Whia. Morth Carolina

"Be true to God, to your Country, and to your Duty."

VOLUMES.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., AUGUST 26, 1856.

NUMBER 27.

THOMAS J. HOLTON. EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

TERMS:

a end of the year. No paper will be discon-and 25 cents for each continuance. Court adhigher; and a deduction of 334 per cent, will year. Advertisements inserted monthly riy, at $1 per square for each time. Semily 75 cents per square for each time. Plastinusters are authorized to act as agents.

From the Raleigh Signal. THE FILLMORE PLAG.

In art our Benner to the breeze,

Sear it ye brave and manly hands? From Mongasha to the seas That here the Calefornia sands, or rising hosts stand forth in might,

Armed with the power which fromen wield, And with unshaken lines unthe And form along the bettle field.

a second phylans, dense and deep, Resolved, and firm, and undismayed, As ocean waves resistles sweep, They murch with Truth's bright shield and Die Vone is heard their rank among, the inpe lights up each eager eye.

As here from State to State slong
They shout "Follmore and Victory!"

The Howeign borde look on in fear, With pric despuir in ravey eye, of varily hope to quench the bleze O triamph, kindling through the sky In vite they lead their tattered flog;
In vite before its folds they sweet,
the kneel to Buck and Breek and Bragg

ber Felimare's flug is planted there has a'er the field of conflict wan, Above the fore dishonored grave out 're's bright and cloudiess sun One star gran'd gentlation shall water, of men of worth from every clame,

From every shore, and every sea, y seek beneath its folds sub The glorious birthright of the free.

My mountry tinh, what joy whall pour, Is a selling anthem on the wind, on of the Spoint's shrine, no more felsekoos, filebeng, feward, and her, Smil pres as long forgotten things, and radient o'er the land shall rise

The day that honest virtue brings.

Miscellancous.

From the American Union.

CONTRACTING A BLACKSMITH.

The scene is laid in the mountain regions f Georgia. Mr. Forgeron, a blacksmith, hal a great antipathy against all Methodut monisters in particular.

His shop was in a narrow mountain pass, every Methodist preacher that passed the thing else, caused him to sing out : shop. The Rev. Dr. Stubbleworth, however, readily consented to go there, and the Forgeron had heard of his new victim, tian." and rejoiced that his size and appearance furnished a better subject for his vengeance than the attenuated frame of the late parson. O, what a nice heating he would have! He had heard, too, that some ministers | Ned attempted to stammer out some exwere rather spirited, and hoped this one the clergyman must pass on Sunday, in the afternoon, he gave his striker a holiday, and tegaled himself on the beauties of Tom Paise, awaiting the approach of the preach-It was not over an hour before he

O, how happy are they who the Saviour chey, A d leave half up their transures above." sung in a full voice; and soon the vocalist, turning the angle of the rock, rode up with on high." a continued smile on his face. "How are you, old Slabsides? Get off

"I have miles to ride," answered the by the hand, and said :

Preacher, " and I havn't time, my friend;

will call when I return " "Your name is Stubbleworth, and you ron; I'll look for you to morrow," have sent here to preach, ch?"

"My name is Stubbleworth," he meekly scare the eagles in the overhanging rocks.

Methodist preacher that comes along?" was his own door, and that, too, by a Methodist asked with an audacious look; "and how preacher" date you come here?" did not molest well behaved travellers.

"You presume so! Yes, you are the he replied with a stern look they well un- ly helpless ever since." most presumptuous people, you Methodists, derstood, and the vague remark that he No wonder, Bill but cheer up; if you that ever trod sole leather, any how. Well had met with an seeident.

willingness to do anything reasonable to to the rainbow ship-wreck scene "blending avoid such a penance.

is, you are to quit preaching; the second preacher!" is you wear this last will and testament of From that time his whole conduct maniget into." And the blacksmith "shucked" They wondered greatly at his burning the partisements inserted at One Dollar persquare himself, rolled up his sleeves, and took a the books he used to read so much. Strange to then I'll tear you into doll rags, corner and bruised his face.

coat on ; it was a present from the ladies of ... How happy are they who the Saxmor obey," it torn."

sin-faced imp, you."

his tirade of abuse of him and sect, and, conversion to his astonished neighbors.

Mr. Stubbleworth, with the tact of a con. coursed their way down his cheeks. the quickness of a cut, and bestowed his lieving soul, there is no doubt." ach and face of the blacksmith, continuing bis song where he had left off on his arri- preacher. his song where he had left off on his arri- preacher.

"Tongue convolexpress the sweet confort," &c. until Forgeron, from having experienced " first love," or some other sensation equally new to him, responded hastily :

to perform that kind office, except the man of large wealth, who had lived all his preacher's old roan, and he munched a life a batchelor and an ascetic. Rumors bunch of grass and looked on as if his master was happy at a campmeeting.

let you up."

"What are they !" asked Forgeron, ca-

"The first is, that you will never molest ask your name! a Methodist preacher again."

Here Ned's pride rose, and he hesitated ; and the reverend gentleman, with his usual begign smile on his face, renewed his blows

"I then may on the sky, freely justified I. And the moon it was under my beet,

This oriental language overcame the and he declared his determination to whip blacksmith. Such bold figures, or some-

" Well, I'll do it, I'll do it!"

" You are getting on very well," said Mr. following describes his ride through the Stubbleworth, "I think I can make a decent man of you yet, and perhaps a Chris- but there was so kind and gentle an expres-

Ned grouned.

" The second thing I require of you is to go to Pumpkin Creek meeting-house, and hear me preach to morrow."

cuse, when the divine resumed his devotionmight be provoked to fight. Knowing that al hymn, and kept time with the music, deem proper, and let me know your deterstriking him over the face with the fleshy mination to-morrow." part of his hand

"I'll do my best," said be, in a very

Paine's testament, and turn your thoughts

your horse, and join in my devotion," said ry injunctions of the preacher, whon the many public offices in his time, was formerlatter person mounted his horse, took Ned

> "Now keep your promise, and I'll keep than two hundred thousand dollars. your counsel. Good evening, Mr. Forge-

are the triffing hypocrite the Methodists | And off he rode with the same imperturhable countenance, singing so loud as to

"Well," thought Ned, "this is a nice bu- there on the floor !" "Didn't you know my name was Ned siness. What would people say if they Pergeron, the blacksmith, that whips every knew Edward Forgeron was whipped before

The preacher replied that he had heard than in auger. His disfigured countenance in during your absence, and offered to pay of Forgeron's name, but presumed that he was of course the subject of numerous ques- a year's subscription, which produced such tions that night, among his friends, to which an effect upon me that I have been perfect-what'll you do, you beef headed disciple Of course they never dreamed of the prospect of another such catastrophe in this upon other members of the same party - already up. The very men who produced tablishment is the Emperor's tailor. Duscause. Ned looked in the glass and com- office. Mr. Stubbleworth readily professed his pared his black eye, from the recent scuffle,

"Well, there's three things you have to read the story, and muttered to himself, | "GIVE EM A LITTLE MORE GRAPE, | EXTRACT FROM THE SPEECH OF do, or I'll maul you into a jelly. The first 'Ned Forgeron whipped by a Methodist

The North-Carolina Whig will be afforded to subcolors at TWO DOLLARS in advance; TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS if payment be every day, and believe every word you the neighborhood observed it, and whisperexample for three menths; and THREE DOLLARS
No name will be disconNo name will be disc curse the Methodists in every crowd you meeting every Sunday since the accident.

stories were circulating as to the metamor-The preacher looked on during the novel phosis of this jovial, dare devil, blacksmith ing, and at the end he replied that the terms posed very sagely, that a " spirit " had enwere unreasonable, and he would not sub- tieed him into the mountains, and, after their votes, and the manner of which he American sentiment, were emphatically forgiving bim a glimpse into the future, had disposes of that scare-baby talk about the eigh parties. The Democrats and Republi-"We'll you've got a whaling to submit misled him to a crag, where he had fallen religious test. Read and see :

upon the worthy made a virtue of necessi- continued until Forgeron visited a camp- tered fools of European cabinets. Even he, had gone into power, professed lovers of A--that is, you won't beat me with this over- relieve it of a burden; and the song of-

Methodist." At a love feast, a short time The Methodist preacher slowly drew off subsequent, he gave in his experience, and down from his high and well merited aspi- that law, foreigners must take an oath, his overcoat as the blacksmith continued revealed the mystery of his conviction and rations, through the instrumentality of street which in fact would make them subscribe throwing the garment behind him, he dealt The Rev. Mr. Stubbleworth, who had Mr. Forgeron a tremendous blow between faithfully kept the secret until that time, the eyes, which laid that person on the ground, with the testimony of Tom Paine beside him.

The eyes, which laid that person on the eould not contain himself any longer, but bler, a holier termination than was that of Could such a bill be passed? Cries of a subcadinate legislative authority; to see the drawing the highest prize ends with an odd the protection of their property are all regularly of the foreign element. We security to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to askin to them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to askin to them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate legislative authority; to see the country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to askin to them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to askin to them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to ask them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to ask them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to ask them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to ask them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to ask them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to ask them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to ask them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to ask them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to ask them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to ask them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to ask them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to ask them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property, to ask them country to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property ask that the property are all regularity to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property are all regularity to any foreign power whatever, a subcadinate property are all his adversary to rise, but mounted him with fact. I did maul the grace into his unbe-sors

COURTING IN BROADWAY. But, unfortunately, there was no one by tracted the attention of an elderly gentle turies, no earthly power can now assail it." and carried thenceforth in his breast a heart impenetrable to the sweet influences his Irish girl to such a degree that he ar-

"Will you pardon the liberty, Miss if I

The girl timidly surveyed him, and apparently satisfied that not mere curiosity prompted him in the query, and that he was a gentleman, she acceeded.

" My name is Mary O'K ......, sir." " Dare I ask you another question, Mary

-I mean Miss O'K-"Proceed, sir," she replied, very good humoredly. "Then I should like to ask you-and you will confer an infinite obligation upon me by answering truly-whether you are engaged in marriage to any one, or whether your feelings are interested in any per-The question was decidedly a home one, sion in the old man's eye, and such an evident earnestness in his tone, that she answored him freely-" Not in the least, sir."

"Then allow me without any further caremony, to place my card in your hand and with it the offer of myself and fortune --Commission any friend you please to make whatever inquiries concerning me you may posited the slip of pasteboard in the reticule and passed on. On Wednesday after-Now get up and go down to the spring, Mary had concluded to adopt him. They and wash your face, and tear up Tom were married the same evening at the resigentleman settled on her one hundred thou-enced before, and went to obey the lavato- to give you his name-has held a great afterwards assistant Indian Commissioner. His real estate in this city is worth more

Mary and the Major started for New Orleans, where the latter has a brother who is a sort of pecuniary nabob in that Orleans, made the following strement:

. Why sir I have had a shock.

A shock?

Yes sir. . What kind of a shock !' - survive this you are safe, as there is little trust his example will exert in influence successful navigator. The barricane was mean army. The superintendent of the es-every color into one." Or perhaps he never Islands is a Miss Rooke, an English girl. Organ.

CAPT. BRAGG."

om the regular prices, for advertisements inserted monthly or above the speech of Mr. Marshall of Ken- down the true doctrine on the subject.—

Advertisements inserted monthly or above the speech of Mr. Marshall of Ken- down the true doctrine on the subject.—

This, happily, we find him doing from the speech of Mr. Marshall of Ken- down the true doctrine on the subject.—

Advertisements inserted monthly or above the speech of Mr. Marshall of Ken- down the true doctrine on the subject. in the annexed severe rebited the man- tucky is directly to the point :

> ways! Get down, you long faced hypo- Others gave the prince of darkness the eism in free government that the minority credit of the charge, but none suspected shall govern. We have nided to ostracise to stand to its principles. And, therefore,

They too would rather die than shame."

threatened by this American party. I was of labor or commerce. He read his own A very singular wedding, says a New Creator and creature, ratified by approving with other nations. He did not blame the which creates a government over them." York paper, transpired here this week. A conscience; and if founded on the immutayoung and very pretty Irish girl-the sister bie promises of heaven, it cannot be subof one of our common Councilmen, was walk- verted by human agency. If it survived "Enough enough take him off." of one or our common to the shocks of persecution for dighteen cen-

"Now," said Stubbleworth, "there are of the tender passion. Well, this gentle- Van Buren, in New York, be offered a re-In a speech recently delivered by John three things you must promise me, before I man on the promenade was attracted by ward to any man, (Southern Democrats included, of course,) "to point to a line or rested his steps and ventured to address sentence, in the Cincinnal resolutions, which advocates or encourage the extension of our keep-eved Southern Democrats can accommodate their freesoil braher, by pointing not only to lines and sections, but to very to free territory. (Applace) left yesterday for Liverpool, but when I failed, and that whatever New Jersey might United States, I said to mysd, because I would change a bundred votes in the State. from North to South, this is notime for any be watching any body's else, and all would alised. But his musings were more in sorrow . Why, sir one of your subscribers same one with patriotic feelings swelling his breast be right. Kentucky could not fail to be for

The bride of the king of the Sandwich ver did and sever will succeed. American men in the Republic, in their gigantic ef sides the muchines, one thousand women is to be known by the fine may it has during

The intelligent and modest Irish Catho- Seldom has such enthusiasm been witlie who wrote that letter to the Philadel- nessed as marks every assemblage of the from which we published some time ago, ster assemblage in New York city a few days discharged his duty so ably and faithfully, since some of the ablest men of the nation that we must reckon him as a second Cap- uttered words of wisdom, and eloquently tain Bragg at that kind of work, and call explained the objects and mission of the vernment, in which Daniel Webster, the institution of learning, - and where the State upon him to let them have "a little more party of patriotism. The following extract great expounder of the Constitution, laid Government guarantees the good faith of cans were vicing with each other to see who each of these Senators, that the public may Even at the present day, in the "Fancy "We have actually helped to carry out, could descend the lowest in courting the perceive the radical difference between the property being with each orner to see who by our conduct at the bailet-box, that sole- coreign vote. Men, he remarked, elected Whig and Democratic positions at that time by the American party, refused, in Congress, The preacher remonstrated, and Forge- the Methodist preacher; and the latter hav. from power and place the wisest and brav- the people must look to themselves and not ron, walking up to the horse, threstened to that these territorial governments were in a slightest difference; whether it be one cent to Washington, and proclaim with a determination to enforce the exclamation, that increase and not that these territorial governments were in a slightest difference; whether it be one cent to Washington, and proclaim with a determination to enforce the exclamation, that their places a nondescript species of animals, and proclaim with a determination to enforce the exclamation, that it would be who are now the laughing stock of the garmeeting. Rev. Mr. Stubbleworth preached the patriot of humanity, the sage of Ash. merican principles, who now gave all their tution prescribed by Congress. They have $10 to space, to invest them in a speculation "I have one request to make, my friend that seemed to enter his soul and that is, you won't beat me with this overwhose brilliant emanations awoke the slum- succeeded in getting a bill through the Conbering embers of expiring liberty in the gressional Committee, but it could go no nots become void. The people under the squander their money in intemperance and my last circuit, and I do not wish to have was only half through when he felt like a wild pampas of S. America; and whose on- further in the present Congress. Republi. Territorial Government are not a Sore. dying eloquence, recited around the campof off with it, and that suddenly, you baoff Selice and Poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth off seed in the present congress. Republic recignly; they do not constitute a Sovelead to noth and character, and could lead to noth

of seed and Poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and Poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and Poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and Poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and Poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and Poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and poland, nerved the land character, and could lead to noth
of seed and poland, nerved the land character, and charact heart of Suliste and Sarmatian to do or die explanation of that bill which was very well nominate it, in a state of incolate govern. Swan's prospecius, as will be seen for Au--even he, glorious in defeat, was pulled received. To become naturalized under to one of the cardinal principles of the A- will find one way of disposing of it. It is prizes, ranging through all the grades of "Why not abandon this suicidal course, merican party—that no allegiance could be which will ultimately end in our discomfit- beld by those becoming citizens of this territory a government to keep the peace, it is the best of the peace, beld by those becoming citizens of this territory a government to keep the peace, it is the best of the peace, it is the best of the peace. ure and disgrace? Can we wish for a no- country to any foreign power whatever, to seeme their property; to assign to them ticket has, therefore, more than an equal life of privation and toil. A grave in the had passed through eighty years since the provided for; and to maintain them in that ets are prizes; which will certainly make battle field, but with the proud conscious commencement of our Republic, and we state until they grow into sufficient importance one-half prizes; if it should end with an enoissecour in such matters, did not wait for "Yes, my brethren," said he, "it is a ness that they were leaving to their success had now become the camping ground of nations. In our early days the foreigners ted into the Union as a State, upon the that half prizes. If orders are addressed sought to Americanize themselves, but now same jooting as the original States. It to S Swan & Co., Atlanta, Ga., or S. Swan, they all sought to sustain their individual seems to me that is all our duty. I shall Montgomery, Ala, they will be immediate-

> " The man, with soul so dead. That never to himself has said, Constitution or our laws, while, true to their "I so understood the gentleman. These ministered a conting reliake to those oraown policy, they would not seek to advance laws are to be submitted to Congress, not tors of his own party who go about denounsays that he was foiled in an efficient occur. A REWARD FOR SOUTHERN DEMO- our interests and open the resources of the for confirmation, but for consideration, with country, but rather sought to make this a the view, I suppose, to repeal or modify clug Mr. Fillmore as an abolitionist. The second Fatherland. Hence the necessity such as might appear unconstitutional or Observer and Reporter thus reports the that Americans should band together for improper. But I can recall only one case substance of his remarks upon this point: their own protection. And what was more where this power has been exercised, and | "He said it was no pert of his mission to strange than all was, that men who obligate that is in relation to banking. I again ask abuse or denounce Mr. Fillmore; that he ted themselves to these American principle why this case of slavery should be excepted did not intend to imitate the example of ples should forsake them; and, unprincipled from the jurisdiction of the Territorial Le- some of his juvenile, heardless speakers, who as they were, turn themselves and pander gislatures? The Senator from Massachu- were rosming over the country. He franky slavery to free territory." Pertainly some as they were, turn themselves and pander settle says we have excepted many other ca- by admitted that Mr. Fillmore was a pure ment to which, for the good of the people, ses. But I repeat that he labors under a patriot; that he met the crisis thro' which they had sworn eternal hostility. Yet, such misapprehension upon that subject. I can- the country passed, during his Administrawas the little principle possessed by some sivier the people of a Territory just as rom- tion, like a man and a lover of his country; whose paragraphs. They have told the men. The speaker then alluded in depre- petent to settle this question as the people of and that he was willing to go further, and people of the South, it is a signed national enterty terms to the slavery agitation, and a State; and I believe a man knows just say that, in his opinion, he would do it athey can easily produce the untence and which sould many great national measures as much when he goes to a territory as he gain should be be elected. That altho' Mr. which could get no hearing before Congress did before he went there. And I believe, Fillmore raised at the North, and breathtask, we wish to see John cornered for once so long as the question of slavery was agi. further, that we have no territory where the ing an atmosphere not congenial to Southwho will get the reward! Hear what tated. The question of slavery extension American settlers will not exercise a pre- ern rights, had, in his earlier years, expresswas not one of philanthropy, he said, but a ponderating influence over all public affairs. ed opinions inimical to slavery, yet his admatter of political policy alone. And so The inhabitants will always have a legisla- ministration showed that, when called to the "I am aware that some getlemen with long as the Constitution recognized slaves ture which will reflect their wishes; and if Executive Chair of the nation, he threw off whom I formerly acted -a fer, as I trust as property, the South would expect to be they desire slavery, they will have it, and if all partizan feelings, discarded all sectional -see the matter in a differentlight. Like protected in the enjoyment of the property, they do not, they will exclude it, unless pre-views, and showed himself the friend of his myself, they form their own convictions, as He appealed to those who heard him, that, vented by the Constitution. The simple whole country, the Union and the Constithey have a right to do, and at upon them. if not for themselves, at least for the bene- question is, why you take from them one of tution. They seem to suppose that some new rule fit of those who should come after them, their natural rights—the right of regulating has been laid down, or some mw principle they should do nothing that would tend one of their domestic relations! The genavowed upon the subject of savery which even to shake the unity of the Republic, tleman told us now that he did not desire | Source Norman -At a very excellent calls upon them to quit the Depoctatic par- The times were now so critical that tried to see the question of slavery agitated in hotel not a hundred miles from our parts, ty. I see no such thing. Intertarning men only should be placed in power. Yet, the Teeritories. Sir, this is just where I similar sentiments, in some rapeds, with the Republicans put up a man of no recog. desire to see it agitated, if agitated it must they were one day short of a waiter, when themselves, I get see nothing in the proceeds nixed ability. The people had committed 'e, as it will do far less injury there than a newly arrived Hibernian was hastily ings of the Cincinnati Committee that the Government to a Franklin Pierce, and here. Why, then I repeat, do now make a made to supply the place of a more expert calls upon me to quit the party in which I he would go out of power edited by the distinction between this right and any hand, have been form and reared Applause ) shrill hisses of those who elevated him. He other " I am told, in looking at the resolutions of tried to administer the Government by a Mr. Buchanon, by making the declarathat Convention, they have been able to mixture of heterogenous elements, and he tion in his letter of acceptance, that, under The girl, overwhelmed with surprise, de. discover that they pledged the Lemontatio had made a complete failure therein. And the Kanzas legislation, "the people of the him take his soop anyhow. organization to the extention of davus, to be verily believed that Fremont's elevation Territories, like the people of the States free territory. I have real these the power would leave the country in even a shall decide whether slavery shall or shall Barney. noon her brother called at the hotel where tions carefully, and with what little intelli- worse plight than it now is. He contend- not exist within their limits," has fully "Well, that's a man," said Stubbleworth. her admirer resided and informed him that gence I have been able to apply to them, I ed that he had just as much interest in the identified himself with the position of Gen. can find no such thing in then. I offer a result in New Jersey as he had in Kentue- Cass. He repudiates the clear reasoning of reward, now, to any of those intelligent re- ky, and looked to the one with equal anxi- Webster as to the non-sovereign condition the house. dence of the bride's mother, and the old publican gentlemen to pointme - not to au ey as he did to the other. The only safe- of the Territories, and places them on the . Darn the house!' exclaimed the guest, outrage in Kansas, not to a suffe in Wash- guard for the country was in the success of same platform as "the States." Are the ington, not to an improper speak or impro- the American party and its camildate. To people of the South ready to ratify this Ned rose, with feelings he never experi- This gentleman-he would not like me per newspaper article-but to a fine or sen- our enemies he would say, the fereigners monstrous interpretation of the Constitution I went eat it, get along with you. tence in the Cincinnati resolutions which had intelligence, and if they succeeded in and the Kansas bill, by voting for Mr. Buautocates or encourages the extension of sla- treading us down, they would claim the change. lion's share of the spoils. He trusted there would be no shrinking from the issue by AN EXTRAORDINARY CHILD - A boy, ye get till ye finish the soup."

their machinations were defeated, the people rose en masse to express their gratitude. And these rash men had tried to fix it so, that when the storm here rises, the country would not have its Fillmore at the beim.

THE TERRITORIAL QUESTION.

tions of the Territories to the Federal Go. it is made the means of establishing a great Gen Cass also made known, in the same abated. The two opposing parties, he said, to the debute, the opinions he entertained. We nevertised by them we are indebted for many

Mr. Webster said : "We have always gone upon the ground always of the opinion that a man's religion newspaper and magazine, and chose all his rights of the people while under the Terriideas from models of his own country, which torial Government, to do more than they tingencies—an invisible compact between be also puts before his children. And so are permitted to do by that Constitution

But they exhibited no respect for our Cass in reply to Mr. Webster:

A TRUE AMERICAL.

At a recent American meetig in Phila
the Americans in this campaign. If their principles were wrong forsake them, but if they were true, then stand by them. As age, and having a brother and sister, both A Kissiso ITEM -A young gentleman delphia, Mr. J. J. Fuller, a methant of N. God was his Judge, he believed the election younger, arrived 1. Detroit, Michigan, on residing in the neighborhood of Richmond, of Millard Fillmore to be at this time a pe- the 1st instant, on his way to Wisconsin - had occasion, a short time since, to drive When I left New Orleans, I ad my pass litical necessity. Whenever he failed he The parents were killed by the Indians in his pretty cousin Fanny, down to Windsor when I left New Orleans, that my pass interest my pass in the American people had oregon last winter, and the mother, while in a gig. Little Charlie, a brother of Fan-A SHOCK - Bill what are you doing left yesterday for Laverpool, at when I fathed, and that whatever New Jersey might dying, had giving little John instructions my's accompanied and sat between them in vation, that the present politica contest is as steel. They had tried to seduce her by for reaching their former home, which the gig, but as he was only five or six years one of the utmost importance, pobably the putting one of her favorite sons upon the brave boy had thus far carried out. While of age, was considered nobody. Unfortumost important in the brief library of the opposite ticket, yet he did not believe it at San Francisco, a benefit was given him but that very day of which he was exceedloved my country from East o West, and Let every man do his own duty, and not at the theatre from which $1800 were re-ingly proud. Finding on his arrival at

to leave his post of duty. [Aplause.] I the man who was recommended by her A Monsten Estantishment - The great-ma to complain: wrote to my agent to give up my berth, and most distinguished son, on his death bed—est clothing establishment in the world is cried, "I li never ride in a gig between state under no circumstances could I be Henry Clay. She could not vote for any that of M. Godillot, in Paris. He employs ter Fanny and cousin George again." Why compelled to go abroad during the present man who was everything to every body, as sixty-six sewing machines, kept in motion so, my dear?" inquired mamma. "Bewas James Buchanan. But she would vote by a steam engine of nine-horse power, and cause," be replied, "they've enached my Mr. Fuller is a true America, and we for him who had shown himself a hold and which sewed all the overcoats for the Cri. new hat all to pieces, with leaning over me What is now required to elect Ir. Fillmore the difficulties in '40 and '50 were at it now, santey, who has invented a cutting machine is a systematic and concentrated effort .- Where was Greely, Weed and Seward then capable of custing out fifteen suits at once, Without such an effort, the bet cause ne- Fighting to the death the proudest and best almost with the rapidity of lightening. Beforts to save it. And when by Fillmore and girls are constantly engaged at sewing, germon time-

GEORGIA LOTTERY

Fortune ! do thou but aid me now,

A FAIR LOTTERY .- Opposed as we are to all lotteries, on principle, there must be exceptions to every rule; and we are now inclined to make one, in favor of a pro-pectus recently received from Samuel Swan & A dehate occurred in the Scuate of the Co., Atlanta Georgia. A lottery, if only United States in 1850, touching the rela- used as a cloak for gambling, deserves to be condemned; but where, as is now the case,

Let it be borne in mind, that to the mopublish a paragraph from the speech of of our noblest churches and public edifices. that the "Wheel of Fortune" is in use, with chances varying from one to two dimes each turn. Now, so fur as the PRINCIPLE is concerned, the amount embarked makes not the that these territorial governments were in a slightest difference; whether it be one cent The Territorial Legislature have a Constitutueh better for such as have $2.50, $5 or ment and sovereignty. If we will consider gust 25th, offers a pleasant excitement, and this question upon the ground of our prac- at a cost which cannot injure those who fail. tice during the last half century, I think we There are 30,000 tickets and over 15,000

TESTIMONY IN BEHALF OF MR. FILL

Col. John W. Stephenson, of Covington, Ky, one of the ablest Democrats of the Germans for love of Fatherland, for where's This is the true, common sense doctrine State, and the man selected to take Major upon this all important and vital question. Breckinridge's place as Democratic elector We give a portion of the remarks of Mr. for the State at large, made a speech, about a week ago, at Lexington, in which he adeing Mr. Fillmore as an abolitionist. The

'Now Barney,' said mine host, you serve every man with soup first thing. Make ' Bedad, I II do that same,' said the alert

' No soup for me,' said the man.

But you must have it, it is the rules of highly exasperated, when I don't want soup, . Well?' said Barney, with solemnity, all I can say is just this, it's the regulations of the house, and divil the durop else will

Windsor, that it had sustained some injury during the journey, he rushed to his man-

Punch says that the " clock of religion "