That Fillmore is the Nation's charer Editmore's going beard; Then let the millions jum our song, Few days, few days, And swell the churus load and long, Enlimore's going bonns.

Oh! the Locas row, &c., &c.

Miscellancous.

TER CLERCYMAE'S FEE.

A MATRIMONIAL STORY.

ming a sermon. It was a bright spring hand. morning, and in order to concentrate his was writing, Mr. Burton was obliged to close gyman. the window blinds, and shut out the beauty of nature, which to him was most attractive In an obscure light, his pen was beginning er known such an individual. to more quite rapidly, when the wind blew "I think I can refresh your memory by his blinds open and sent his manuscript flut. mentioning an incident," said George.

Nature at that moment appeared considers copper in question. ably more attractive than theology. The "Yes, I remember all about it now." green leaves of the trees caused him to for- "Well, sir, I am the man." get the leaves of his manuscript. The plumthe grey goose quill. Yet Mr. Burton feit to insult you!

that he ought to labor that morning. In easting about him to find an excuse "So I was. I did not know that I could for his idleness, he saw a chaise drive down afford to give you any more. Marriage, the street, and stop at his door. A good you know, is a sort of lottery. Had I givcooking, plainly dressed young man helped on you five or ten dollars, and got a poor out a graceful pretty girl, and they mount- wife in return, you must confess it would elergyman, smiling.

He was not mistaken. The young man, capt it. in a frank, off handed manner, told him "You need not scruple to accept it; married to his companion; and the young rich man. girl blushes told the same story.

"Very well," said Mr. Burton, "I am Mr. Burton examined the contents of the always ready to make young people happy, purse with lively curiosity; and he was not You love each other ?"

" flave you witnesses !" asked the cler- heard of the odd bridegroom.

" We are not rich," answered the bride-Advertisements inserted at One Dollar per square groom, " and could not afford the expense Collision with a Sunday School Excursion in, and 25 cents for each continuance. Court ad. of bringing any of our friends with us. If you think we had better have witnesses per-

> " It will be well to do so," said the cler-He called in a young brother and the housekeeper.

> "We are in a sort of a hurry," said the its a long drive home."

tempt at gravity.

this woman to be your lawful wife !" George nodded.

"To love her in sickness and health, to share with her joys and sorrows, your hed the city, in the neighborhood of two curves, have been fooled. and heard-do you promise?" Another ned.

man to be your husband !"

A nod and a blush from Mary,

"To love him-honor him?"

" And obey him-"

A don'tful look from Mary. him a true and affectionate nife-will you suffered as it were a double death.

per. Afterwards the bride and bridegroom tition all the time of the queer marriage ceremo- and dead to the city. placed in his hands. Perhaps the preach- preeme. larger even than an eagle. Could it be a recognized. They are mostly burned so as whole House, twenty dollar piece! The paper being fold- to defy recognition. ed and re-folded, it was some time before the clergyman could get at the coin. His devoted himself to his sermon during the remainder of the forenoon.

Six years had passed away. The suc- Fillmore, Donelson and Gilmer pole at Dan- tution annualled through his conful clergyman was one evening surpris- icl's Store, by the honest voters of Board He would say to the juse the axe uped by a visit from a stranger. A well dress. Tree precinct. (Board Tree precinct will lifted over him may fall them. He had ed, fine looking man lifted his hat bowed give Gilmer one hundred votes, Bragg four- only to say that he couldt retain his seat. A young elergyman sat in his study com. respectfully, and offered Mr. Burton his teen.) There were some forty or fifty A- consistently with his set spect and rights thoughts on the subject of his discourse he we have ever met before," replied the cler- work like men who are determined to do Where were the proceeds on that case

" My name is George Chamber." Mr. Burton had forgotten that he had ev-hie the fee of one cout !"

He turned his chair and looked out of Mr. Burton laughed, went to his desk, the window. Beauty charmed his eye, and and took from a small drawer a little roll of cheers were given for these gallant stan- the good Northern Democrand gentlethe music of singing birds fell on his ear, paper. Unfolding this, he produced the dard bearers of the American party. men who had the munhood tend by him,

"I remember your countenance,"

"No-I thought you were poor."

ble acknowledgment."

"A marriage, I am sure," thought the He placed a purse in the hands of the sician could give her relief, till last week, charged with the murder of astonished minister, who besitated to ac. Dr. Huntoon, being called in, gave her a ing, after an absence of two and a half, trusive votes which ought not to be counted voting against Arkansas because she was a is kept up to increase parronage, to pura little surprised and gratified to find that "We would wait a day or two if we did they consisted of ten half engles, bright, shining-apparently just from the mint.

The odd bridegroom took his departure, et of the ' arments' left be blad."

Train-39 Lives Lost, and 69 Wounded

-heart-rending scene, &c. PHILADELPHIA, July 17. A terrible accident .
Pennsylvania Railroad this morning to an are denied. excursion train containing the Sunday school of St. Michael's Church. The excursion train contained 1100 chilbridegroom, as Mr. B. paused in the door. dren, parents and teachers. The trains way to give some orders to a domestie. "I came in comston at a curve way to give some orders to a domestie. "I Washington, with the down train; the latexcursion train, together with those that were consumed by fire. A number were "You, George Chambers, promise to take crushed beneath the ruins so that extrication was impossible.

wanuded 69. o that approaching trains cannot be seen gyman; and she nedded. "And to make when the flames reached them, and thus was only silenced by a appeal from Mr.

Mary gave a decisive nod. Mr. Burton from Germantown were early in attendance, contrary to the rules of the House, which added a few words, and pronounced them doing all within their power to aid the suf- be desired to see respeted.

George drew a long breath. The clergy- to the spot, and after working for several State and on a veneral relative, who at man then made out the certificate to which hours the fire was extinguished, and the hu- the time was absent Whoever insulted the witnesses put their names; and ended man remains were removed. Nineteen burn. South Carolina insultd him, and he stood by giving them a few words of advice. At cd bodies were removed to the blacksmith ready at all times hursly and modestly as shap-three supposed to be females. Un- a son to perform his day. He should have the same time George slipped something in- der auchter shed were placed eight bodies, forfeited his self-respet and the good opinto his hand, done up in a piece of white pa- so charred by the flames as to defy recog- ion of his countrymenif he had permitted to the kitchen, laughing, the younger Bur- spot from the surrounding sections of courry; many friends of the excursionists walk. Senate or flouse. Nor if he mean any ed on to Cincinnati. They broke up Con. whose terms would soon expire; and had for there are a few exceptions—are not onton returned to his book, and the clergyman ed from the city, and others proceeded this disrespect for Massichusette. He was aware ther in every description of vehicle, which of the personal responsibily be incurred. As the latter sat down to write, thinking were made use of in bringing the wounded and was prepared to meet i He knew be by he had just performed, he listlessly undown train, driven to desperation by the member of Congress or in th private walks. Washington city came a new corps, never my return from Nor did he had just performed, he listlessly undown train, driven to desperation by the member of Congress or in the private walks. folded the bit of paper the bridegroom had exlamity, committed smeale by swallowing of life. Nor did he then believe he could certificate. From the size of the piece, Mr. 10 P. M .- All the remains of the victims body had no right tapresut him to the Barton judged that his fee must be some, have been gathered up and brought to the House for punishment. The question not guard to support the administration. thing. It was larger than a bull eagle- city. Twenty-seven bodies have not been only involved him andhis fiends, but the cariosity by this time was considerably ex- Gazette says that the Americans in this bimself. A correspondent of the Murfreesboro' his friends (Edmunds) and Keitt) than eited. At length he saw something very bright. The sun shone on it. It was a new county are wide awake, and are determined brother. When, becaused the peaed to do their whole duty in August and ple of the great North ask of me as a bad red -cent! Mr. Burton was a little disap- November next; that the masses of the par- man, they will do me this man yould be foltake, he locked the cent up in his desk, and ty are fully aroused, and are enthusiastic a blow from me at thisme would be folfor Fillmore, Donelson and Gilmer; and lowed by revolution, at they know it ndds:

NORTHAMPTON COUNTY.

soil) to assist in raising the pole. They session, a member from Paylvania charg-"Your memory is better than mine, if came fresh from their farms, and went to ed his colleague with an empt at bribery, inscribed in beautiful letters the names of simple assault and batterst Fillmore, Donelson and Gilmer, our gallant He spoke of Massachus as being in restandard bearers in the approaching con-belien against the laws a Constitution of Gilmer, and in a manner which made the out a hearing. He had of been a tering across the floor. The sunlight guale "Do you remember marrying a couple welkin ring. Thomas J. Garner, Esq., was to order, nor had be offend any officer: ed in, and at the same time Mr. Burton's six years ago, and receiving for your trou- called upon to make " a talk," who respons yet the vote taken to-day unitted him ded in some pertinent remarks, urging the to posterity as unworthy of he here, be claims of Fillmore, Donelson and Gilmer, at cause of disorderly behaved He returnthe conclusion of which three more hearty ed his thanks to his friendspecially to

" We expect to have a mass meeting at not forgetting John Scott Ham, of Ohio. Daniel's Store on the 5th of August next, Some gentlemen, he believed voted as President is now brought. when we expect to have some talking, and, gainst him contrary to their ws, but were age of the birds made him disgusted with "You and oubtedly suppose I intended masses show which way the tide is setting, their votes without indulging illification. of the United States. So mote it be."

A VERY CURIOUS CASE. - We clip the fol- es, during which Mr. Brocksed]

lowing from the Lowell News : lady by the name of Smith, residing on Suf- this affair was rejected by so of 60 to confidence of his own party. Not so with lifter-with a lings in his knee, which he against this administration. I do not mean folk street, in this city, drank some water 136, and that consuring Mr 1, of South Mr. Pierce. He is repudiated by those who aften crooks, "that thrift may follow fawn- the inaugural address, they are now made ed the steps together. Mr. Burton heard have been a miserable bargain. Well, sir, from a spring at sea-shore, and, as she sup- Carolina, for a similar alleghence was had existed him. After four years' trial ing." He governs by subservience; and to like pic crust—to be broken. I speak of the door-bell ring, and presently a domes the wife you gave me is a prize. It has tak posed, swallowed a small cel. Since then adopted by a vote of 100 h To-day he is condemned and thrown away - the vic- him is deferred the master's place in Mr. public specific ple igns, epenly and solemntic came to inform him that a young gen- en me six years to find out all her virtues, she has been gradually getting out of health, Mr. Keitt addressed the the feman and lady wished to see him on bu- and now I have come to make you a suitaand alarming that her life was thought to nounced his resignation. be in great danger. No medicine or phy. The jury in the case of portion that on Saturday morning relieved her of a live cell a foot in length. The cci agree. They stood seven figuritial to gates, the members of the attempt to abolish slavery in the District presses, to reward partisans, to strengthen has been preserved in spirits, and is deci- fire for conviction. To-day that he had called for the purpose of being thanks to my wife I am now a tolerably dedly an angly-looking enstomer. The lady empannelled, and a second thil he had were hegged for him to lessen the shame of attacking the Democracy and all their meais greatly relieved, but thinks there is anoth. immediately

From our Correspondents.

WASHINGTON, July 16, 1856. The recent excessively warm weather has And that was the last the elergyman ever sions of Congress to fly from the dust and domestic policy of the Administration : heat of our streets, and to seek refreshment | Citizens: I appear before you in an un-different fashionable resorts.

of marriages at the springs this season, and the total killed is 39 and the number the usual amount of relievelopments and the total killed is 39 and the number. The scene of the disaster is 14 miles from the parties discover how completely they

After a protracted delicate the House on 500 yards distant. When the locomotives Monday refused to expel flon, P. S. Brooks "And you, Mary, promise to take this came together they rose on end, the fire for his attack on Mr. Sumter. The vote on boxes of each nearly touching and fell over the adoption of the opert of the committee about the wreck, the first excursion car soon hays 95-two thirds not voting in favor caught fire, and the flames rapidly commu- thereof. Immediately upon the announce mested to the two others piled up upon it. ment of this vote Mr.Broks addressed the The most extraordinary efforts were made House at considerabl length, and was listo extricate the unfortunate mutilated be- tened to with the most arnest attention, both ings crushed amid the wreck, who were by members and the rowled gallery. Du-In all things reasonable !" asked the eler- rending the air with their dying greans. ring these remarks h was interrupted by Many of these poor beings were still alive frequent applause in the galleries, whi Brooks himself-manistrations of applause A number of physicians from the city and or disapprobation from the gallery being

Mr. Brooks commuced by saying that man and wife. Many wiped her eyes and ferers.

Two fire engines from Chesnut Hill came. Mr. Summer had utteed a slander on his rede off in a chaise; the housekeeper went An immense crowd was attracted to the personal affair, and b tiking redress in his was amenable to the laws wich offered the be punished by a court of lar and here by

> If the consequences tre canned to himnot suffer for him. II haddelt more for They are bincles-each had [Applause, seemingly conec to the galleries | But no act of mi shall favor rev-"On Saturday I attended the raising of a colution. I am not willing see the Consti-

COL. BENTON'S SPEECH AT ST. LOUIS.

We give below that portion of Col. Ben-and repose amid the shady walks, cooling expected character-that of candidate for Baltimore, where the outside pressure would the foul means of getting it done, and its fountains and balmy breezes of the fashion- the governorship of the State of Missouri able watering places. Saratoga, Newport, It was a place which I had not sought, but ders would have carried the day. and Ningara, each have a large portion with- which I felt bound to accept in the present sending their pastors as missionaries to the were there, although forbid by their duties 4 years and manage every thing. These those who had been most violent against Of course there will be the usual number office holders were there, political cunuchs of the Conventions. repentance when the season has closed, and there by the administration to impose a ever seen; and such is the fact. At home which editor had published a daily paper President upon the people.

the approbation of the administration; for all whose names compose it. dieted from doing.

down and trampled under foot. hole" in Calcutta, and like that hole, had cruel separation.

on the cit, we expect to and point to Fillmore as the next President He concluded by saying: "speaker, I by his own party. The elder Mr. Adams remains to be said. They govern when same operation is desired to be performed announce to you and the Hathat I am was defeated by the Democratic party, then they please, and always in the same style on the army, the rule of dis mission being no longer a member of thorty-Fourth called republican; the younger Mr. Ad- -ky presenting a membering from Of all to save purious and favorites, and to turn Congress." [Confusion, app and hiss- ams was defeated by the same party; Mr. these the Attorney General is the master out good officers, without legard to service The resolution consuring M mundson. But each of these gentlemen had the comes of industry - unseruptions, double-sexed, connextants are not approved. "About a year and a half ago a widow of Virginia, for an alleged pipation in lation of having preserved the respect and double-gendered, and hermaphronile in page 5. Violated pinight rise up in judgment at some tim of his advisers. It is the most humili- Pierce's Cabinet. When I heard he was to by and scandalously violated. There was Herbert, some sixty-only five dozen out of nearly full destruction which was to full upon him. That pludge is violated, has been for four has Keat 300; and if from these are deducted the in- I had known Mr. Cushing as an abelitionist, years, and still is. The enermous revenue jury was Congress, and the complimentary votes which of Columbia. I had known him as a Whig, the government, to build up armies and na-into office upon 27 States, with two-thirds who was to be in it. caused many of our citizens, and the stran- ton's recent speech at St. Louis which re- of each House of Congress, and the united Now for their acts: gers who were in attendance upon the ses. fers to the Cincinnati Convention and the Democracy of the whole Union. After all. 1. The violation of the Texas and Mis-

in their bounds, to say nothing of a dozen condition of the country-its peace greatly | verned this nomination-the place conveni- all the evil measures of this administration. -A number of Bodies consumed by Fire or two places of less note. And many, be- endangered both at home and abroad, and ent to the solid men of the country; but 2. Prostitution of the whole appointing ing detained by business. ever rented sum- the services of all good citizens required to that cannot be relied upon to save future power to electioneering purposes. This was mer residences in the and aid in preventing the double catamity of those pleasures. It is well and foreign war.

In the services of all good citizens required to that cannot be reach open by done from the first moment of its exmanded their evenings i. 1. 2. It is those pleasures. It is those pleasures. It is the continuation of the caught in such a place again. They with a view to affect the elections, State and vention, the first one I ever approached .- will go where the farmers cannot come; and Federal, and to operate for or against par-Every regular place of amusement in the I went to see how things were done, and to htere is no safety except in the amondment itenlar men; and for this purpose unfit charcity is closed, and were it not for a strange assist a little at a safe nomination. I found of the Constitution, and giving to the peoperters would be taken in preference to the show of a dwarf woman or a fat pig, there a garrison of office-holders inside of the ple a direct vote for President. Already it hest. You know how it was in this State, would be nothing to attract the attention of Convention, and a besieging army of the is reported that they go next time to Charles- and as it was here, so it was everywhere. those whose life consists in viewing the won- same gentry on the outside of it. Packed ton, S. C. where no Western farmers can get Nulliflers and free soilers, apostates and have got to go to mill this afternoon, and ber was going very slowly. The excursion drons sights of nature and art. The Church delegates were there, sent to betray the at them. If you ask how this can be known renegates, all were fish in their net. One es, though not closed, are but slimly atten- people. Straw delegates were there, com- now! I answer, very well. Each Conven- single qualification was requisite, that of train was going very rapidly endeavoring ded, and it has been suggested that much ing from the States which could give no tion now appoints a committee of its own working in the elections; and the only prefyou, said the elergyman, with a vain at-

> It was a scandalous collection, excluded foreign and domestic-flagrant misconduct devoted to the separation of the slave from by the constitution from being even electors has been the order of the day. The field the from Stateof the President, and yet sent here to vote- of its bad acts is too large to admit of a full for the administration-and to vote upon survey on an occasion like the present; I This is a mornitying head of accusation athe principle of the ox that knoweth his can only seize and present the most promi- gainst the present administration. Never master's crib-upon the principle of the ass nent, taking those which concern our home were such men sent abroad to represent across the road. The fire being scattered recommending such iction was year 121, that knoweth the hand that feederh him .- affairs first; the foreign afterwards; but, our country-men without a particle of the Bullies were there from the custom-house first, I must show who I mean by the ad- knowledge which diplomary requires, and and the Five Points in New York-all with ministration, for it by no means consists of even without manners-without knowing > without the consent of their employers. It is a kind man, tender-hearted and will cry States elections. They sent such abroad in was a scandalous collection. The members for any body's sorrows; but he has neither order to give them indemnity for past serof Congress were neglecting their legislative head nor nerve, and he is as helpless in the views at the polls, and to enable them to duties and doing what they had been inter- hands of his managers as a babe in the arms come back and recommence their partisan Thirty years ago the nomination of Prox. of this helplessness which concerns your- ters were the pride of our country, and the idential candidates was taken from Congress selves as well as myself, and which admits admiration of the courts to which they on account of the corruption which it en- of no question, because I was party to it, were sent. Talented educated, replete with gendered, and given to delegates, intending and know what I say. Mr. Pierce sent for knowledge, polished in manners, modest, to be fresh from the people and to obey me soon after his inauguration, desiring me virtuous, such were formerly our ministers their, will and the nomination removed from to call upon him the next evening at eight abread, Washington to Baltimore, to get out of the o'clock. I went according to the request. What a contrast are those we now send reach of President-making members. But He told me he wished to speak to me about abroad. What a contrast to the Bufus Kings, these members followed to Baltimore, get- the Missouri appointments, and know if they the John Marshalls, the Albert Gallatius, ting proxies from some delegate when they could not be put off for awhile? I answer- the John Quincy Adamsos, the Pinkneys, could get no appointment from the peo- ed yes-that they were all four years up- of South Carolina, and the Pinkner of Mathe offence to pass manished. It was a ple; and to get rid of them-to get entire- pointments, and to be out of themrelves in ryland, the Henry Clays, and the long list ly from their reach-the Convention itself the course of the spring and smanner - that of splendid names which grace our diplo-Speinmati. I despised the business of removing men Vain effort to escape them. They follows who were doing their business well, and administration makes-I speak of the mass, gress to get to this forbidden place. Sure- rather wait for the vacancy to come of itself. Iy a disgrare, but an injury to our counly the new President will be very hard hear. He replied that these were exactly his own try. They to are our natural reputation. ted if he does not remember them when he sentiments, and it was readily agreed that They degrade us in the eyes of foreign na-William Vansawen, the conductor of the same protection to every citien, whether a Washington city came a new corps, never my return from Missouri, which would be republicon government. Many of them not officers, post-masters, salaried clerks, pack- me to use it, and drove me to the resource be has certainly gone to the right place repulse the Missouri delegation which came since. Still, we meet hand-omely when ac-manners and tastes require, to vote for Buchanan-a repulse which they eident brings us together; sometimes meet- 4. Extravagant expenditure is the charattempted, and got themselves knocked ing in evening rides, when the respective acteristic of this administration. Never was hats immediately rise high in the air ; some- such a proligate waste of public money seen. This den had no windows by which peo- times on foot, in an evening walk, when we 70 to 80,000,000 squandered per annum, pie could look in or see, or the light of the rush to the salutation, and so pressingly that and not a symptom of any abstement .un enter-only a row of glass, like a steam. an observer might suppose it was a pair of When Mr. Polk went out of office, which boat skylight, 35 feet above the floor. It old bosom friends-Damon and Pythias - was after the acquisition of all our new terwas the nearest representation of the "black just getting together again after a long and intories, he computed the annual expenses good service in August; and soon the flag By passing over it in sile, the House has tastrophe. The little panes of glass above cy. He leaves himself out by permitting worse. Increase of offices and salaries - inwell-nigh become notorious for a similar ca- In the next place, I do not mean Mr. Mar. it is three times that amount, and getting were hung on pivots, and turned flat to let others to dominate in his department, and crease of army and navy-multiplication of in air. A rain came on, drove into the den; by publicly agreeing to what he privately useless agents to attend to the elections unand to exclude it, the panes were turned up. condemns. I leave out also the Secretaries der the pretext of filling some office-waste "Smothering! smothering!" was the cry in of the Treasury, of the Interior, of the Na. of money building ships to rot, while refutest. When the flag went up three hearty the United States whilst sig in judgment, the den; and the glass had to be turned up vy, and the Postmaster General, and only sing a dollar for the improvement of our again. Over this place was a small box for condemn them for remaining in a Cabinet great rivers; such are the davices to get rid spectators, its approach barricaded and in which they are without influence, and of the public money guarded, and entrance only obtained upon charing the odium of measures of which they Nearly a thousand dollars a man is now tickets from the same packed committee, have no part in the paternity. This brings the average cost of every man in the army and to whom they gave tickets was seen the me to the Secretary at War and the Atrog- and navy, and the civil pension list of Engfirst votes which were given for Buchanan, noy General, who, with an outside force of land proposed for their further support.and when each State that voted for him was determined pullifiers, are the whole admin. And both army and navy reduced as fast hissed-even Virginia; and the hissing on- istration. But little need be said of the as possible, to the condition of government ly stopped by a threat to clear the galleries. Secretary of War. He is a martinet, passed establishments-Presidential and not ma-Such is the pass to which the nomination of up with West Point seience, dogmatical and tional institutions. All appointments are pragmatical, within his circle; but that cir. conducted on that principle; all dismissions No President, seeking a second election, cle is a narrow one, and he moves uncon- and reductions are conducted on the same. on the 7th, we expect to do some tall vo- operated upon by outside pure, and he has ever been so repudiated before. Seve- trolled within it. He is an avoiced seeces. Two hundred officers have lately been turnadversaries, but no one has been defeated. Of the outside force of pullifiers still less, and crimical perversion of law; and the Van Buren was defeated by the Whigs - spirit. He is a man of talent, of learning, or character, whose political affinities or ever was witnessed. His whole vote was as a doomed man, and foresaw the swift and and get rid of a corrupting surplus revenue. the miserable defeat-if all these were dessures; and as a Tylerite, auctionecring office on succeed in picking quarrels with them. ducted, as they ought to be, he would be ess for Tyler as long as he had an office to Equally public was the pledge, and equal left without a single vote; left to go out as go to the hommer. I could have no faith he came in: with the unanimous consent of in an administration so led, and foretold its his party. What a fate for a man who came galamitous fate from the moment it was seen the result was due to the place where the souri Compromises. With the facts of this Convention was held. If it had been in violation, its wicked and corrupt intent and have been on the other side, the office-hol- disastrous and bloody consequences, you are all sufficiently acquainted, and I only name Let it not be forgotten that the place go- it to give it its place at the head and front of from being at such a place. A cohort of Committees do the cheating in the recess the Union. On that principle an editor was and abroad-in all its acts and policy, both in Washington city for three years, wholly the office-holders would not be there (absent from their duties and drawing their pay) Mr. Pierce, I leave him out entirely. He and services to come, at the Federal and of its nurse. I have to give a signal instance labors. Formerly, the United States minisonly of lad manners, but had morals, holders in the city, clerks in the depart. On this agreement, thus relunteered by Only think of that Dale Owen, who pubments - heads of bureaus -- men who have himself, I left the city, and in two weeks was lished a newspaper and wrote a book to aprisced in his hands. Perhaps the preacher was curious to know how much the odd man had felt able to pay for his marriage man had felt able to pay for his marriage. no vote in any federal election-political followed by a list of the appointments-and bonsh the institution of marriage, and to election, but sent to Cincinnati, as a life were-all made from my enemies, and to He is sent to a foreign Court for his election work in the election against me-a thing services, and must convey the idea, wherewhich they have taithfully done, and are ver he goes, that the United States is a Such was the composition of nearly one. still doing. Even the post office in my town whole nation of Mormons, returning to the half of the whole convention-custom house was so filled as to render it impossible for state of forest animals. But if he must go, self he would be prepred a neet them, ed delegates, straw delegates political ennuclis, members of Congress, district attor. ams & Co. This is what happened between may meet with less abhorrence than in any nies, federal marshals. The place in which the President and myself, and is one of the other part of the civilized world. And all they met, and which had been provided by innumerable instances to prove his nullity these missions are multiplied to the greata packed administration committee, was in his own administration. I did not get est possible extent. Sending these unfit men worthy of the meeting. It was a sort of angry with him for it. I knew he was sin- to places where they have nothing to do, den, approached by a long, narrow past cere at the time he spoke with me, and pit even if they could do anything, merely to sage, barriesded by three doors, each door tied his inability to keep his own word vol- give them pay, and where many of them, guarded by armed bullies, with orders to unturily given. I expressed no resentment by vulgarity and mi-conduct, are excluded knock down any person that approached because I knew they would not let him do from social intercourse, and sonfined to the without a ticket from the committee, and a as he wished; but self respect required me privileges which the treaties secure them, special order to be prepared with arms to to avoid his house, and I have not been there and left to the low company which their

of the government at 25 to 26,000,000; now

Tell out of the many by an open, seandalous