

Sunday Reading.

AN HOUR WITH MY OWN HEART.

It had been three years since my conversion, and yet I had made but little progress in the Christian pilgrimage.

On one Sabbath afternoon, when I had been confined to my room by a temporary indisposition, I fell into a train of thought, that, by the blessing of God, will continue to influence me as long as reason and life are left.

I closed the book and threw myself on my knees, in the sweet and impetuous darkness of my closet; and it seemed as if for the first time in my life, I felt the rapturous delight of penitential prayer.

Reader, is your heart hard, and your love cold? Are you indifferent to the interests of your Redeemer's kingdom, and indifferent to the obligations you are under to God?

AN AGOSTOPHE TO THE SABBATH. The Rev. Dr. Stevens closes his eloquent sermon on "The Lord's Day, its obligations and blessings," with the following beautiful extract from Hamilton's "Home at Virginia Sabboth."

"O Sabbath! Needed for a world of sinners—without thee, what would be a world of sin! There would be no pause for consideration, no check to passion, no reminder of toil, no calm of care.

Manuring and Hill-Side Ditching must begeth with the policy and practice in N. Carolina. Manuring to revive and increase the fertility of our soil, and hill-side ditching to preserve it from washing, are necessary to our salvation as an agricultural people.

by and by you will give God no honor at all. Let any one lay the foundation with no Sabbath, and I am never surprised if he finishes with the testimonies of no God.

Agricultural.

AGRICULTURAL SCIENCE—MANURING.

It has been taught by Professors of Agricultural Chemistry, and apparently on reasonable grounds, that the very worst way to apply manure was to spread it out on the field and leave it exposed.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a swelling of the throat. One to three bottles will cure the system of Bile.
