This Convention organized on Tuesday evening, by the appointment of Dr. J. T. Wheat, of the University of N.C., President; E. W. Ogburn, of Greensboro', Vice President; C. C. Cole, of threensbore', and R. H. Brown, of Asheboro, Secretaries; and Prof. Kerr, of Murfreesboro', Treasurer.

We are not prepared to give in detail the proceedings of this highly interesting convention, which continued its sessions until Friday evening. There were a large number of delegates in attendance, representing nearly all portions of the State and many of the most important institutions of learning within its bounds. Teachers of Common Schools were there, and the friends of Education. We have rarely seen a body which presented an assemblage of men of greater intelligence.

Among the most important subjects which occupied the time and attention of the Convention, we would name the follow-

The permanent organization of a State Educational Association was determined on; and committees appointed to muture the plan, druft a Constitution, &c. This our table. Association will have subdivisious, with District and County Associations.

Mr. R. H. Brawn, of Asheboro', presentdescribed as possessing new and important features and improvements, and asked the convention to appoint a committee to examine it and report upon its merits. The conrention received the application, and appointed a committee secordingly. We learn that Mr. Benjamin Summer, of this vicinity, was appointed on this committee, which, by the way, was a most capital selection, there being few more critically accurate scholars.

A unmber of learned and labored essays were read to the convention, all bearing upon the general subject of education, in some oge or the other of its various interests. Some of these were designed in especial reference to the free schools of our State, and their authors devoted themselves to the development of plans and suggestions looking to the preater efficiency and success of that These essays, in the main, were interesting; and as they were open to dislates. They will probably be published, and may bereafter become valuable as instituting changes and improvements in our educational system.

Mr. B Sumper moved a resolution, declaring that we ought to have a military school in this State; or a school designed on the plan of the West Point Accadence He sustained his motion by reading to the convention an able paper, prepared by himself, in favor of such an establishment, which met a very flattering reception. The resolution was adopted, and the convention requested the author to furnish the executive committee with a copy of his views as read

The Democrats are rejoicing greatly at 23 the election of Mr. Buchanam. Has the South really gained any-thing by his election ! If what the Washington correspon-Ils dent of the New York Herald states is true. it will be evident to every one that the South has been deceived. In a letter dated Nov. 7, he says :
