Morth Carolina Whig.

"Be true to God, to your Country, and to your Duty."

VOLUME 5.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., OCTOBER 14, 1856.

NUMBER 34.

THOMAS J. HOLTON, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

TERMS:

Advertisements inserted at One Pollar per square 16 lines or less, this sixed type; for the first maer. higher; and a deduction of 334 per cent, will year. Advertisements inserted monthly of they 75 cents per square for each time. I Plusimusters are authorized to set as sgents

Poetry.

PAY THE PRINTER. BY DENKY BEADY.

As benest men, attend and heer The serious fact—the times are dear; Who owes a bill, 'tre just as clear As startight on the winter, That be should some without delay-That's if he con-that full to pay, Ami see he puts his purse away, " Fork over " to the Printer

The printer's sheek is as Idom ted. The fine machinery of has bead working when you are in bed, Your true and faithful "menter," All day and night he wears his shoes And brains to furnish you with news; But men of conversion refer refuse. To pay the toding Printer.

Tie known, se ought to be, by all His dues are scattered, and they're small. And it not paid, he's bound to full

In debt .- for furl, bread, rent, or Perhaps his raper, then to square Up with his help—a double core Bowe down his head—now is it fair That you don't pay the Printer.

His wife and little protilers, ton, Are now depending uson you; And if you pay lise some that's due, Necessity can't street berg But if you don't, so knows the mole, Twell thro' your conscioure est a bole! And brand your forebead thus " No soul!

The cut will new between your feet, slogs will hite you on the street And every archin that you meet, Will rose with some of stenior, Look to your pockets—there he goes

The grab, he gorwed the Printer?

Yourself, but beg the "Lord of groce," To those that harden'd my " case," That hencity may enter; This done, man will with man not fair, And all will have the " too " to spare; Then will the "estituted chair." Support a well-paid Printer.

Miscellancous.

SCARDAL!

A STORY OF EVERY-DAY LIFE.

saw them they were sitting down on a tomb. less girl. stone, and I'm sure he had his arm around know, last night; and as she stood by the visit this place for !" fence, I saw her as plain as could be."

"Well, I always thought her a queer girl, and I noticed her intimacy with Col. come to this. I wonder if she will be at health, you eat altogether too much." Henry's on Thursday !"

not invite Ellen, because every one was talking of her behavior at Russell's last

"Well, I am right glad of that; for if she was to be there, I would not go a step." reputation of one of the fairest and best girls of the village of Greenhaven. Ellen Merkle was the youngest daughter of a rich farmer. She had been earefully educated, and was not less remarkable for intelligence, than the unobtrasive, yet ever active victues, that advanced her character, and the beauty that won her the admiration you these two years."

had received the attentions of Col. Staple- upwards, and the down ones slight !" Ex-President of the United States.

ton, the unimportant and meaningless coursions, without a frown, and had ever danced three sets with him at Russell's party, al. As the canvass hastens to a close, it be- taken from the Knowvill: Whig. It was The North-Carolina Whig will be afforded to subthough the gossipa said he was a libertine. comes more and more manifest that Mr. an American appointment, and the DemoA FREMONT TICKET IN VIRGINIA: his hearers that General Cass and other

The North-Carolina Whig will be afforded to subthough the gossipa said he was a libertine. comes more and more manifest that Mr. an American appointment, and the DemoA FREMONT TICKET IN VIRGINIA: though the gossips said he was a libertine. comes more manifest that Mr. an American appointment, and the Demo-There is no mistake this time. A Frediscontinuous for the control of the year. No paper will be disconthe control of the year. No paper will be disconthe control of the year. No paper will be disconthe control of the year. There is no mistake this time. A Frethe control of the year. There is no mistake this time. A Frethere is no mistake this time. There is no mistake this time. The mistake this time. There is no mistake this time. There is no mistake this time. There is no mistake this ti and until all arrearages are paid, except at the of reading and reflection. He visited her mencement of the campaign, there were very low, one of the speakers, says: o, and 25 cents for each continuance. Court ad- town—that is, the gosssips of the place—piniou that Mr. Fillmore could not be elec- would follow in a speech similar length them from the Wellsburg Herald, which acade from the regular prices, for advertisers by stranger, he dressed in the height of fash- anon, for the sole purpose of heating Fre- Ramsey, would conclude - Il speaking one following editorial remarks: with him, was a deadly sin in the eyes of ject. all those who envied her the opportunity.

-hope had no smile for her, and affection be elected, even, if he got every Southern cupied it for one hour and a half. no soluce. Consumption, too, often the dis. vote. case of despair, came in mercy and bore | But, there is another consideration in-grief-strengthened memories of her family, Ellen Merkle was forgotten.

Col. Stapleton re-visited Greenhaven. He truction of Ellen's posce and of her death.

ed with mournful satisfaction. That Ellen's success of Buchanan or the triumph of Frememory should be released from the impa. mont, agitation must and would follow, and asked the numerous Baptist votes present, tations on it, and her innocence acknowl- we would reach a point which might emedged by those whose busy whispers had brace within its scope the evils of dissoluwithcred up her heart, would be a sad tion.

It may be that we err in judgment, but made with us, in detail. We assured the trons in order to defeat Fremont, the section-with fillen Merkle, his sequentiance had been light, and, excepting at her father's ginning to realize this fact, and that before Methodist, to the "Tron Whoel" by Mr. "We are not surpressed at the result house and two or three parties, he had never exchanged a word with her.

AFTER.

It was true that he was in the grave yard able persuasion, induced her to go home.

It was a young girl with whom he was well acquainted, and who left the village said it her reputed improprieties? Nothing. She inpos the Italian system—the heavy strokes there is to indicate the resting place of an inpos the Italian system—the heavy strokes there is to indicate the resting place of an inpos the Italian system—the heavy strokes there is to indicate the resting place of an inpos the Italian system—the heavy strokes there is to indicate the resting place of an inposition of the United States.

"To enjoy myself. Are you ill ?" "O, terribly su."

From the Wilmington Herald,

ERN DEMOCRATS.

We have on numerous occasions shown, of warm hearted Fillmore men.

volved. Grant that Mr. Buchanan could He called at her father's, and was receiv. generally conceded. In either event, the was demanded. Col. Stapleton heard the to a union upon Mr. Fillmore. He can be the election thousands of conservative men all I have to say."

This statement of Gov. FLOYD's is un she was going to Merkle's, she would not "I like your conversation very much; determination to vote for Mr. Fillmore for she was going to Merkle's, she would not invite her, but go home and ask her mother said she told me her mother said she must be to the calculation to vote for Mr. Fillmora for the told me her mother's grief.

This man Maj. Ramsey, fellow-citizens for Fremont, even though he was, as some their mother's grief.

Will you take a seat and tide home 's said say, a native of South Carolina. Suppose of the Baptist persuasion, recently said at fine tentions and a half a day!"

This man Maj. Ramsey, fellow-citizens of the calculation to vote for Mr. Fillmora for Fremont, even though to was, as some their mother's grief.

Will you take a seat and tide home 's said say, a native of South Carolina. Suppose of the calculation to vote for Mr. Fillmoral for Fremont, even though the was, as some their mother's grief.

Will you take a seat and tide home 's said say, a native of South Carolina. Suppose of the calculation to vote for Mr. Fillmoral for Fremont, even though the was, as some their mother's grief.

Will you take a seat and tide home 's said say, a native o also. He has come to this determination in the had been unsue mear fort Washington. By the change of aspect in political affairs, and taking one of the foriotn little creatures to the South. Do not trust those who prove Willow, was about to marry an old rich widwislaw, was about to marry an old rich widower. Her friends wished to know what ower. Her friends wished to know what she was about to marry him for? She feelingly replied, "Pure leve-I love the ground in the late of the utter impotency of Mr. Buchaningly replied, "Pare love —I love the ground lief of the utter impotency of Mr. Buchan(meaning the farm probably,) on which he an at the North, it expresses nothing. And, were sticking themselves on the juries, and of the passengers were picked up dried their tears, and entertained us by either convexing hourst men, or acousting hourst men, or account men had directed. oriculating, with hypocritic regret and real suitsfaction, the tale which was to blast the walks, and the very house in which he lives. In this view of the case, it also expresses the ten asking if we were going to take him to li we were to settle the slavery question and the ten asking if we were going to take him to li we were going to take > defeating Black Republicanism. "Solomon, I fear you are forgetting PRESIDENT MONROE died at the residence day! even a headstone erected to his memory .-

A RICH SCENE.

Mossy Creek, Jefferson county Tenn., is ing and elapping!

knew of him, and more than most of the parties, who, honestly entertaining the o- us from the stand, was, that Col. Watkins ing on the 18th of September. We take knew. They said Col. Stapleton was a ted, went over to the support of Mr. Bueh- that we would reply and that Maj J. C. companies its publication of them with the Mr. Toombs jumps at his conclusion too ted from eight to fifteen thousand persons. ion, took long walks at night, was proud superbillious and overheaving; he was too superbillious and overheaving; he was too at eleven o'clock. Accordingly, Col. Cocke supplied in the first importance, that we shall be seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively and the seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively and the seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively and the seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively and the seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively and the seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively and the seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively and the seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively and the seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively and the seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively and the seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively and the seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively and the seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively and the seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively. The seen as Gen. Case the seen that the seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively. The seen as Gen. Case the seen that the seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively. The seen as Gen. Case the seen that the seen by reference to the properties of the Republican Convention respectively. The seen as Gen. Case the seen that walking with a female after dark on the the welfare of the country depended on the made his speech, and not only walked into been appointed one of the Electors. He rep- of the people, who "knows no North, no of heef, pork and mutton, slaughtered and outskirts of the village, and was, of course defeat of the Republicans, and they broke the affections of Col. Watkins, but riddled resents the 1st District. As Governor Wise South," and whose nomination for the Presall that was evil; and for Ellen to dance loose from their party ties to effect this ob- the Cincinnati Platform, greatly to the sat- per published in that district, the Judge isfaction of a large and enthusiastic crowd need not be afraid of his speeches being se. 1852, will be somewhat formidable in the

sion led to another, until Ellen stood slone, Fillmore for Buchanan, they are in reality taking any part in the discussion, because get along finely.

Shauld be not in the South!* Why should taking any part in the discussion, because get along finely. in a social parish, with whom no one dared contributing to Fremont's election. And, he was not allowed to conclude the services! and Richard Brennemon, Esqs., of Hancock not Mr. Toombs vote for him? He left the to associate, under the penalty of sharing that this is so, will become apparent to any We thought this decidedly cool, not to say county, are also on the electoral ticket. All Whig party in 1852 because Mr. Filimore and Mr. Pools Senators Butler and Toombs, her fate.

One who chooses to examine it. It simply it should this decidedly cool not to say county, are also on the electoral ticket. All wing party in 1853 because Mr. Finding the above named, have been heretofore prominent and left the brings the contest down to sectional fight— attend an American appointment, and after the village, and, when the invidious tale the North for Fremont, the South for Buch.

We thought this decidedly cool not to say county, are also on the electoral ticket. All wing party in 1853 because Mr. Finding and Gov. Adams. Mr. Brooks, of course made the speech of the above named, have been heretofore prominent and influential members of the Dumbert and influential members of the All wing party in 1853 because Mr. Finding and Gov. Adams. Mr. Brooks, of course made the speech of the above named, have been heretofore prominent, and after decidedly cool, not to say county, are also on the electoral ticket. All wing party in 1853 because Mr. Finding and Gov. Adams. Mr. Brooks, of course made the speech of the above named, have been heretofore prominent, and after decidedly cool, not to say county, are also on the electoral ticket. All wing party in 1853 because Mr. Brooks, of course made the speech of the above named, have been heretofore prominent, and after the above named to the above named the village, and, when the invidious tale reached her family, her simple denial was ann: -176 electoral votes against 120.—

should not Mr. Toombs support him, especially refer.

Senator Butler, speaking, to wish to say who should cross of Virginia." reached her family, her simple denial was anan; -176 electoral votes against 120 - speaking, to wish to say who should close of Virginia." beyond the walls of home, believed that? free State. What then is the necessity for State. What then is the necessity for stand, Whereapon; he backed square out, inent and isfluential necessity for is out of the question?"

There it is! Just as we expected? "All cially, when he considers that "Buchanan the debate. We so informed him upon the the above named have been heretofore promise out of the question?" neyond the walls of home, believed that? tree State, what then, is the necessity for stand, Whereupon; he backed square out, the above named have been heretofore prominent. She linguished on in wretchedness the south to unite on him. He could not and Mark December 1981 and influential members of the Demand Maj. Ramsey took the stand, and oc- ocratic party !!" And one of them was late

Maj. Ramsey pitched into the Editor of islature! Augels and ministers of grace this paper, and discussed his merits at length. What can the matter be? Oh! "Gizzard-Foot," beloved and devoted "Gizzard-Foot," her to the grave.

A few years sped on, and except by the be elected, still his success would not have one was compared of Bourist to a could be fact of shires. Ishould advise my Legthe least tendency to allay sectional strife. ence was composed of Buptist, to a considered minitia, and make for the Pan Han-On the contrary it would most likely aggra- erable extent, and he drew out, and held die. The enemy is at your door in the pervate and prolong it through the violence of up our Book in reply to Graves' Iron Wheel of the It wheel and influential members ty-four sound Northern Liemocrats" who is a great question to be settled, but whethhis opponents: for certainly he is as much -called attention to the many hard things tor of the State, why sleep ye? -Richmond cerats even here in Richmond dany the truth box I do not know. [Appliance] ly of the tale which had wrought the des- a Southern sectional candidate, as Fremont we had said against that numerous and resis a Northern sectional candidate. This is pectable denomination of Christians-exbibited what he styled obscene pictures, THE "STANDARD" BEFORE AND AFscandalizing pious Baptist Preachers-and TER THE WHIG CONVENTION.

affection for her memory. An explanation the path of duty seems to us plain. It leads was demanded. Col. Stapleton heard the to a union upon Mr. Fillmore. He can be story with astonishment, and denied it with casily elected, if the South will lend its aid.

The can best down Fremontism, and he as the candidate? THAT OBJECT. Who is that candidat rarmth.

The can best down Fremoutism, and he amount of the Book exhibited -stated that Beyond all question, James Buchanan,"

With Ellen Merkle, his acquaintance had lone. We believe that the people are best tweether that the people are best t will rally to his support on this idea. Cer- at all ashamed of-and that we had no great body of the delegates went to Baltitainly the South-certainly the Southern apologies to make. We proceeded to state, more-nut to unite on the strongest man to -Richmond Whig. one night with a female; he was passing by, which from time to time had been passed that the Americans of the vicinity, with a defent the common enemy of the Constituthat the Americans of the vicinity, with a defent the common enemy of the Constituthat of Fremont, and if necessary, would between the North and the South, every one when he heard some recent politic solding.

The Man or the Property—A friend, when he heard some person within solbing and mosning; he looked over the fence and saw a woman setting by a grave, weeping; it was late at night, and he crossed the was late at night, and he crossed the countries of the statement which it was late at night, and he crossed the countries of the countries of the existence of the Know-Nothing candidate, Millard Fillmore, and the Cross-of the following in that of Fremont, and if necessary, would follow the example of Governor From, of Sofaras this State is concerned, this is proved who was an eye-witness of the following in the way of which he styled a stab under the fifth rib. He avowed himself in favor of a dissolution of the Union. He had been a disminist of religious controversy, had invited us there is no follow the example of Governor From, of Wirghins, who, in a recent speech at Merican State and the countries of the following in that of Fremont, and if necessary, would follow the example of Governor From, of Which he styled a stab under the fifth rib. He avowed himself in favor of a dissolution of the Union. He had been a distinct of religious controversy, had invited us there of the Convention to the Convention itself. fence and went to her, and, after consider to deliver a speech. It was very natural from first to last,"

The convention is all a second doubtless never except the deliver a speech. It was very natural from first to last,"

The convention is the we commend to the earnest consideration of that Baptists, Presbyterians, and others, No comment needed. Let us all laugh: pected that it would have attracted attention, Brooks; our friends the Democrats. Gov. FLOYD should not and vote with as in this contest as neither Fillmore or Donelson, Buchanan But I say this to you now such is the or Brockenridge, knew any thing about the king the executations for the track of the with him a few days after, his wife, who change is the aspect of political efficient to the part at that hour to see, that has fastened itself on my conscience eared less! And although we differed with stone Square, one day of last week, the "In the year 1851, I change the appear of the political efficiency and the stone state of the part at that hour to see, that has fastened itself on my conscience eared less! And although we differed with stone Square, one day of last week, the since I came here to the North, that 1- cared less! And although we differed with stone Square, one day of last week, the "In the year 1851, I chanced to be one of the rative South. Their moral and is worth "Surely, Amelia, you are mistaken—it With Col. had few arquintances in the village, where Simpleton III.

"Surely, Amelia, you are mistaken—it Morkle you saw with Col. had few arquintances in the village, where stand by it against all comers and all goers, and to some points of Docume as well as the had residued but a short time. stand by it against all comers and all goers, and to some points of Degrine, as well as In the immediate vicinity were several oth-"I wish I was mistaken, Emma; but it is impossible; I saw both as plainly as I do gossips were compelled to acknowledge that there is any ground of suspicion against his faith to the democratic party—I tell you gossips were compelled to acknowledge that "At eleven o'clock at night, in the grave."

"At eleven o'clock at night, in the grave. yard, with Col Stapleton! I will never speak to her again if it bere. I will never speak to her again if it bere. The speak to her again if it bere. Some of our South-speak to speak to sp We had gone but a short distance, when fested before they will consent to act. I were pleased to find the Major more devotable family covered been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered been wrecked a respectable family covered been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable family covered by the fill been wrecked a respectable famil show me that the candidate of the black re- than he was last. Then, we were support- after the British army had evacuated Bos. and drive to the place where they were in party are on our side in this contest, topeat a thing that was not true; Sally Ann propagation of a false tale of guilt and im publician posty can only be beaten by my tan them as well as myself. When we first modesty, the coinage of an idle and thought rate bring cust for Mr. Fillmane, that I will publician posty can only be beaten by my ing a Baptist for Governor, while the Major ton. The other posts, in the ground near

Description. gree can vote to Mr. Fillmore, it the ground mean and specific work, placed there by the British proceded the woman and inquired the cause I am by no marries of use election. I and I will tell you consulting the claims of a Green County by, he said, formed a stockade, or outlaying proceded the woman and inquired the cause I am by no marries of use election. I And I will tell you something more. Vir- held responsible for what he had said a- ginia, democratic Virginia, that never failto the fence, right opposite the window, and he got over first, and then she clambered ing man accosted another visitor by remark.

LIFE AT THE SPRINGS.—A sickly-look gainst the Baptists, we desired to hold Mr. he are the intersection of Dover street. There is no reason to doubt the accuracy of this lies home to find a better one in America. Buchanan to a strict necount for what Maj. is no reason to doubt the accuracy of this lies home to find a better one in America. Buchanan to a strict necount for what Maj. is no reason to doubt the accuracy of this lies home to find a better one in America. across the waters of the Atlantic-Virgin. Ramscy had said against the same Church, old gentleman's narrative; he did not pre- He had worked very hard, and had saved if not it cannot be helped. They do no across the waters of the Atlantic—Virgin. It was light as day, you appear to be well, what do you know, last night; and as she stood by the visit this place for I'm that moment and in the property of the Atlantic—Virgin. Ramsey had said against the same Church, in that moment and in that vate. That is the Convention which nominated Fillmore, time; but he well remembered the spot, the That day they had arrived, but, also not the only choice is between him, Filmore, and the gallant Major was in the Conven- post, and the stone, and many a time had to meet the glad husband and father; for and Fremont. Mr Fillmore is a gentleman, tion which nominated Buchanan. We cal- them pointed out to him in his boyhood - two days previous, he had fallen from a and made or good Presulent, and perhaps, "Then permit me to remark, as a friend, questionably important. The Governor has led upon some Lady present to furnish the Stapleton, but I never thought it would that even if you were in the most robust been in New York long enough, as he says, come to this. I wonder if she will be at health, you can altogether too much."

Stapleton, but I never thought it would that even if you were in the most robust been in New York long enough, as he says, as he says, the first to the sact of washington's cutrance into Boston, the led upon some Lady present to furnish the accuracy of his story as he was of the fact of washington's cutrance into Boston, the led upon some Lady present to furnish the accuracy of his story as he was of the fact of washington's cutrance into Boston, the led upon some Lady present to furnish the accuracy of his story as he was of the fact of washington's cutrance into Boston, the led upon some Lady present to furnish the accuracy of his story as he was of the fact of washington's cutrance into Boston, the led upon some Lady present to furnish the accuracy of his story as he was of the fact of washington's cutrance into Boston, the led upon some Lady present to furnish the accuracy of his story as he was of the fact of washington's cutrance into Boston, the led upon some Lady present to furnish the accuracy of his story as he was of the fact of washington's cutrance into Boston, the led upon some Lady present to furnish the accuracy of his story as he was of the fact of washington's cutrance into Boston, the led upon some Lady present to furnish the accuracy of his story as he was of the fact of washington's cutrance into Boston, the led upon some Lady present to furnish the accuracy of his story as he was of the fact of washington's cutrance into Boston, the led upon some Lady present to furnish the accuracy of his story as he was of the fact of washington's cutrance into Boston, the led upon some Lady present to furnish the accuracy of his story as he was of the fact of washington as he was of the fact of was to find out that there are bonds of union belearly's on Thursday!"

At this sickly looked indignant, but the

"Na! I told Anne this morning, and as he was not the gate, he is in there, and do better than we expect. But we to find out that there are bonds of union between the American party and the Democtween the Amer none of your school-girl foolishness in that, support of Mr. Fillmore, as the means of those implicated by him, is the Rev. M. Milligan, who sometimes preaches here, and MELANCHOLA DEATH,-We are pained to of a poor little hovel, which the woman said as support Buchaman, as it is the best course cinity, and we established the truth of what that came on .- Memphis Engle, we had charged, in all material respects, SENATOR TOOMBS FOR DISUNION. tesies of the ball-room, upon several ocea- GOV, FLOYD-THE DUTY OF SOUTH- The following account of a discussion at whereuron the crowd dene their own stamp- A correspondent of the Augusta Chroni-last Elsewhere, as a matter of news, we chanan's election. Mr. Toombs inferred assemblage on the occasion was the largest father frequently, and that was all she many men, good conservative men of all The agreement previous; announced by publish the proceedings of the Virginia Re- from this that Fremont would be elected - and most enthusiastic ever met together to a Democratic member of the Virginia Leg-

BEFORE.

"We are gratified to find that these gen-We followed the Major in a speech of tlemen (appointed by the Wake meeting.)

-that it contained nothing we were the deliberations of this Convention.

MEMENTO OF THE REVOLUTION.-In ma-

some of whose family are present here to- record the death of Fincher Bobo, of Coa- would be home if Jennay was there. home county, Miss., at Atlanta, Georgia, a me," said a bright-eyed girl to her laver, of his son-in-law in New York, in 1831, and This mode of crowding upon the Major, few days since. The circumstances are ted them to the door; then drawing forth elected. Suppose he should be. With rightly the other day. "Yes, Suc," said slow Sol, was buried in a cometery on the North side was more than he was willing to endure, from Georgia, he got on the wrong train of "Bridget Murphy," said she.

This mode of crowing apon the staget, mournful in the extreme. On his way home his card, he asked the woman's name millions of dollars in his power, what must be the result? excusing himself, "I have been for getting of Second street in that city. There is not and he rose up and stated that he had cer cars at Atlanta, and after they had started. Writing it on the blank side, he handed There are from Georgia he got on the wrong train of cars at Atlanta, and after they had started. Writing it on the blank side, he handed There are from Georgia he got on the wrong train of cars at Atlanta, and after they had started. But upon a simple slab of marble, that lies tainly never said such things—that he had being informed of the fact, he jumped off it to her with a bank bill, saying, "when ly. Some of them differ with me on politiflat, some two feet square upon the earth, no recollection of saying so, and that he de upon the frack behind. Both his legs were you need more, send that card to me; and questions; but I say to them their only What had she done to J. serve the penalty with which detro-more was about to visit her reputed interpretation. It for the first states that the first states are the first states and was run power to move off the track, and was run power to cle states that Senator Toombs, in a recent speech at Wilkes C. H., Georgia, informed There is no mistake this time. A Fre- distinguished Northern Democrats had in- Preston S. Brooks, gave him a public din-rapidly. It is true as Gen. Cass informed at one time thanked God there was no pavere'y criticised by the press. If he only Presidential race. In the North he will The scandal flew everywhere—one excluss or attempted to show, that by deserting Mr. Col. Watkins arose and politely declined act along the control of the scandal flew everywhere—one exclusion of the scandal flew everywhere one exclusion of the scandal flew everywhere of freedom," and collecting men and money to had been attacked, and he was bound by Abelitionize Kansas, was also a member of every consideration of honor to defend her. the 23d Congress, and was one of those "for. He spoke at some length on this point, and ty-four sound Northern Democrats," who then entered upon a discussion of the insti-

From the Wilmington Heald. DINNER TO MR BROOKS-CANES. GOBLETS, &c.

The people of Abbeville District, S. C., The number present was variously estima-

Gov. Adams, Senators Batter and Toombs, harbeened.

A golden goblet was presented Mr. Brooks by the people of Abbeville; a silver goblet on behalf of the citizens of Laurens, and a half of a citizen of Florida.

Addresses were made by Gen. McGow-

Senator Butler, speaking of the election PACTS TO BE REMEMBERED -Under this in the South should call the Legislature of head we sometime ago stated that General his State together, and measures of conduct Lane, the leader of the Freezoil cohorts in decided upon. If they did not, and submit-Kansas, was a Democrat-was a member of ted to the degradation, they would deserve Kansas Nebraska bill-was one of the " for. isluture to go at the top of the drum. There of our statement concerning Lane. To any Hon. Preston S. Brooks received the tesand all such we would say that we are wil. timonials presented to him with pride and ling to test the truth of the matter by mak. pleasure—they should be preserved as helring a small wager, the decision of the quest looms in his family, and gladden their hearts tion to be left to any well-informed Demo. at the recollection of the occasion which gave erat which they themselves may designate, them, when he had passed away. The act Which one of the Locos referred to will ac. of caming Samuer had its origin in no feelcept it? One at a time or all together-it ing of selfishness. Every consideration of honor and manhood required him to set as The notorious Governor Reeder, who is he did. There was a great principle involvnow traversing the North, "skricking for ed in and connected with the net. His Stata voted for the Kansas bill. Perhaps a bet tution of slavery-the problem of its utility mented upon the various "compromises" which from time to time had been passed or have been made the subject of a newspa- "Some say if Fremont is elected the South per paragraph but it is so characteristic of State alone cannot break up the Union, and lightly. We must have the co-operation of therefore I shall go for Buchaman, and shall shut and we must come back to-morrow. Nothing. I do not eare much for that. If the children shricked aloud at beholding be he Know-Nothing or not. I cannot go

A half hour's drive brought us in front suggest mother plus for agricultur. But let we can pursue. I am and complered of his Assisting the party out, our hero conduct election by any ments. Premont may be army in his power, what must be the result ? the may be elected, to take council from the